

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

DEATHS.

It is my sad duty to report the deaths of three of our brethren of the clergy during the past year. June 16, 1882, Rev. Robert F. Jackson, Jr., rector of Christ Church, Richmond, departed this life at his father's house, in Petersburg, after a brief ministry of six years, and being, I believe, about thirty years of age. September 16, Rev. Nicholas A. Okeson, D. D., for nearly twenty-six years the faithful and beloved rector of St. Paul's Church, Norfolk, died in Pennsylvania, in his sixty-fourth year. He was followed January 15th, 1883, by Rev. William N. Pendleton, D. D., rector of Grace Memorial Church, Lexington, who had attained to more than three score and thirteen years. I might say much in praise of each one of these beloved brethren, and especially of the last, whose affectionate friendship I enjoyed for more than forty years, and whom I knew thoroughly only to admire and love as a most noble specimen of a Christian man. But I can add nothing to what has been already said by friends and vestries. Their record is on high, and being now at rest from their labors, their works do follow them.

CHURCHES CONSECRATED.

1882, June 16.—Calvary, a neat and commodious brick building, at Mitchell's Station, Culpeper county, Rev. John McGill, rector, who, with Rev. J. E. Jackson and R. R. Claiborne, assisted in the services. Rev. Dr. Slaughter, who had taken great interest in the work, and through whom most of the money for the erection of the church was given by a gentleman formerly of Virginia, but now of New York, was also present.

August 12.—Johns Memorial, Farmville, Rev. A. S. Lloyd, rector. This is a handsome brick building, for which the people are chiefly indebted to the efforts of Rev. F. Stringfellow. Besides the rector, Rev. Messrs. Webb, Assheton and Ware, of Easton, assisted in the services.

October 6.—St. Luke's, Essex, a neat and comfortable frame building, Rev. J. H. Hundley in charge, who, with Rev. E. Meade and Jno. Moncure, assisted.

October 17.—The Church of Our Saviour, Hanover, one of the finest and most striking frame buildings in the Diocese—Rev. Curtis Grubb rector. I wish I could give the interesting history of this church. It occupies entirely new ground, and was commenced and built chiefly by the efforts of Rev. Robt. Nelson, D. D., a large part of the money having been contributed through him by Mrs. Seymour, a lady of New Port, R. I. Dr. Nelson and Mrs. Seymour, with a lady friend, were present at the consecration, which added very much to the interest of the occasion. The former delivered an address, and gave the history of the building of the church from the beginning.

Bishop's Report.

December 4.—Grace Church, Goochland C. H., Rev. P. M. Boyden, rector, and Rev. B. M. Randolph, assisting. This is a neat frame building, which was commenced and nearly completed during the ministry of Rev. H. B. Lee.

1883, March 13.—Epiphany, Lynchburg, an offshoot of St. Paul's, Rev. E. S. Gregory, rector; a pretty building of blue soap-stone, in a new and growing part of the city. I was assisted by Rev. Messrs. Carson, Williams, Lawrence, Gregory and Suter, the latter of whom preached the sermon.

March 14.—Emmanuel, a nice little brick building in Madison, a village in Amherst county, across the river from Lynchburg. This church, with its flourishing congregation, is the fruit of the indefatigable and faithful labors of Rev. J. H. Williams, who, with Messrs. Carson and Lawrence, assisted in the services.

March 21.—St. Luke's, Norfolk, a large and comfortable brick building, with a prosperous congregation under the efficient rectorship of Rev. John B. Newton. Seven clergymen were present and took part in the solemn and interesting services.

March 25.—Easter Sunday, assisted by Rev. J. Y. Downman, the minister in charge, consecrated St. John's, another neat little frame Church, at West Point, King William county. On all these occasions, except one, which I have mentioned, the preaching was by myself.

Bishop's Report.

RESIGNATIONS.

January 18th, 1883, I received a letter from Mr. P. H. Baskervill, resigning the office of Treasurer of the Diocese, after several years of most faithful and acceptable service. By authority of Article IX of the Constitution, I appointed Mr. James T. Gray, of Richmond, to supply his place until this meeting of the Council. I have also to report the resignations of Messrs. George Newton and Walter H. Taylor, both of Norfolk, as Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute.

MISSION CHURCHES.

I have approved the applications of St. Luke's, South Farnham Parish, Essex, and St. Stephen's (colored), Bristol Parish, Petersburg, to be allowed to organize as "Mission Churches," under Canon XII of the Diocese. October 24-27 I had the pleasure of presiding over the sessions of the Eighth American Church Congress, which were held in Mozart Hall, Richmond. The able papers and speeches which were read and delivered, were a source of great pleasure and profit to the many persons who heard them. March 9 and 10 I attended meetings of the Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute in Staunton. Though the patronage of this Diocesan school for girls is considerably larger than it was last year, it is deeply to be regretted that it is not much larger than it is. I can do no more than repeat my unqualified commendation of the arrangements and management of the school in every particular. I am satisfied that its principal, Mrs. Stuart, and her accomplished and faithful associates are thoroughly worthy to be entrusted with the instruction and the mental, moral, and religious training of as many of our daughters as may be committed to their care.

The other institutions of the Diocese—as will be seen by the reports of their respective officers—continue, by the blessing of God, to enjoy a good degree of prosperity. The reports of our Evangelists will show that they have been abundant and faithful in labors during the past year. The good work they are doing cannot be exhibited by statistics, but it is none the less real and important. What we have to lament as the chief obstacle in the way of the greater growth and prosperity of our Church in this Diocese, is the continued weakening of our country parishes by deaths and removals, leaving many of them for a longer or shorter time without the care of a pastor. And those who enjoy the regular ministrations of religion cannot understand how much our brethren in these vacant parishes are cheered and strengthened and blessed by one of the Evangelists paying them an occasional visit to preach the gospel, administer the sacraments, comfort the sick, and often to bury the dead. Indeed, until the population becomes larger and more settled, I see no way of keeping alive some of our rural churches, except by more liberal contributions to our missionary society, and by continuing the work of our Evangelists.

New fields for labor amongst the colored people are constantly opening before us, and already the harvest which might be gathered by our Church is great, but the laborers are few. Their sad need of proper religious instruction and their readiness in very many cases to receive it, make a strong appeal to the sympathy and assistance of their more highly favored brethren. More of them are not reported as having been confirmed the past year because I have not visited those parishes which are expected to furnish the largest number of candidates. In the theological school in Petersburg, under Rev. Thomas Spencer, there have been during the year, sixteen, and are now, I think, fourteen men preparing for the sacred ministry. They are from different parts of the Diocese, though the majority were preachers of the Zion Union organization in Mecklenburg and Brunswick counties. One of the most important, difficult, and pressing questions we have to determine is, how can our Church best do the work amongst this people which God has given it to do? And as, in my judgment, proposing the first and wisest step towards the solution of this question, I was rejoiced to receive from the venerable Bishop Green, of Mississippi, the following circular letter :

“MY DEAR BROTHER :

“Among the many subjects that may justly claim the consideration of our approaching General Convention will, doubtless, be that of the relations of our Church to the late slave population of our States, and the best means that can be adopted for their religious benefit.

“As this subject seems to be awakening the serious attention of both the Patriot and the Christian, North as well as South, it has been suggested to me by several of our Bishops, that it would be well if all the Bishops of the late slave States would meet in Council; and after due consultation, agree upon some plan to be laid before our General Convention for the accomplishment of that purpose.

Bishop's Report.

“In accordance, therefore, with that wise and timely suggestion, I hereby invite and urge your attendance at the ‘University of the South,’ on the last Thursday in July, (being the week preceding the ‘Commencement,’) for the purpose of conferring with your Brother Bishops on a matter of such vital importance to the welfare of our country, and the salvation of a race perishing in the midst of us for the want of right instruction.

“Let me hope that nothing may prevent you from being present; and that you will bring with you some one of your Clergy who, either from much experience in instructing the Negro, or from a becoming interest in his behalf, may be qualified to aid us by his counsel.

“Affectionately, your Brother in Christ,

“W. M. GREEN,

“Bishop of Mississippi.

“Vicksburg, April 2, 1883.”

As I foresaw that it would not be in my power to be present at this meeting, and it seemed a matter of so much importance, I laid it before the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society, to which you have entrusted the work amongst the colored people. They passed a resolution requesting me to select two Presbyters and two alternates to attend the conference, and to ask you to provide the means to defray their expenses. I report the action of the Committee for the approval or disapproval of the Council.

I called a meeting of the Committee appointed by the last Council (Journal, page 71) on the subject of a division of the Diocese, in Charlottesville, November 27th, and notified them that I had concluded, on further reflection, that it would not be proper for me to take any part in their proceedings.

The Committee, (Journal, page 42), to whom was referred the question of publishing the MS. presented to the Council by Rev. Dr. Dashiell, have performed the duty assigned them, and will report the result of their labors.

In view of the number of persons confirmed, of candidates for the ministry received, of Deacons and Presbyters ordained, of churches consecrated, and of other outward and visible indications of the general condition of the Diocese, I think you will agree with me that we have abundant cause to let our hearts be filled with gratitude for God's goodness to us during another year, and to feel inspired with new hope and zeal and devotion in the blessed work of advancing his kingdom for the time to come.

Bishop's Report.

No one who is tolerably familiar with what is going on in our Church at large can wonder that I feel it my duty affectionately to caution you, dear brethren, from time to time in regard to changes and innovations in our worship, against which, I am thankful to say, our own Diocese has been hitherto so well guarded by your loyalty to written law and established custom. "It is a most invaluable part of that liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, that in his worship different forms and usages may, without offence, be allowed, provided the substance of the faith be kept entire." But it is, at the same time, a precious principle of the Protestant Episcopal Church, that ceremonies ordained by "common consent and authority" may not be altered or set aside by the private judgment of either ministers or people, and a "common order" is recognized which is not to be departed from at the mere will of individuals.

From the period of our Church's organization in this country, this "common order" has been generally understood. Throughout the long episcopate of Bishop White, (say from 1787 to 1836,) and even for ten or fifteen years beyond, although there were different parties or schools of thought in the Church then as there are now; the public services were everywhere conducted substantially in the same manner. We regarded it as one of the chief and a distinguishing advantage of our liturgy, that our clergy could pass from Maine to Louisiana, and be at home wherever they might enter the house of God—an advantage which we no longer enjoy. The service was read and the responses were made with decorum and as directed by the rubrics. Music was used as an accompaniment and a help to devotion, but nothing was devolved on the choir that would deprive the congregation of their share in the worship of the Almighty. The Psalmist's exhortation was kept in mind, "Let the people praise thee, O God, yea, let all the people praise thee." For some years past a change has been going on in this particular. In many places the organ loft commands the pulpit and silences the pews, and the people are tempted to become mere auditors and spectators of a performance which may please the taste, but can neither improve the judgment nor soften the heart. The mind is also bewildered, amid the profuse decorations and fanciful arrangements, which make the sanctuary appear to be a mere hall for spectacular display, rather than a building consecrated and set apart for the solemn worship of Him, who is a spirit and must be worshipped in spirit and truth.

These various changes from the "common order" of the Church (and others which might be mentioned) are not, in my judgment, for the edification of the people. And if they were, they have never been "ordained and approved by common authority," they are, therefore, unlawful, and their introduction tends to draw our people away from the "old paths" in which the Church walked safely and prosperously for so many years. Whatever may be done elsewhere, let us in this Diocese steadfastly adhere to the "common order," concerning which there can be no mistake. The revival of the Church in Virginia began under the episcopate of Bishop Moore, whose churchmanship no one ever ventured to impugn, and who was certainly as competent as any of the clergy of the present day to conduct the services of the Church, and we may be satisfied to follow in his steps. I would exhort my younger brethren of the clergy, in particular, to conscientiously avoid the introduction of all novelties, and you, my brethren of the laity (who, according to St. Paul, are the Church, we clergymen being your ministers or servants for Jesus' sake) to guard with untiring vigilance and fidelity the doctrine, worship, and discipline of our beloved Zion, that as you received them from your fathers, so you may hand them down to your children.

Kind friends having offered me the opportunity of relief for a season from the burden of official care and labor which I have borne for fifteen years, I purpose, (God willing and with your approval), soon after our adjournment, to seek rest and recreation beyond the bounds of our own country. I therefore respectfully ask of the Council a leave of absence from the Diocese for about four months.

In the Council of 1876 resolutions were offered to proceed to the election of an Assistant Bishop. These resolutions were referred to a committee of three clergymen and two laymen, to report the next day, after consultation with the Bishop. The committee advised to postpone the election, in accordance with the suggestions of the Bishop and because he “assured the committee that if, after a fair and prudent trial, it should be found, in the opinion of the Standing Committee and other judicious advisers whom he would consult and to whose judgment he would defer, that the interests of the Church in this Diocese required that he should be aided in the discharge of his Episcopal duties, he would take such action as would bring the subject before a special session of the Council for its consideration and wise determination.”

Bishop's Report.

It was then resolved that “this Council doth declare, that it stands ready, whenever the necessity may arise, to elect an assistant to share with him (the Bishop) the burdens and responsibilities of the Episcopal office in this Diocese.”

When I finished my visitations early in last December, I was suffering great nervous prostration, producing sleeplessness and other distressing troubles. I hoped that the quiet of home during the winter, with medical treatment, would restore me, but having improved very little, if at all, up to the first of March, I felt myself pledged to the Council, in view of the proceedings which I have recited, to consult the “Standing Committee and other judicious advisers.” After such consultation with the Committee, they passed, March 3d, this resolution: “That if, when the next annual Council meets, the Bishop is of opinion that from permanent cause of infirmity, he is unable to discharge his Episcopal duties without serious risk of the entire prostration of his health, the Standing Committee would advise him to ask from the Council the fulfilment of the pledge of the Council of 1876 (Journal, pages 78–79) to elect an Assistant Bishop.”

Since that time I have done but little work and my health has improved. But it is still such that I am obliged to confess, that in the opinion of my physician, of judicious friends, and of myself, the case is as supposed by the Standing Committee. In other words, according to my best judgment, I “am unable, by reason of permanent cause of infirmity, to discharge my episcopal duties,” and therefore respectfully ask, with a view to the best interests of the Diocese, that you elect an assistant to share with me the burdens and responsibilities of my office.

Having performed a very painful duty, by declaring all my mind on this subject, and without wishing to influence unduly the action of the Council or of any member of it in the present case, I hope I may be pardoned for adding certain statements and recalling certain facts in regard to assistant bishops, which may correct the misapprehensions of some, and furnish helpful information to others.

Bishop's Report.

If it is true, as asserted in the preface to the ordinal, that "it is evident unto all men, diligently reading Holy Scripture and ancient authors, that from the Apostles' time there have been these orders of ministers in Christ's Church, bishops, priests and deacons"—then it is also true, upon the same evidence, that since the Apostles' time there have been, under some name or other, assistant bishops.

In the Church of England, "to which the Protestant Episcopal Church in these States is indebted, under God, for her first foundation," there have ever been, and are now, suffragan, which is but another name for assistant bishops.

Our own Church having provided by law from the beginning for their election, of course contemplates and declares it to be in accordance with her spirit and polity, that we shall have assistant bishops.

Until the year 1829, or for about one half of the whole period of this Church's independent existence, each Diocese exercised its inherent, and in my judgment, its inalienable right to have as many bishops as it pleased, without asking the consent or brooking the interference of any outside authority whatever—as is seen in the case of New York, which had three bishops at one and the same time.

It is a question whether Section V, of Canon 15, of Title I of the Digest, which restricts each Diocese to one Assistant Bishop at a time, and prescribes conditions upon which alone it shall be permitted to elect one is not null and void, because in conflict with Article 4 of the Constitution, which provides that "the Bishop or Bishops in every Diocese shall be chosen agreeably to such rules as shall be fixed by the Convention of that Diocese."

Of the hundred and twenty-nine Bishops which this Church has had from the beginning, twenty-one, or about one-sixth of the whole number, were elected as assistants.

It is now just seventy years since the consecration of Bishop Moore, with whose administration the revival of the Church in this Diocese began. During forty of those seventy years Virginia was served by a Bishop and an assistant. And when we consider the peace, and prosperity, and progress which have distinguished our beloved Church during those years, we surely have no reason to lament our past policy as a mistake, but rather with adoring wonder and gratitude must we say, "Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name be the glory."

Treasurer Elected—Assistant Bishop.

I commend you, dear brethren, to the guidance and direction of the same God and Father. May He save us from all ignorance, passion, pride and prejudice, and make us to be of one mind and one heart to devise and execute such measures as shall be most for His glory and the futherance of His Kingdom in the world.

The Bishop then retired from the Council, after having called the Rev. Dr. Walker to the chair.

Rev. Dr. Dashiell offered the following :

Resolved, That Mr. James T. Gray be, and he is hereby, elected Treasurer of this Council in place of Mr. P. H. Baskervill, resigned.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Council are due, and are hereby tendered to Mr. P. H. Baskervill, for the faithful and courteous discharge of the duties of his office during his incumbency.

The resolutions were carried.

Rev. Dr. Dashiell offered the following :

Resolved, That so much of the Bishop's Address as relates to the subject of the work among the colored people, be referred to a committee of five clergymen and four laymen.

The motion was carried and the following committee appointed:

Rev. T. G. Dashiell, D. D.,	Mr. J. R. Jones,
“ W. Q. Hullihen,	“ W. D. Gibson,
“ Thomas W. Cain,	“ Mann Page,
“ J. H. M. Pollard,	“ W. H. Taylor,
Rev. James S. Russell.

Rev. James Grammer offered the following :

Whereas, the Bishop has asked for an Assistant Bishop—

Resolved, That this Council proceed at 5 o'clock this evening to elect an Assistant Bishop.

Historiographer's Report.

Mr. R. E. Withers moved in amendment that the resolution of Rev. Mr. Grammer, with the whole matter relating to the election of an Assistant Bishop, be referred to a committee of five clergymen and four laymen.

The motion was carried, and the following committee appointed :

Rev. James Grammer,	Mr. R. E. Withers,
“ O. A. Kinsolving,	“ A. Y. Stokes,
“ K Nelson, D. D.,	“ Taylor Berry,
“ J. Peterkin, D. D.,	Dr. J. W. Claiborne,
Rev. R. J. McBryde.

Rev. James Grammer moved to instruct the committee to report this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mr. R. E. Withers moved to lay the resolution to instruct on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was lost.

Rev. James Grammer then modified his motion so as to instruct the committee to report at as early an hour as practicable on Friday morning.

The motion was unanimously carried.

The Bishop then resumed the chair.

Pursuant to the order of the day, Mr. B. J. Barbour then read the Historiographer's report:

HISTORIOGRAPHER'S REPORT.

As minister, and as Historiographer, I respectfully make my annual report. It grieves me to say that, as minister, the year has been a blank, as to any official acts outside of my own home, I having been unable from physical infirmity to preach a single sermon; for which there is no solace but from the reflection that "they also serve, who only stand and wait."

As Historiographer, I have re-written and committed to the press the Life of the Honorable William Green, LL.D. This memoir was prepared at the instance of leading members of the Bar, and of the Historical Society of Virginia, of which he was an officer and an ornament. And lest it might be thought by some that such work was not within the line of my duty, I will say that I strive to treat everything I write from a strictly Christian standpoint, so as to be tributary to the end of my ministry. The memoir chiefly addresses itself to lawyers, a class which, while it has given to the Church many shining lights, has also some representatives who do not (to borrow one of their own phrases) often avail themselves of "the benefit of clergy," to some of whom, by God's grace, the law in this case may be, I trust, as "a schoolmaster, to bring them to Christ."

It may be remembered by some, that I exhibited at the last Council a map designed to display to the eye the prominent features of the physiognomy of the Diocese, such as the lines of Parishes and the sites of churches, with many historical statistics, among which was a clergy list of more than four hundred names, running through the centuries from the first plantation of the Colony. The map was in the nature of a proof-sheet, to be revised and corrected before it was exposed to the public eye—a task which, from my ill-health, has not yet been done.

It was my wish to accompany this map with a complete list of the Parishes and separate congregations, with the name of every incumbent of each Parish, and the duration of the term of each minister in every parish of which he had been the incumbent, so that one might see what Parishes each minister had in succession, and how long his charge lasted, according to a plan initiated by the late learned Historiographer of Maryland, for which I am indebted to Professor Walker, of our Seminary, to whom Rev. E. Allen presented it. As divers persons have expressed a desire to have a copy of this map (one eminent President of a College wanting six copies) it was my purpose to have it electrotyped, without expense to the Council, and if there should be any surplus, over the cost, from sales, to give it to a charitable object, and present the original, which is thought by judges to be an exquisite specimen of General Williamson's art, to the Seminary, the Professor of Church History having expressed a wish to have it there.

And now, having disposed of these personal matters, the recital of which is as distasteful to the writer as it can be to the reader, I beg your indulgence while I briefly touch some matters of more general interest.

And first, of Parish Registers. The first mention of these was in the time of Henry VIII, when Vicar-General (Lord Cromwell) issued (1538) injunctions as to the method of keeping church books. These were continued during the reigns of Edward VI and Queen Elizabeth. These injunctions were embodied in the Canons enacted in the Synod of London (1603), and promulgated by James I. The Seventieth Canon directed, that a parchment book should be provided in each Parish, in which should be recorded all the baptisms, marriages and burials, that had occurred in each Parish from the time of Henry VIII, so far as the ancient books could be found; that for the safe keeping of this book a sure coffer, with three locks and three keys,—a key for the minister and one for each warden; upon every Sunday after service, the minister, in the presence of the wardens, should take the book out of the coffer, and record every marriage, baptism and burial of the previous week, and sign their names on every page of it; the wardens should make a transcript of these entries, and transmit them once a year to the Bishop to be safely kept.

The Registrar and the Keeper of the County Rolls, were ordered by him to make "a survey" of the places of deposit, to see if they were safe. In the Twenty-sixth of George II, these provisions were ratified by act of parliament, and the forging and falsifying in any way these entries, was made a felony, "without benefit of clergy."

How all this recalls Bishop Meade's great desire and extraordinary efforts to collect the Church records, and deposit them in the fire-proof library of the Seminary. Some people who can see no good in anything that "does not pay," as they call it, in money or some like valuable consideration, could not comprehend Bishop Meade's zeal in this regard. Allow me, therefore, to cite a few cases from our Mother Church, which illustrate the far seeing sagacity of that great man.

In a case reported in Vesey's Reports, Lord Eldon said it had been found that a man named Kendry had erased with pumice stone and India rubber, three pages of a church register, and inserted the burial of Elizabeth Lloyd and the birth of her daughter, which led to a succession of vexations, which would have been averted if the proper officer had returned the transcript to the Bishop.

In 1814, a claim to the Barony of Mordaunt was set up by a man, who based his claim upon two entries in the Register of Stoke Parish—first, the marriage of Osmund Mordaunt and Mary Hyne (4th December, 1689), and one year from the marriage, the baptism of Thomas, son of these parties. It was found that a leaf had been cut out of the Register and replaced by another, on which the entry of this marriage and the birth of this child were inserted.

In 1829 there was a case in chancery at Birmingham, involving the legitimacy of a child. A certain marriage could not be found in the Register, but was found in the Bishop's transcript. On comparing the two, it was discovered that the marriage had been obliterated by a liquid from the Register, and it was established on this testimony by the verdict of the jury.

In a case at Exeter, in 1839, the Chancellor said that, for want of the transcript, the court had been imposed upon by a forged entry in the Register, and an order gotten transferring £60,000 to a party having no title to it whatever.

In 1839, in comparing the Bishop's transcript with the Parish Register, it was found that in the entry the register of the marriage of William Battersby and Jane Fletcher, the name of Battersby had been changed into Battersley, and the baptism of two of their children had been so altered as to make them appear to have been the children of William Battersley and Frances, his wife, the name Jane, in both cases, having been neatly turned into Frances by altering the J into F, and adding three letters.

Historiographer's Report.

Other cases might be cited, but these will suffice to show the serious consequences which follow from the indifference and carelessness of parties entrusted with Church records, it being a settled principle of law that Registers are legal evidence. People who treat lightly such subjects know not what they do.

When the Mother Church of England sent her daughter to Virginia, she gave her for dowry her Constitution and Canons. But the daughter left her head behind her, her task-master (the British Government) not allowing her to have a Bishop. She lived for near two centuries a widow in the wilderness, her head beyond the seas, having good ground for a divorce: an Episcopal Church without a Bishop—a contradiction in terms. During the Colonial Era, Conventions were mere conferences for consultation, and for making complaints to the Governor, and to the Bishop of London, who was represented here by a commissary, who having no power of confirmation or ordination, no one was confirmed, and no one ordained, except the few who could incur the expense and peril of a tedious journey to England in a frail bark—some candidates for orders, having been lost at sea, and some dying of small-pox in London.

The first mention of Registers in Virginia was in 1631, when they were ordered to be kept, and that transcripts be made and returned (there being no bishop) to the commanders of the county, afterwards to the clerk of the county, and finally to the office of the secretary of the Colony. When the proper officers became remiss in doing their duty, the Burgesses applied penal stimulants, in the form of heavier fines in tobacco, adding so many more pounds from year to year.

These statutes were re-enacted in 1659-60, in 1690 and 1713.

The effects of these stimulating penalties were shown by being often followed by new registers. Some of these old transcripts were burned in the old State court-house, others may be in county court offices, unless they have been abstracted—to use a modern phrase for what the Catechism calls in good old English, “picking and stealing.”

VESTRIES.

In my last report I traced the history of Parishes from their origin, as one of the civil divisions of the Roman Empire, through their appropriation by the Latin Church, the adoption and various modifications in England, and their history in Virginia. It seems to me that a like treatment of vestries, would be an appropriate pendant to the picture of the parishes.

It does not seem to be generally known, that vestries in England were originally very different from vestries in Virginia. They were not, as with us, a few men annually elected to represent the parishes, but they were the whole body of parishioners themselves, assembled in what we would call a mass-meeting—every parishioner who paid “scot and lot” having a right to vote. The literature of the subject is curious. Notice was given of the meeting in church, or at the door of the church, as the congregation was dispersing, with an announcement of the object of the meeting, that no one should be surprised, and all might have a chance of voting intelligently.

The courts have solemnly adjudged that the right of adjourning such vestry meetings was not in the minister, nor in the wardens, but in the majority of the meeting. In process of time a custom arose in a few Parishes of choosing representatives, as we do by the parishioners, to manage the business of the Parish. These were known as "Select Vestries." And when questions arose in the courts whether the acts of such Select Vestries were valid in law, it was decided they were not legal, unless they could plead "immemorial custom," which was their only foundation. In the reign of Queen Anne, when fifty new churches were built in London and Westminster by her bounty, provision was made for "Select Vestries," and they became the general rule. Church Wardens are the efficient functionaries in English Parishes; Vestries are not prominent. No mention is made of the introduction of Church Wardens into the Colony, but being common law officers, they seem to have been resorted to spontaneously, and were spoken of at every session of the Assembly as existing officers, with civil and Church functions.

Vestries are first named in 1642, when pains were taken to provide for the ecclesiastical organization of the Colony. In 1644, more specific provision was made for the election of a Vestry in each Parish.

In 1661-2 the specification is still more minute, "for making laws—for building and repairing churches, providing for the poor, and maintenance of the ministers." They had previously, in 1641, been authorized to appoint ministers, i. e., to present them to the Governor for induction, &c. In 1676, provision is made for the freeholders in every Parish to choose twelve of the best men to be Vestry in each Parish. The germ and key-note of the whole will be found in 1st and 2d Hening, faintly developed at first, but becoming more pronounced till the dissolution of Church and State, when, by the act of incorporation they were made Trustees of Church property, and some of their former duties assigned to the overseers of the poor. The Vestries play a very important part in the colonial history. Their frequent conflicts with the Royal Governors and other authorities, in defence of the rights and liberties of the people, made them what Bishop Meade felicitously calls miniature Parliaments, in which the statesmen of the Revolution were trained to fight our battles in Council. In view of the odium which has been heaped upon the Episcopal Church in this connection, it should not be forgotten that nearly all the members of the Committees of Safety, of the General Assembly, and specially of the famous Legislature of 1776, and of the revolutionary Conventions, were vestrymen, as were also the author of the Declaration of Independence (Jefferson), and its mover and most brilliant advocate (R. H. Lee); the author of the Bill of Rights, which announced the principle of religious liberty (George Mason); a Patrick Henry, the—“Forest-born Demosthenes, Whose thunder shook the Philip of the Seas;”

the commander in chief of the army, and first President of the United States (Washington), the president of the first Congress, (Peyton Randolph), Chief Justice Marshall, and the Nicholases, Blands, Graysons, Carys, and other builders of the Constitution, which had no model on earth.

I would not pluck one leaf from the laurels which deck the patriots other Christian names, but to deny to Episcopalians their share in achieving American Independence, and the doctrine of religious freedom would be fly in the face of the facts of history. All we ask is, that the honours fairly divided. When the established Church has been so long dead and buried, and its effects distributed, it is time to stop rattling its bones and raising its ghost to fire the popular heart; the popular heart is tired of being fired. And above all, when infidelity is coming “like a flood and threatening to erase the words of God from the Bible, and to blot out every footprint of the Creator from the face of the earth beneath, and from the blue pages of the heavens above, it is time for all who call themselves Christians to cease their wretched wrangling and rallying round the Standard of the Cross, join in the sublime prayer of Milton, “Come, Thou who hast the seven stars in Thy right hand, appoint Thy chosen Priests to minister before Thee. Thou hast sent out the Spirit of Prayer as the sound of many waters about Thy Throne. Surely every one can say that Thou hast visited this land. Oh, perfect Thy glorious work; the times and the seasons come as they go at Thy bidding. And since Thou didst dignify our father's days above the preceding ages, so Thou canst vouchsafe to us a larger portion of Thy spirit. And since the power of Thy grace is not passed away, as fond and faithless men imagine, come forth out of Thy royal chambers, Thou Prince of all the Kings of the earth. Put on the visible robes of Thy imperial majesty; take up that unlimited sceptre which Thy Almighty Father has bequeathed Thee, for the voice of Thy Bride calls Thee, and all nature sig to be renewed.”

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF BIBLICAL LEARNING.

The Professor of Biblical Learning reports that the classes under his charge have pursued the prescribed course of study with the usual industry and success.

The Senior Class has read, critically, in Greek, the two Epistles to the Corinthians, and will finish the Epistle to the Galatians by the close of the session. They have read, in Hebrew, the Book of Jonah, and select extracts from several other books of the Old Testament.

The Junior Class has studied, in Hebrew, the Grammar, with written exercises, and read sixteen chapters in Genesis, besides extracts from other books. They have also read Exegetical Essays on the most difficult and important subjects in the Gospels.

REPORT OF INSTRUCTOR OF THEOLOGY IN BRANCH SCHOOL, PETERSBURG.

To the Board of Trustees:

I beg leave to present the following report of my work as instructor of the colored theological students in Petersburg.

There have been under instruction during the session, beginning October 2d, seventeen different students. Three of these entered at Christmas, the rest at the beginning of the session. There are at present, in attendance, fifteen students, one having left of his own volition last January, and another having been advised to withdraw on the 1st instant, on account of his incapacity for study.

Most of the students are from the Zion Union field, recommended to this school by those in charge of that work, and while here are under the pastoral care of the Rev. Giles B. Cooke. So far as I have heard from their pastor, or observed for myself, their deportment has been excellent.

Only the five Zion Union students mentioned in my last report had been previously under my instruction; and they, with all but two of the remainder, were in need of most elementary instruction. Therefore, the greater part of the studies of this session, particularly in the first part of it, has been in subjects not theological. As the course progresses the instruction will become more entirely theological.

In the academic department, aided by Messrs. Burke and Adams, the two most advanced students, and by the Rev. Mr. Pollard, of St. Stephen's School, I have given instruction in the following subjects: Algebra, Arithmetic, Latin, Natural Philosophy, Barnes' United States History, Swinton's World's History, English Grammar, Spelling, Word Analysis, Reading, and Geography. Latin is taught to only one student, Mr. Wm. P. Burke, who shows quite an aptitude for study, and has rendered efficient services in my assistance in teaching one or two of the other branches.

In the department of theological study I have given instruction in the following topics: Bible History, with first and second classes; Maclear's Old and New Testament Histories, being used as text-books; Prayer Book, with all in unison; Daniel's "How to Teach the Prayer Book," being used as a text-book; Church Catechism, used as a manuel of elementary theology, with Sinclair's Questions; Daniel's "How to Teach the Church Catechism and Lectures"; Christian Evidences (second and third classes), with Archbishop Whately's little book of that title as a text-book; Biblical Introduction, with first class, Nicholl's Help to Reading the Bible being the text-book; a simple course of Scripture History by reading lessons and lectures, with the third class.

High School.

The school is divided into three classes, two students being in the first class, eleven in the second, and two in the third.

The progress made is slow and rather discouraging in most cases, still much cannot fairly be expected, and by God's blessing I trust that the future will be fruitful in good results.

Respectfully submitted,

Petersburg, May 14th, 1883.

ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT TO TRUSTEES (1883) FOR COUNCIL JOURNAL.

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D. LL.D.,

President of the Board of Trustees :

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR :—As Principal of the Episcopal High School, I have the honor to submit the following report :

The aggregate number of pupils entered during the present session is one hundred and four. It has not been so large for forty years, and many applications have been necessarily refused. * * * The blessing of health has again been ours in a remarkable degree. There has not been a case of serious sickness. * * * * *

The religious exercises and privileges of the school, including a strict observance of the ecclesiastical year, has been as before, except that the number of services by clergymen in the School Chapel have been greater than usual. Having been fortunate enough to secure one of the best vocalists in the Seminary to re-inforce the School Choir, and the same excellent organist and director thence that we had last year, our music has continued particularly good. The Friday night devotional meeting in the School Chapel has this session been conducted with unusual efficiency and acceptability by Mr. William L. Gravatt, of the Seminary Middle Class, to whom I am indebted for other invaluable assistance in the religious care of those under my charge. The Rev. Dr. Nelson, besides occasional other ministrations, gave us his usual weekly service in Lent, and has had monthly meetings, as before, with the boy-communicants, of whom he is the faithful pastor. By him, on the occasion of the Bishop's visitation at the Seminary Chapel, March 4th, fifteen boys were presented for confirmation. The whole number of communicants now is forty.

Reports of Committees on Digest of the Journals—Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

The Missionary Society of the School, founded in 1878, has this session been more prosperous than ever. Interest in missionary work has been stimulated, information concerning it diffused, and nearly $300 raised for its furtherance in our own and other lands.

I have the honor to be, sir,

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

(Signed,)

L. M. BLACKFORD.

Rev. H. M. Jackson presented the following :

The Committee to which was referred the manuscript of the Digest of the Journals presented to the Diocese by the author, the Rev. T. G. Dashiell, D. D., respectfully report that they have examined the said manuscript, and in accordance with the instructions of the Council have caused an edition of 1,000 copies to be printed.

In their judgment this Digest is a valuable contribution to the History of the Diocese. It contains information which can be nowhere else obtained. The compilation has been made with discrimination and accuracy, and your Committee feel assured its merits will commend it to those interested in the early history of the Church in Virginia.

The following resolutions are submitted :

1. That this Council highly appreciates the literary value of the Digest of the Journals, prepared by the Rev. T. G. Dashiell, D. D., and hereby expresses its indebtedness for the disinterested gift of the same to the Diocese.

2. That the published edition be sold at the price of $1.50 per volume to the clergy, and $2 to the laity; the proceeds to be applied to the cost of publication, and whatever surplus may remain after defraying such cost, to be paid to the author.

The report was received, and its resolutions adopted.

Rev. Dr. Gibson presented the report of the Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund :

The Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund are glad to report to the Council a slightly improved condition of the fund as shown by the report of our Treasurer, herewith submitted to be entered on the Journal. Our assets for 1882 were $23,653.71; for 1883, the amount is $23,879.29; a gain of $225.58.

Our income the last year was $2,099.29, of which the Board distributed $1,725 to the families of twelve beneficiaries, leaving $374.29 to be added to the Invested Fund.

It is a source of regret, that, as yet, our income from the parishes is a very partial one. Only sixty parishes have contributed anything, and the amount given is less than last year, and much less than the year before. It is only $627.81. The year before last it was $777. Let us do better next year.

Respectfully submitted,

C. J. GIBSON, Secretary.

Rev. Dr. Dashiell offered the following :

Whereas, the attention of this Council has been called to the efforts of the International Sabbath Association to secure a better observance of the Lord's day by all classes of our citizens, and especially by securing, "by concert of action among owners, managers, employes and patrons, the reduction of Sunday running and work by all lines of travel and transportation, within the limits of necessity and mercy," and by securing "the observance of the Sabbath" by the general and local governments :

And whereas, we regard the open and habitual desecration of the Lord's day, by individuals, corporations and civil authorities as one of the worst and most dangerous evils of the present times, and one that seems to be increasing in extent and boldness,

And whereas, there are phases of this evil so wide-spread, deep-rooted and powerful, that they can only be met and overcome by some system of earnest, practical coöperation upon the part of those who value God's holy day,

Therefore, we earnestly commend this movement to the attention of our own people and all good citizens, and urge them to do all in their power to further its progress. And we recommend the establishment of town, county and State organizations, which shall coöperate with the International Sabbath Association, so far as its plans may commend themselves as wise and expedient.

The resolutions were approved and referred to the following committee :

Rev. R. T. Davis, D. D., -	Mr. R. T. Craighill,
" John McGill,	" W. D. Gibson,
Mr. B. L. Winston.

On motion, it was resolved that when the Council adjourns, it adjourn to meet at 5 P. M.

Mr. T. R. B. Wright, from the Committee on Elections, presented the following :

Trustees of Virginia Female Institute—Bishop's Leave of Absence.

We respectfully report that the credentials of Dr. O. W. Kean, the delegate from St. James' Northam Parish, Goochland county, are accepted, and he is entitled to a seat on this floor.

We respectfully report that the credentials of the delegate from St. Luke's church, Victoria Parish, Rockbridge county, are rejected, upon the ground that there is no such parish canonically established.

O. A. KINSOLVING,

The report was, on motion, received and approved.

The Bishop retired from the Council after having called the Rev. O. A. Kinsolving to the chair.

On motion of Rev. James Grammer, the Council resolved, after engaging for a space in silent prayer, to proceed to the election of an Assistant Bishop.

Mr. Mann Page moved that a box, or other receptacle, be placed upon the Secretary's table, in which each clergyman and lay delegate should deposit his ballot, when his name is called.

Carried.

The question was raised whether laymen could take part in the nomination of candidates. The Chair decided in the negative, and after an appeal, by the Rev. Dr. Barten, the decision of the Chair was sustained.

On motion, speeches in nomination of candidates were limited to five minutes.

After the Council had engaged in silent prayer, the Rev. J. D. Powell nominated the Rev. R. H. McKim, D. D., of New York.

The Rev. Dr. Norton nominated the Rev. A. M. Randolph, D. D., of Baltimore.

The Rev. A. Y. Hundley nominated the Rev. George H. Norton, D. D., of Alexandria.

Mr. Thomas Potts presented the report of the Committee on Clerical Support :

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CLERICAL SUPPORT.

Your Committee herewith submit a statement of the reports handed us, which, we regret to say, are far from being as full as we desired, or as the rule of the Council demanded.

We have examined 128 reports, and find ninety-eight churches that have fully complied with their contracts, and paid their clergymen in full.

We regret to report that sixteen churches are delinquent—having failed to pay their ministers the amount agree upon The list is as follows :

The following named churches (fifteen in number) we have placed on the "Roll of Honor," because they have paid their clergymen more than the contract called for, and we deem it a great pleasure to report the fact, so that other congregations, seeing their good work, may, in the future, follow the example, and be entitled to a place on the Roll of Honor:

Church, Matthews county, have on hand $1,371.36, and that Abingdon Church has also on hand $300 to build a rectory. We also find, that the reports contain the information that we have 930 acres of land attached to the rectories. If all our church treasurers would comply with the plain and simple regulations of the Council, a correct report of the true condition of the Parishes could be learned. Let us beg the laity to give this important matter due consideration and attention, and send up to the next Council a correct report of the rectories and land held by the Church. The amount promised to the 129 churches was $75,505, or an average of, say, $585.31. One treasurer promises to pay the balance due on the rector's salary, on the 31st of April!

Your committee would call special attention to the resolutions passed by the last Council, page 56 of the Journal, and most respectfully call the attention of the Treasurers to the importance of a strict compliance with the printed forms furnished.

Leaving out a few city churches, the salary promised, and only in part paid to our clergymen, is far too small, and we most affectionately urge on the several churches a more liberal support for the men who preach to us the Word of Life.

The laity demand the time and service of the clergy, and it is our Christian duty to provide them with ample means for the support of themselves and their families, and thus allow them to give all their time and talents to the work of the Master.

Resolved, That the Treasurers of our churches be requested to bring to the attention of the congregations the condition of the treasury at least once every quarter, and that the Rectors be requested to read the same.

Resolved, That the Treasurers be exhorted to attend to the matter of securing small contributions, and thus allowing every communicant and attendant the privilege of supporting their respective ministers.

Mr. R. T. Craighill, from the Committee on Sustentation Fund, presented the following :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUSTENTATION FUND.

To the Council of the Diocese of Virginia :

The undersigned, who were, by resolution of the Council of 1882, directed to report a plan for the establishment and disbursement of a fund to be known as the "Sustentation Fund," beg leave to report that they deem it inexpedient to attempt, at this time, to create such a fund, for the reason

Committee.

Mr. M. L. Blackford presented the report of the Committee on the Brotherhood :

The Committee on the Brotherhood beg leave to report that they find the affairs of that organization in a more prosperous condition than for some years past. The following report in behalf of the Trustees, presented and signed by the President, Major David N. Walker, presents a succinct and satisfactory account of its condition :

The report of the Treasurer, filed with that of the Trustees, is certified by a committee consisting of Messrs. G. A. Barksdale and Thomas Potts, to be correct, and supported by proper vouchers. The balance in his hands of $1,829.10, to the credit of the general fund, is less than last year, owing to the extraordinary expenses incident to the temporary employment as authorized a year ago of a general agent.

The Committee cordially unites in the opinion of the Trustees, that until the working of the present system of reduced mortuary fees be thoroughly tested, it should remain unchanged. We cannot, in conclusion, too earnestly press upon the attention of both clergy and laity the possibilities and claims of this beneficent organization. We urge the Clergy to discard the false delicacy which has too long made them its lukewarm friends, and we exhort our lay brethren to a fuller appreciation of the privilege of doing so much good at so insignificant a cost.

Respectfully submitted,

L. M. BLACKFORD,
R. T. CRAIGHILL,
W. D. GIBSON.

RICHMOND, May 16th, 1883.

The Trustees of the Brotherhood beg leave to submit their Thirteenth Annual Report:

We have recorded the death of only one member during the year, that of Rev. W. N. Pendleton, D. D., of Lexington.

The collection on this account, now being made, is the first under the reduction of the mortuary fees, from two dollars to one, and it shows a very large increase of membership, which is now certainly not less than one thousand, and perhaps reaching twelve to fifteen hundred. A little interest and activity on the part of its friends will enable us to reach, if not exceed, that number.

There have been twenty-five deaths since our organization in 1870, and we have distributed during that time about $30,000.

The report of our Treasurer, herewith submitted, shows a balance in his hands of $1,829.10.

The services of Mr. T. S. Gilham, who acted as our General Agent last year, were entirely satisfactory, and of great benefit to the Brotherhood.

Until the present system is thoroughly tested we suggest no changes, but ask the active coöperation of clergy and laity in our efforts.

D. N. WALKER,

Rev. Dr. Dashiell, from the Committee on the Proposed Addition to Canon XII, on Mission Churches, presented the report, recommending the adoption of that amendment.

The report was received, and its recommendation adopted.

The laity then proceeded to consider the nomination of the Rev. A. M. Randolph, D. D., presented to them by the clergy.

Messrs. Thomas Potts and R. T. Craighill were appointed tellers, and the ballot was ordered.

Pending the count of the laity vote—

Mr. T. C. Elder presented the report of the Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute :

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE VIRGINIA FEMALE INSTITUTE.

The Trustees are pleased to report to the Council that the annual reports of the Board of Directors, and of Mrs. Stuart, the Principal, show that there has been some improvement in the condition of the Virginia Female Institute since the last meeting of the Council.

There have been in the school during the present session thirty-eight boarding pupils, but owing to the prevalence of scarlet fever in Staunton during the past winter, and other causes, seven of these have been withdrawn, and the school will close with only thirty-one. The number of day scholars is somewhat increased.

Report of Trustees Virginia Female Institute.

Fortunately, the epidemic mentioned did not invade the Institute, and the health of the pupils throughout the session has been unusually good.

The deportment of the young ladies, their diligence in their studies, and the general management of the school in all its departments not only afford no room for complaint, but merit high commendation.

There are only five boarding pupils that are not professing Christians, and two of these are not old enough for confirmation.

Mrs. Stuart assumed control of the Institute in 1880, for a period of three years. She embarked all of her means in the enterprise. There was then a debt resting on the property of the Institute, which has been somewhat increased since. It is, however, gratifying to know that there will be no loss on the operations of the current scholastic year.

The Board of Trustees held a special meeting at the Institute March 9th and 10th of the present year, and made provision for securing the increased indebtedness above referred to.

At this meeting a new contract was agreed on, whereby Mrs. Stuart is to remain in charge of the school at least two years longer, and for five years if she chooses.

We can and do most heartily endorse the warm commendation bestowed on the Institute by the Bishop in his report to the Council at its present session.

Perhaps the highest praise that can be bestowed on this Seminary of Learning is to say, as we can with entire safety say, that those who are best acquainted with it are those who have the highest opinion of its merits.

The Board of Directors, who are charged with the more immediate management of this Institution, in the concluding paragraphs of their last report to the Trustees, say: "They know Mrs. Stuart to be thoroughly competent for her position. She is a lady of unusual administrative ability. In the management of the business affairs of the school, judgment and economy are admirably blended, and, in the government of the pupils, firmness and gentleness meet and temper each other."

The corps of teachers is composed of experienced educators, who are devoted to their duties.

All the appointments of the school are peculiarly well adapted to the preservation of the health and comfort of the pupils, and to the harmonious development of all their faculties, intellectual, moral and religious.

The only thing the school needs to make it all that it should be to the Diocese is increased patronage.

The Directors would most earnestly commend this Seminary of Learning to all the Trustees, and would urge them to exert their influence to secure for it this patronage.

All that the Trustees would add in this connection is a suggestion to those having daughters or female wards to be educated to give the claims of this Diocesan school a candid examination.

Virginia Bible Society.

It should have been stated in a preceding part of this report, that from the persons nominated by the Council at its present session, in accordance with the requirements of the law governing the matter, William W. Old, of Norfolk, and David B. Tennant, of Petersburg, have been elected by the Trustees to supply the vacancies in the membership of their Board, occasioned by the resignation of Walter H. Taylor and George Newton.

By order of the Trustees.

THOS. C. ELDER, Secretary pro tem.

The following was also presented :

The Board of Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute have elected W. W. Old, of Norfolk, and David B. Tennant, of Petersburg, to fill the vacancies in the Board by the resignations of Walter H. Taylor and George Newton.

THOMAS C. ELDER,
Secretary pro tem.

Mr. John L. Williams, from the Committee on Episcopal Endowment Fund, appointed at last Council, asked that Mr. D. N. Walker be appointed as a member of that committee, in place of Mr. John L. Bacon, who declined to serve, and requested that further time be granted the committee for its report.

The appointment was made, and the committee continued to the next Council.

Rev. Dr. Minnigerode offered the following:

In view of the importance of the Bible Society, and the faithful and judicious conduct of its affairs by the Bible Society of Virginia, as well as its successful activity in the distribution of God's Word through colporteurs and missionaries :

Resolved 1, That this Council recommend the Bible cause to the sympathy and cordial coöperation of all the parishes in the Diocese of Virginia.

Resolved 2, That it be earnestly recommended to all the several parishes to take up an annual collection to aid the Virginia Bible Society in the prosecution of its work.

Resolved 3, That the Board of Managers of the Virginia Bible Society be requested from time to time to communicate to the rectors of the different parishes, such facts as will give them due information and secure their interest in the work.

Carried.

Lay vote for Assistant Bishop—Notice to Dr. Randolph—Testimonials Signed.

The tellers of the vote for Assistant Bishop, reported that the nomination of the clergy was ratified by the laity.

On motion, the chairman was instructed to notify the Rev. Dr. Randolph of his election, by telegraph, and the Secretary to forward official notification by mail.

Rev. Dr. Minnigerode moved that the question, What shall be the salary of the Assistant Bishop? be referred to the Finance Committee, and it was so referred.

Rev. Dr. Murdaugh, from the Committee on the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, presented the following :

The committee on accounts of the fund for widows and orphans of deceased clergymen report :

That having examined the accounts they find them correct. They note, with pleasure, that the widows and orphans of no less than twelve deceased clergymen have received aid from this fund. With regret they observe that only sixty of our churches have made any contributions to this important institution of our Diocese. Can we not all unite in showing our grateful esteem for our deceased brethren, by making more liberal provision for the widows and the fatherless whom they have left to our care.

SATURDAY, MAY 19.

The Council met at 9:30 A. M., and was called to order by the Bishop, after prayer by Rev. Dr. Hains.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The Council then proceeded to elect three clerical and two lay deputies.

The vote for Clerical Deputies was then taken ; all nominees except the four receiving highest former vote being on motion, dropped from the list of candidates. The Rev. Messrs. P. P. Phillips and J. J. Gravatt, and Messrs. E. A. Hatton and C. E. Cary were re-appointed tellers.

The tellers reported the vote as follows :

Whole number of votes cast,	-	-	-	142

Of which Rev. Dr. Peterkin received 102 votes, Rev. Dr. Hanckel, 77 votes, and were declared elected.

No other candidate receiving a number of votes sufficient to elect, the Council proceeded to ballot for a Fourth Clerical Deputy. Pending the ballot, the Rev. Pike Powers, D. D., offered the following :

Resolved, That the expenses of two Presbyters to the Conference respecting work among the colored people, to be held in July, at the University of the South, be paid out of the Contingent Fund.

The resolution was referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. R. T. Scott offered the following :

Resolved, That the good of the Church, its advancement and the welfare of both clergy and laity, demand that the Diocese of Virginia be divided.

Resolved, That the Chair appoint a committee of six clergy and seven laymen, to consider the subject of the division of the Diocese, and report to the next Council of the Diocese.

Rev. P. M. Boyden moved to lay on the table.

Rev. H. M. Jackson called for a vote by orders, which was taken with the following result :

BALTIMORE, May 19, 1883.

To the REV. O. A. KINSOLVING, President, pro tem., of the Diocesan Council of Virginia, St. James' Church, Richmond :

I am deeply sensible of the honor conferred upon me by the Council. Until action has been taken by those with whom the final decision rests, may I ask for time to consider the same. At present there is a strong conflict of duties and feelings. May God help me to see and do what is right.

Most truly and affectionately yours,

Communications from the General Convention.

The tellers announced the result of ballots for the remaining Clerical Deputy. Two ballots were taken without resulting in an election. The third ballot resulted as follows :

Whole number of votes cast,	-	-	-	188
Necessary to a choice, -	-	-	-	95

Rev. Dr. Gibson received 95 votes, and was declared elected.

Rev. Dr. Peterkin presented the following paper, signed by the clerical and lay members of the Council, which was ordered to be spread upon the Journal.

We, the members of the Eighty-eighth Council of the Diocese of Virginia, in Richmond assembled, have learned with great pleasure that our beloved Bishop contemplates a voyage to Europe, for the restoration of his health, impaired by labors beyond his strength in the service of the Diocese.

We take this occasion to express our high appreciation of his fidelity to his duties as Bishop, and our warm personal regard and affection for him.

We feel that we are thus acting as faithful representatives of the congregations throughout the length and breadth of the Diocese, to which he has given his strength and his labors, and which he has so constantly borne in his heart and in his prayers.

The people who love him so loyally will join with us, by the fireside and in the Church, in commending him and his family to Him who holds the waters in the hollow of His hand, and we earnestly pray that he may be restored to us in renewed health and strength.

On motion of Rev. James Grammer, the Council took up the report of the Committee on the Communications from the General Convention.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATIONS FROM GENERAL CONVENTION.

Your Committee have had before them three resolutions reported at the last Council by the Standing Committee, viz:

1. That this Council concurs in the amendment to the Ratification of the Book of Common Prayer adopted by the General Convention of 1880.
2. That this Council is not prepared to pledge the Diocese to coöperate in the proposed scheme for increasing the fund for deceased clergy and their families, as indicated in the report of the Committee of the House of Deputies of the General Convention of 1880 upon that subject.
3. That this Council is of opinion that each Diocese should provide for the traveling expenses of its Clerical and Lay Deputies, and for the maintenance of such Deputies during the session of the General Convention. The Diocese of Virginia has made such provision in the past and intends to make a like provision in the future.

Communications from the General Convention.

First Resolution.

To the subject matter of this first resolution, your Committee find very weighty objections:

1. In regard to the language of the proposed amendment: whatever moral force might be furnished by the fact, that this amendment has received the sanction of such a body as our General Convention, is in great measure, if not wholly done away by the evidence which the language of it furnishes, that it was not scanned and weighed with the care and deliberateness that such legislation demands. We refer to this first sentence, viz: "The General Convention * * * * having heretofore * * * * set forth and established a Book of Common Prayer, * * * * and thereby establish the said book," &c. We would not like to see such a specimen of English perpetuated in the very forefront of that Prayer Book, which, equally with our Bible, deserves to be esteemed as a "well of English undefiled." This, of course, is an oversight. But an oversight of this sort gives proof that the proposed legislation had not been duly digested.

2. The Prayer Book of 1789 was ratified in that year by the General Convention once for all, and is not an act that can be repeated. We submit with all deference to the superior wisdom of the General Convention, that, if there is to be any re-ratification, or any amendment to the ratification, the Prayer Book of 1871 should be substituted therein for the Prayer Book of 1789. By Title I, Can. 19, § 2, [1] the Prayer Book, as it was in 1871, in the octavo edition published by the New York Bible and Common Prayer Book Society, is made the standard Prayer Book; and this book differs from the book of 1789 by the addition of the Ordinal set forth in 1792. The form of consecration of a Church in 1799, the Thirty-nine Articles in 1801, and the Institution Office in 1804 and 1808, to say nothing of lesser changes in the hand of Revision Committees appointed to prepare standard editions. It is more proper, therefore, that if there is to be any further ratifying, it should have for its object the present Prayer Book, and not the book of 1789, which has once been ratified. We object to the meaningless form of re-ratifying the book of 1789 with the mere purpose of introducing alterations that more fitly and honestly belong to the Rubrics. The subject matter of the amendment is entirely congruous and homogeneous with the Rubrics, but as entirely foreign in purpose and substance to the ratification.

3. This ratification is in conflict with Rubrics: 1st. The Rubric preceding the Litany confines its use to Sundays, Wednesdays and Fridays; this ratification allows its use "on any day." 2nd. The first Rubric after the Communion Office requires that the Anti-Communion Service "shall be said"

Communications from the General Convention.

“upon the Sundays and other Holy days (if there be no sermon or communion)”; this ratification allows it to be omitted “on any day,” provided it be not omitted “habitually.”

4. Another objectionable feature of this amendment is, that while professedly an effort after relaxation and liberty in the use of the Prayer Book, it yet restricts, even more than our present Canons do, our liberty in the matter of extempore prayer. Custom, at least, sanctions extempore prayer after sermon; this amendment prohibits its use “before or after.” Besides, it puts this matter, now only a matter of canonical provision, into the Constitution, thus at the same time exalting a small matter into a principle of fundamental importance in the Church of Christ, and putting any future reconsideration of it practically out of the question.

We recommend to the Council, therefore, the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That this Council does not concur in the amendment to the ratification of the Book of Common Prayer, adopted by the General Convention of 1880.

Second Resolution.

The second communication to this Diocese from the General Convention, reported on by our Standing Committee, relates to the General Fund for Disabled Clergy and the Families of Deceased Clergy. It is in the form of resolutions adopted by the House of Deputies, and concurred in by the House of Bishops. The purport of them, so far as calling for any action by this Council, is conveyed in their second and third resolutions, to wit:

2nd. Resolved, That this House do earnestly request the several Diocesan Conventions or Councils that they duly consider, and if they find expedient, approve, commend, and endorse the eminent charity embraced in the purpose and effort of this committee.

3rd. Resolved, That every minister in charge of a congregation be requested to reserve, from this time forth, out of “the alms and other devotions” of the people, collected upon each and every occasion of the administration of the Lord’s Supper, a percentage of the whole amount, not less than one nor more than ten per cent., at the discretion of the minister, the same to be forwarded and paid over to the Trustees of the fund, &c.

These resolutions are reported by a committee, which the Lower House appointed at the urgent request of the Bishops.

The question is, shall we aid this General Fund, when we are but scantily providing for our own disabled clergy and our own widows and orphans? It is the same sort of question that arises in every sphere of charity. We cannot sustain our own Diocesan Missions except in a most straitened way—are, in fact, receiving aid from the Domestic Board and from the American Church Missionary Society: and shall we then contribute to the Domestic Missions and to the Church Missionary Society? We have heathen enough at home, at our very doors; and shall we send money to the heathen in foreign lands? Shall we say let every one look after his own? Then our Foreign Board and our Domestic Board and our Diocesan Boards must all collapse and die of depletion. There are young and feeble Dioceses and Missionary jurisdictions that cannot, like their older, stronger, and richer sisters, make, as yet, any provision for their poor and needy.

We offer, therefore, and recommend to the Council the following:

Resolved, That this Council approves the proposed scheme of the General Convention for increasing the fund for the Relief of Disabled Clergy and of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy.

Third Resolution.

The third resolution of the Standing Committee before us relates to a communication from the Committee of Expenses of the General Convention, inquiring whether provision is made by this Diocese for the expenses of our Bishop and Deputies to the General Convention, and inviting an expression of opinion as to the expediency of providing for such expenses by an assessment on each Diocesan Convention.

This is entirely a question as to privileges; or, should any consider it a matter of piety or charity to aid feeble and far off Dioceses to send their representatives to the General Convention, it must still be conceded that such aid should be matter of grace and not of law.

Hence, we recommend to the Council the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this Council does not approve the suggestion of the Committee of Expenses, that the traveling expenses of the Bishops and Deputies to the General Convention be provided for by an assessment on each Diocese.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be promptly sent, as requested, to the Chairman of the Committee of Expenses, with the information that this Diocese provides for the expenses of its Bishops and Deputies to the General Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES GRAMMER,
TAYLOR BERRY,
R. T. CRAIGHILL.

The first resolution offered by the Committee was adopted.

The second resolution was adopted.

The third resolution was adopted.

The whole report of the Committee was then adopted.

Diocesan Colored Work.

Mr. J. R. Jones presented the report of the Committee on Finance. As the report omitted the Historiographer's salary, it was, on motion of Mr. J. R. Jackson, re-committed. The Historiographer's salary was, by vote of the Council, continued at $500 per annum, and the expenses of Bishop Peterkin, for work done within this Diocese, were provided for, and the report, with these additions, was adopted.

Rev. H. M. Jackson offered the following :

Resolved, That both evangelists be put on the same footing under the control of the Bishop, to be appointed by him.

Carried.

The Council then proceeded to elect two Lay Deputies to the General Convention, Rev. Messrs. R. A. Goodwin and H. B. Lee, and Messrs. Whiting and J. C. Cooke, acting as tellers.

They reported one ballot cast, with no election. On the second ballot, Mr. R. E. Withers received 86 votes out of a total of 153 votes cast, and was declared elected.

Rev. Dr. Dashiell presented the following :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DIOCESAN COLORED WORK.

The Committee to whom was referred so much of the Bishop's address as makes mention of the Conference to be held at Sewanee in July next, concerning our Church's relations to the colored people in the United States, beg leave to report as follows :

It seems unnecessary to your Committee to say anything to impress upon this Council the seriousness of the question that is to be discussed in the Conference referred to.

This Diocese, we believe, is as fully alive as any in the land to the great duty which God has put upon the Church in this country, because of the great spiritual needs of the colored people. In the actions of our Councils for several years past, in the remarkable efforts and successes of Christian men and women in the instruction of adults and children in various parts of the Diocese, in the important educational work carried on at Petersburg, we can see that our people feel and are endeavouring, in some degree, to meet their responsibility.

Diocesan Colored Work.

But, as the great question of our whole Church's duty will come before the General Convention, and as our Diocese will be called upon to contribute something of suggestion to the Conference in July, we would give as the result of your Committee's consideration, the following opinion :

We believe that the true—the only solution of our Church's relation to the colored race will be found in giving them the right and encouraging them to the exercise of their right to a separate organization.

They have asked, as we know, and it is natural that they should request, separate congregational organizations. The race difficulty, in a social point of view, is a real one. The colored people recognize it as clearly as the white, and are prepared to act accordingly. A white pastor to a colored congregation is not and cannot be such a pastor as a congregation desires and really needs. He may visit the homes of the people, he may go in and out of their families, but there is no such free, unrestrained recognition of their families by his. The barrier between his family and the families of the congregation renders that intercourse unreal. It is by no means a mutual recognition.

Our white congregations have no intention of asking colored men to be their rectors. It is in no spirit of resentment, but in the natural desire for more than the semblance of church relationship that the colored people ask that their pastors shall be of their own race.

What is true of congregations, is in its principle true of the larger organizations. The intercourse between the white and the colored ministers and laymen in Councils and Conventions is not, and whilst they are so few in number and their churches are so feeble, as not to have lay representation, it very surely will not be as real as it ought to be between Christian men of the same Church. There is brotherly kindness, genuine, unfeigned. There is a cordial welcome to every colored man who enters our Councils, but all of us know that under the present condition of things, our colored brethren, though they have every right upon this floor with the rest of us, do not feel that they have the same measure of influence which we all would desire for them. However much this or any other Diocese might need a Bishop, and however qualified intellectually and religiously colored men might be whom we could find, we know that we would never make choice of any other than a white Bishop to go in and out amongst our families and congregations. We would prefer the white men for the same reason that the other race would take a colored man rather than an Indian.

We submit, that in order to have the work thoroughly done, there must be thorough organization, and such an organization as will not make this large body of our population feel that they are merely patronized. We trust the Council will agree with us in the request that our Deputies to the General Convention will use their best efforts to have the colored people encouraged to prepare for an organization which will be their own, subject, of course, to the General Convention, but in other respects independent and

Rev. Dr. R. T. Davis presented the following :

The committee, to whom was referred a communication from the International Sabbath Association, recommend the adoption of the following preamble and resolutions:

We recognize the truth that the Christian Sabbath, as a day of holy and joyful rest, is of Divine institution, and that it is of perpetual obligation, may be inferred from the fact, that the command to keep the Seventh Day holy, is enshrined among the unchanging precepts of the Decalogue. The memorable words also, in which He, who is Lord of the Sabbath, declared its original design, evince that design to embrace the men of all countries and all times. Christ said: "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath." That the rest of one day in seven is needful to both man and beast is confirmed by a wide experience, and is fully admitted by many who profess no reverence for the Word of God. For these reasons the Sabbath is guarded by civil statute; and, by the laws of Virginia, ordinary labor on that day is strictly prohibited.

Whilst the habit of Sabbath observance is a great support of all that is good in any community, its habitual non-observance is, on the other hand, disastrous to the cause of religion and morality; and to root out from the minds of men the idea of the sanctity of the Sabbath, is, in effect, to throw open the flood-gates for the invasion of the land by a torrent of vice and impiety. It is, therefore, a cause of sorrow and alarm that there should be in our country a growing disposition to disregard God's Holy Day, and that the violations of its sanctity should be more open and frequent than formerly. This sad state of things is promoted by several causes—notably by the influx of a large and godless foreign population, and also by the eager desire to amass money that is manifested both by individuals and corporations. But the chief and prolific source of the evil is to be found in the management of our railroads, whose manifold Sunday excursion trains, mail trains, and even freight trains, impose demoralizing labor on multitudes of employes, undermine popular respect for the day, and, in many cases, contravene the law of the land.

1. Resolved, That we receive with respectful interest the communication of the International Sabbath Association.

2. Resolved, It is the sense of this Council that legal measures should be taken which will put a stop to the violation of the Sabbath by the running of freight trains, and the transmission and distribution of local mails on that day; and it is recommended to the various ministers and vestries of this Diocese, that they take such steps as may seem advisable to effect this object, by petition to the legislature of the State, and the Congress of the United States. In this behalf the appended form of petition is suggested:

PETITION REGARDING SUNDAY MAILS.—INTERNATIONAL SABBATH ASSOCIATION.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress Assembled:

We, the undersigned citizens of ———, hereby respectfully petition your honorable bodies to pass a law instructing the Postmaster-General to make no further contracts which shall include the carriage of the mails on the Sabbath, and to provide that hereafter no mail matter shall be collected or distributed on that day.

The report was received and its resolutions adopted.

On motion of Rev. W. C. Latané, the editors of the Southern Churchman and Our Diocesan Work, were requested to publish the report.

Rev. G. W. Nelson offered the following:

Whereas, the Rt. Rev. George W. Peterkin, D. D., Bishop of West Virginia, has during the year rendered valuable assistance to our own Bishop, in performing Episcopal duties which the latter, by reason of infirm health, could not discharge, Resolved, That this Council do recognize the services of the Bishop West Virginia as done in the interests of the whole Diocese, and hereby tender him the thanks of the Church in this State.

Carried unanimously.

Mr. Potts offered the following:

Report of Committee on State of the Church.

Resolved, That no appropriation of money be made by the Council until it has been first submitted to the Committee on Finance.

Carried.

Rev. James Grammer presented the report of the Committee on the State of the Church :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee desire to say, by way of explanation, that the press of duties, and the abstractions of mind consequent upon the election of an Assistant Bishop, and other questions of prime interest, have necessitated the brevity of this report.

Your Committee are thankful that they are able to report continued prosperity in the Diocese. The matters of special encouragement are many: we call attention first to the large number of candidates for the ministry—thirty-four, as reported by the Bishop in his address. The number of churches consecrated during one year are nine. Seven thousand dollars, nearly twice the amount frequently reported in years past, have been raised during the year for Diocesan Missions. Over 900 persons have consecrated themselves, souls and bodies, to the Redeemer, in the solemn rite of Confirmation.

Your Committee are glad to note that the interest in the work of the gospel among the colored people is manifestly on the increase. There are some perplexing problems connected with this work as yet, which we trust and believe the great Head of the Church will make plain, as we advance under the leadings of his providence in the path of our duty to this people. We look for the happiest results from the conference of the Bishops of the Southern Dioceses, to be held this Summer.

It is encouraging also to note that the cause of temperance continues to grow. From all parts of the Diocese it is reported that our people are more and more refraining from the use of intoxicating drinks on social and festive occasions. It would be well if our people would unite in lessening, as far as possible, the number of places where liquors are sold, and in enforcing the laws already existing for the regulation of the sale of liquors. The habit of visiting bar-rooms, and of treating, is one that causes much scandal, and should carefully be avoided by all who call themselves Christians. There is evidence that the preaching on temperance during Advent Season, at the Bishop's request, was followed by very beneficial effects.

The matter of Sunday observance is one that involves increasing peril to the cause of morals and religion, and your Committee earnestly recommend that it be made a more frequent subject of exhortation and instruction from the pulpit.

We notice a looseness in the observance of this holy day, a disposition to make it a day chiefly of carnal recreation and enjoyment, that quite prepares us to expect along with it a doubt or denial of the divine obligation of the law of the Sabbath as one of the fundamental moral laws of the divine government. When Sabbath-breaker has ceased to be a term of obloquy, or designates only a violation of the civil regulations concerning the day of rest, thus reducing a divine ordinance into a human, we are no longer surprised to find a similar disregard of other moral restraints and obtuseness of conscience as to other divine ordinances.

We rejoice to see, therefore, in the International Sabbath Association, evidence that Christian society is becoming alarmed at the prevalence of this non-observance of the holy day, and are moving unitedly towards a correction of the evil. We must fully recognize this truth, and emphasize it that attendance on divine worship once a day and refraining from customary secular occupations does not by far fill out the full measure of the injunction to "remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy." In this connection, we must mention the non-attendance at church of church members, especially at the second service, and this, that there may be leisure left for mere purposes of amusement and pleasure. We notice, too, in many communities, the habitual absence of men from the ministrations of the gospel as a very bad sign of the times. In the matter also of Sunday trains on our railroad lines, freight and excursion trains, we recognize a great evil. It must be admitted that there are real difficulties in rigidly fixing the limits of Sunday observance. But when necessity is pleaded for running such trains, as it usually is, it is a fair question whether it is any other necessity than the officials themselves have created, and that will equally justify any other industry in carrying on its business on Sunday, viz: the necessity of making money. We earnestly press upon our clergy and laity the duty of doing what on them lies to form a healthy public sentiment against this evil, and to insist upon the great principle, that the Sabbath being made for man, man is entitled, and all men should be free to enjoy the Sabbath.

Rev. Dr. Gibson presented the report of the Committee on Sunday Schools :

Report of Committee on Sunday Schools.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Committee on Sunday Schools, appointed at the last Council, were unwilling at that time to prevent a hasty report on so important a subject. They asked, therefore, for more time to consider it. We cannot but regard the wonderful increase of activity in the religious training of the young as shown within the last hundred years in the rise and growth of Sunday Schools, one of the plainest proofs of the near approach of the "coming kingdom" of our Lord. Almost exactly parallel with the rapid growth of Missions, during the same period, it stands forth in the history of the Church as a "sign of the times," a cheering token that, in the beautiful language of the English burial service, "The Lord is of His gracious goodness shortly to accomplish the number of His elect, and to hasten His kingdom." It is only about a hundred years ago that Robert Raikes, under the lead of his Rector, the Rev. Mr. Stock, awakened public attention to the use of this humble means of spreading the Gospel. And now to-day, within the limits of Christendom, at least 15,000,000 of children, for the most part neglected children, are receiving its benefits. If, with His own lips, our Lord declared "The Gospel shall be preached in all the world for a witness to all nations, and then shall the end come," the angel, Gabriel, and his brother, the prophet Malachi, tell us, with almost equal distinctness, that the most striking preparation for each of His personal comings shall be, "the hearts of the fathers shall be turned to the children." Surely, in these last of "the latter days," God, the Spirit, who "sanctifies and governs the whole body of the Church," has brought to the front the Sunday School, as one of His great means of evangelizing the world. God's ministers and people then neglect it at their peril! But the question may now be asked, Is this confessedly all-important work of training the young best done by Sunday Schools? May not other means of religious training be made far more efficient? Richard Baxter somewhere says: "If all fathers and mothers would only do their duty to their children, the preaching of the Gospel would be no longer the great means for the conversion of the world." So we may say, in the ideal Parish, in the ideal period of the Church's life, when the father of every household obeys His God, and helps the mother to "bring up his children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord;" when every sponsor is faithful in performing his "part and duty" to his God-children; when Parochial Schools, under well-trained pious teachers, are daily visited by the Rector, and the Rector himself, strong in body and "in spirit," is abundant in catechisings, perhaps the Sunday School may be useless. But is such an imaginary state of things ever to be realized? Where has it ever been? Under our present circumstances dare we hope it ever will be? Meanwhile, souls are perishing whilst we are theorizing. The Great Head of the Church, as when on earth, "hath compassion on the multitudes who are scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd." He waits not for man to perfect his ideals. He himself "builds the walls of Jerusalem. He gathereth the outcasts of Israel." He rebuked the lifeless churches of the last century by "choosing the foolish things of the world to confound the wise, and the weak things of the world to confound the mighty." His spirit of wisdom and love prompted for His neglected poor and for His "little ones" the formation of Sunday Schools. And now the earnest man of God who seeks to do his Master's will, the practical man who feels that his great business is to save souls, finds in these humble instruments the very best means of carrying out in every department of it his Parish work. The Sunday School is the very best field in which to awaken and train the energies of his people. By employing fathers and mothers at the heads of classes he best teaches them the much neglected duties of family religion. Sponsors find in the Sunday School teacher's position the best place to fulfil their important duties. The pastor himself finds it the best place for his catechisings. Ungodly parents, and the destitute and suffering ones of the Parish, are best reached through their little ones; and the pastor standing, as he ought to do, habitually in the midst of the lambs, and the working members of his flock, is nowhere so well able to hear from and to reach every part of his Parish, however widely extended. Thus "the foolishness of God is wiser than men." This leads us to consider: What relation the Sunday School should sustain towards the Ministry and the Church? We believe the very closest possible. The Sunday School work forms an essential part of the great work of the gospel ministry. The very tenor of the Great Commission makes "teaching" our great business. "Go ye, disciple all nations, baptizing them," and "teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you." The Church then is our Lord's Great School into which an ignorant and perishing world are to be brought by baptism, that they may be instructed and saved, and His ministers are the divinely appointed educators. It is by gospel teaching and training then, not by revival appliances, the world is to be converted and saved. But can you "disciple a nation" if you neglect the children who form the large majority of every nation? Will wise educators give their chief attention to adults and leave untaught the young? Did not our Lord also in His charge to St. Peter "Feed my Lambs," given, first, before the "Feed my Sheep," show us plainly that the spiritual interests of the little ones of His flock are always the nearest to His heart? Ought they not, then, to be always the nearest to the heart of every under shepherd of the flock? Can a pastor neglect the training of Christ's little ones without guilt? Can he ever slight this, the principal part of his work, without incurring the displeasure of Him who has so solemnly warned His disciples, "Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones." We maintain then, Sunday Schools ought to be in ceaseless activity in every Parish, and the Parish minister ought to be potentially the head of every one of them. No matter how many there are, for he is responsible to his Chief Shepherd for all the teaching given in them. The Superintendents should be chosen by him, not by the teachers or the congregation. The library and instruction books should be of his selection. In the choice of teacher's and officers the pastor should always be consulted. The children he should know every one by name, and from his Sunday School he should be constantly gathering the best material of his candidates for confirmation. In the language of the excellent Bishop of Pennsylvania, "The Sunday School, as part of the Church, should be morticed into the Church, and draw its strength from the Church, and be guided in its outgrowth and expansion by the Church." Just here we have to meet a practical difficulty, not uncommon in our large and sparsely settled country Parishes. How is the clergyman, meeting his congregations once a fortnight, perhaps only once a month, to gather the little ones of his widely scattered flock into a Sunday School, and keep them under his personal supervision? We venture this suggestion: In case no central school can be formed, cannot the minister create at private houses, in different parts of his Parish, points of gathering for the children of each locality, committing each neighborhood school to the superintendence of some Christian man or woman, an anxious prayerful father or mother, it may be, who, inviting others like-minded, on Sunday afternoons, can conduct the school. Then, quarterly or semi-annually, let all the schools, with parents and friends, assemble at the Parish Church to a public catechising and preaching to the children, occupying, if need be, the whole day in bright religious exercises. In sustaining such schools the dormant powers of our country members would be most profitably employed, and the pastor, in his continual visits to these schools, would come to know all the people of his Parish, touching each one of them in his home-life.

Report of Committee on Sunday Schools.

We come now to a still more important question, what are we to teach in our Sunday Schools? The language the Great Commission, it seems to us, shows us plainly also, what should be the matter and the method of our instructions to both old and young alike, they should always be founded upon the Baptismal Covenant. The gospel ministry is to "go into all the world, disciplining them by baptizing them INTO THE NAME OF the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost." Does that mean merely applying the Water and invoking The Sacred Name? Assuredly not. It means far more. It means chiefly, bringing each disciple by Baptism into the knowledge of the character, the office, and the manifold relations to his soul of each one of the Divine Persons of the Godhead. These truths are none other than "the Articles of the Christian Faith contained in the Apostle's Creed." And to these, Our Lord enjoins it upon us to add the whole Bible as "the Word of Christ," "teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you." Exactly upon this theory it is our Church Catechism is constructed. She begins as Our Lord teaches us to do, with something tangible and real in the life of the child. She is eminently practical in her way of teaching, because Our Lord was so. She gathers the little one in her arms as soon as possible after its birth, and marks it as one of the Lord's Great Flock. Upon what has now been already done for its spiritual good, she begins her teachings to the child. Her Catechism is but an enlargement of the terms of the Great Commission, showing what the Christian's Covenant Vow is in all its fullness. This "form of sound words" she puts into the hands of parents and sponsors, and by Canon Law, she binds it upon her Ministers to be "diligent in instructing the children in the Catechism, and also, by stated catechetical lectures and instructions, to be diligent in informing the youth and others, in the Doctrine, Constitution and Liturgy of the Church." Canon 21, Title I. All the instruction then, in our Sunday Schools ought to be based upon the Baptismal Covenant, according to Our Lord's express command to His Church, and our Church's express provision. It ought to be continued along the line pointed out in that same command, and laid down in the Catechism and Baptismal Service, "Chiefly ye shall provide that the child may learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, the Ten Commandments," and it is to extend to "all other things that a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health." Most closely does our Church cling in this, as in all her formularies to the very letter of her Lord's instructions. Let us, her ministers and people, see to it that we carry them out as closely in practice!

The American Sunday School Union, years ago, put forth its claim to the prayers and contributions of God's people under the plea that it is "the Society that takes care of the children." We do not deny to them that claim. They justly deserve it. They have supplied to some extent, our great "lack of service" and that of other churches to the perishing souls of our fellow countrymen. Yes, and to the neglected little ones of our own Diocese. During the year 1881, that noble Society organized throughout the United States 1,921 schools, and enlisted 69,900 scholars, and 8,500 teachers into active work against The Kingdom of Darkness. Within our own Diocese of Virginia, during the year 1882, it organized 120 new schools, aided 100 more already established, distributed 800 Bibles and Testaments to needy schools, visited 1,400 families, and enlisted in work for God 4,700 teachers and scholars. All honor, we say, to this venerable institution, blest of God we believe, because it "cares for the children." But surely if there be a Church on earth which deserves that honorable title, "THE CHURCH that CARES FOR THE CHILDREN," it is the Church of our affections. Not because her sons and daughters have done their duty to the Lord's little ones better than others. No; we fear that the lowest, not the highest, seat belongs to us. But, because in all her forms and in the very framework of her services, the Episcopal Church makes prominent and provides for the spiritual needs of the poor and of children, and shows herself a grand educational institution, especially adapted to those who cannot read and who need the formation upon them of religious habits. Is there anywhere to be found a body of God's people as well furnished as the ministers and members of the Episcopal Church, with means to become the Educators of all orders and degree of men, women and children, in the saving knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ? With our Catechism, so wisely worded and so simple; our Prayer Book, Sunday after Sunday, spreading before their eyes the beauties of the Bible, and giving the children words to pray with; our Responsive Services, full of Bible teaching, and of that blessed "Name whereby alone we can be saved;" our Sponsorial System, marking out clearly the faithful Sunday-School teacher's duties, and then, the circle of the Christian year, rich with the teachings of its Holy Days. May we not claim for our Church what she is even too modest to claim for herself, that she is indeed "The Church that cares for children;" the Church that provides for "God's Poor;" the Church most like her Divine Model." The Holy Scripture given by inspiration of God, profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness." Let us pray to be more faithful in the improvement of the vast privileges we enjoy. Let us imbue our little ones at home and in the Sunday School, with a warm love for our Church's true teachings against all forms of error around us, and with a knowledge of all her distinctive forms and features, and thereby infuse into them her own blessed spirit of humility and charity, and the full knowledge of the Word of God. Let the Prayer Book, as well as the Bible, be the chief textbook in all our schools, and other books of instruction, only those which best explain their meaning. Depend upon it, brethren, positive teaching of our Church's Doctrine and Discipline to our children will be their best safeguard against incipient Romanism on the one hand, and on the other, against that loose liberalism which, in principle, is often identical with Romanism.

Well furnished, however, as we are, to be the best educators of the world, the statistics of our Church Almanacs and of our Diocesan Journal leave a very painful impression as to what we are actually doing. The 350,000 communicants of the Episcopal Church in this country furnish only 35,000 teachers, and only 309,000 scholars. In our own Diocese our 14,000 communicants furnish to their pastors less than 1,500 workers in Sunday Schools, and, as a consequence, the small number of only 10,600 scholars! We hope and pray for a better showing, year by year, hereafter.

There are many matters of detail concerning the management of our Sunday Schools on which we forbear to enter—e. g., graded schools, uniform lessons, prizes, how much time to give to music, what hymns to sing, and, above all, how to make better teachers—a subject to which the Church-people of England have turned their attention, and established "The Sunday School Institute" for the purpose of educating well qualified teachers. We are thankful the Council, by the appointment of a committee on this subject every year, has determined to keep Sunday Schools prominently before the eyes of our people. To the wisdom of our successors of this committee we gladly leave the important topics just mentioned. Our aim, in this introductory report, has been simply to point out what we think are the fundamental principles on which Episcopal Sunday Schools ought to be conducted. We must not close, however, without calling your attention to two important resolutions which have been referred to us for consideration, and which we cordially recommend for your adoption. The one is that presented at the last Council by Dr. Armstrong on the Subject of the Hymns we ought to use in our Sunday Schools. A most important matter! For hymns, we all know, are the most powerful means of influencing childrens' minds. Nay, more! They are a Divinely appointed means of influencing each other as Christian men and women, "teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs." Most carefully, therefore, ought their teaching and their very phrases to be guarded. Too many modern popular hymns destroy all spirit of reverence, the very foundation of all true religion, and are virtually a breach of the Third Commandment. On this subject our Bishop has spoken some six or seven years ago, and we are glad to add to our own the weight of his opinion. It was to the effect that "ministers and teachers of our Sunday Schools have no right to introduce into them any other hymns or sacred songs than those which are authorized by the legislation of the Church." We endorse the resolution referred to us, and recommend that the Council commit it to its delegates, to bring before the General Convention at its next meeting. It is as follows:

"Resolved, That the Diocese of Virginia pray the General Convention to appoint a Committee on Sunday School Hymns, so that a uniform hymnal, having the approval of the General Church, as to doctrine and language, may be within the reach of all our Episcopal Sunday Schools, thus insuring to us a pure form of worship for the children of the Church."

The other resolution is one suggested by the Executive Committee of the Richmond Protestant Episcopal Sunday School Union, viz: "That a Standing Committee be elected each year by the Council, to have charge of the Sunday School interests in the Diocese, this committee to be related to the Sunday School just as our Diocesan Missionary Committee is related to the Mission work of the Diocese; that this committee be located in ——— city, and to consist of not less than three clergymen and four laymen. The duties of this committee in general to be to supervise and direct the Sunday School work of the Diocese; to suggest the most judicious method of improving, elevating and extending this work; to collect statistics of all Sunday Schools; to stimulate and encourage the formation of Sunday Schools for colored people, &c., &c." This measure, we would remark, is similar to one adopted last year by the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and we commend it to the Council as a decided step in the right direction.

Respectfully submitted,

CHURCHILL J. GIBSON, Chairman, in behalf of the Committee.

The report was approved and ordered to be printed in the Journal, and its recommendation adopted in the appointment of the following committee, to be located in the city of Petersburg :

Place of Meeting of Next Council.

Rev. C. J. Gibson, D. D.,

“ C. R. Hains, D. D.,

“ Thomas Spencer,

Mr J. E. Moyler,

“ R. O. Egerton,

“ F. Whittle,

Mr. Ad. Blair.

Rev. John McGill offered the following :

Resolved, That the Bishop of the Diocese be, and is hereby requested to appoint some Sunday during the year on which all the clergy of the Diocese are requested to preach on the subject of the Lord's Day.

Carried.

On motion of Mr. Albert Baker, the next Council was appointed to be held in Christ Church, Winchester.

On motion of Mr. Mann Page, the Secretary was instructed not to record, but to file the report and all the papers presented on Thursday by the Committee on the question of the Bishop's Right to Inaugurate a Division of the Diocese.

The tellers reported the ballot for the remaining lay deputy—out of 141 votes cast, Mr. B. J. Barbour received 86, and was declared elected.

Rev. G. W. Dame offered the following :

Resolved, That though the assessment on Parishes for the Contingent Fund of the Diocese has the amount fixed by the number of communicants, it is not intended as a personal tax on the communicants, but should be provided for at the beginning of the parochial year, as is the rector's salary and other annual expenses of the Parish, and should be collected and forwarded to the Treasurer of the Diocese at the close of the Diocesan fiscal year, March 31.

The resolution was lost.

Rev. A. P. Gray offered the following :

Resolved, That delinquencies of over one year be omitted by the Treasurer of the Council from his annual report of the Contingent Fund.

Carried.

Report of Committee on Finance—Alternates to General Convention.

The Finance Committee, to whom their first report was recommended, presented the following, which was approved by the Council:

RICHMOND, May 18th, 1883.

The members of the Committee on Finance beg leave to report, that they have examined the accounts of P. H. Baskervill, the former Treasurer, and J. T. Gray, the present Treasurer, and find them correct, and accompanied by proper vouchers.

The balance on hand May 1st, was $4,456.22.

They recommend that the Treasurer be authorized to pay the salaries of the Bishop, Secretary, Evangelists, Chaplains, Historiographer, and their expenses, and the further sums of $30, to the Assistant Secretary, and $15 to the sexton of St. James' Church, Richmond.

They recommend an appropriation of $2,500, to defray the expenses of the Bishop during his leave of absence.

They also recommend that the Treasurer be authorized to pay the expenses consequent upon the meeting of the General Convention, and the expenses of the delegates to the meeting of Southern Bishops at the University of the South, and the expenses of the Bishop of West Virginia during the visitations made by him in our Diocese, at the request of our Bishop.

Referring to the resolution of the Council regarding the Assistant Bishop's salary, the committee recommend as his salary $3,500 per annum, travelling expenses and the payment of his house rent.

In addition to these appropriations, the committee is of opinion that if the usual collections of the Contingent Fund are made, the Treasurer might be authorized to pay $600 to the colored Evangelist to the colored people, should the Bishop appoint such.

Respectfully submitted,

D. N. WALKER, Chairman.

The following were elected alternates to the deputies to the General Convention :

Clerical.

Rev. James Grammer,
 " J. B. Newton,
 " K. Nelson, D. D.,
 " J. G. Armstrong, D. D.,

Lay.

Mr. Taylor Berry,
 " R. T. Scott,
 " R. T. Craighill,
 " J. L. Williams.

It was directed that the alternates should serve in the order of their election, in which they are here named.

Adjournment.

Rev. J. B. Newton offered the following :

Resolved, That the thanks of this Council are tendered to the members of our churches in Richmond, and other citizens, for the kind hospitality that have received at their hands.

The Council then united in singing the 315th hymn—

“Blest be the tie that binds.”

Prayer was offered by the Bishop and the Council adjourned sine die.

T. G. DASHIELL, Secretary.

THOMAS SPENCER, Assistant Secretary.

BALTIMORE, June 1st, 1883.

Rev. T. G. DASHIELL, D. D.,

Secretary of the Council of the Diocese of Virginia:

Rev. and Dear Brother—I was absent from the city when your letter came with the official announcement of my election by the Council of the Diocese of Virginia to the office of Assistant Bishop. From my heart I thank the clergy and laity of my native Diocese for this expression of their confidence. In a matter of so much importance to the Diocese of Virginia, to myself, to my family, and to my sphere of duty here, it will not, I trust, be thought inconsiderate if a definite answer to the call is delayed. If I had desired the office of a Bishop, and had the selection of a field to exercise that office been left to me, I would have chosen Virginia. But my work here, with its cares and its joys, and its constant demands upon heart and mind, has filled my thoughts for the present and my views for the future, so that the idea of being a Bishop in the Church is absolutely new to me. If the way seems to be clear before me to go, I shall take it as the guiding of God's providence. If I find it to be my duty to remain here, I will believe that the gracious Head of the Church has in store for Virginia a wiser and better Bishop than I could hope to be.

Most truly and affectionately yours,

A. M. RANDOLPH.

REMARKS.—The large amount reported as expended for parochial purposes includes about $1,000 in re-roofing and making other repairs upon the church building. The Ladies Sewing Society also expended $285 in renovating the cushions, and the children of the congregation contributed $51.85 to furnish the new vestry room. By all these proofs of interest in the welfare of their church, the pastor has been cheered and deeply touched; but more deeply yet by the generous provision made for the supply of the pulpit during a long release (of nine months) from all pastoral duty—demanded by his state of health, and by the liberality therein shown, when the congregation was already taxed for the repairs on this church building. He can only repeat and emphasize the blessings of the man of God upon all his dear people, young and old: "The Lord bless thee and keep thee."

REMARKS.—Our rectory, both pretty and convenient, has been entirely completed ; and I would gratefully acknowledge the kindness of our people on my recent occupancy of it. I found both its pantry and other apartments well provided with everything needful for convenience or comfort. Our Ladies' Society, after their untiring efforts, are now to be congratulated on their complete success, and our whole people may rejoice that they have added this attraction to our Parish, thus rendering its organization more permanent.

REMARKS.—A very desirable Rectory—a brick house and five acres of land adjoining the church has been bought at Fairfax C. H., for between twenty-five and twenty-six hundred dollars. About one half the money has been already paid. The Sunday School near Burks's Station continues to thrive. Rev. S. A. Wallis, of Pohick church, has held service there once a month during the last year, having good congregations. The building of the chapel at this point has been unavoidably delayed, but timbers are being gotten out, and we have nearly four hundred dollars in bank for this purpose.

REMARKS.—Among the additions to the list of communicants, is included the number of communicants found at Olivet, on its connection with Pohick Church, which took place on the last Sunday in December, 1882. A rectory, with six acres of land, has been purchased, adjacent to the Pohick Church. It is thought better not to add its cost to the above summary of contributions until the whole amount is paid on the property. Twenty dollars, not included in the list, was kindly contributed by the late S. G. Wyman, Esq., of Baltimore, for chancel improvements.

REMARKS.—The missions in connection with the Parish are encouraging. At "The Free State" there are ten communicants, not included above. Offerings to the amount of about $10 were received, not included in report above. The church there has been put in good repair. The "Rockland Mission" is a work undertaken by the Rector some four years since. For a long time the services were held in a small and most uncomfortable school-house. Last summer it was proposed to build a church at this place. The people took hold of the work at once. We now have a comfortable little framed church, with seating capacity of about one hundred. Except the plastering the church is finished and paid for. The people at the station—very poor they are—gave liberally of their labor. Leeds church congregation, and friends outside gave material aid.

REMARKS.—The above report is very unsatisfactory. For six months the Rector, on account of sickness, has been denied all active participation in parochial work. Perhaps, as a consequence, the results have not measured up to former years.

In this connection the the Rector would do violence to his own feelings if he did not testify to the tender sympathy and noble generosity of the good people of St. John's. During this entire sickness their loving words have cheered his heart while their abundant liberality has anticipated his every need. The Lord bless them forever.

The Rector desires also to record his appreciation of the faithful service rendered by Rev. Dr. Lyman B. Wharton who, for the past three months, has acted as temporary supply.

REMARKS.—This church has lost some valuable members by removals up town, and a good many by removals from the city. It is, however, a great satisfaction to believe that other churches, within and without the limits of this diocese, are strengthened by such accessions. We are a good deal discouraged by the absence of large numbers of our people throughout the summer and fall. A few years ago, a month or so would suffice for the longest vacation. Now, many of our people remain away for three and four months. Our congregations are reduced in size, and our contributions in amount, and our labours seriously interrupted in church and Sunday school, as well as in pastoral visiting.

REMARKS.—The Rector acknowledges the great kindness of his vestry and congregation, who furnished him the means and gave him leave to visit Europe during last summer, for the purpose of recruiting his health, a visit and a rest which now after he has overcome a serious illness during the winter, has no doubt contributed to his rapid and remarkable recovery.

The report shows, that in the mercy of God, the Church has not suffered during his absence—the Rev. Mr. Powers having been indefatigable in keeping up the services.

It will be seen, that a much larger sum was expended for the Church Homes this year than usually. This is owing to the fact that a large and suitable house has been bought for St Paul's Church Home for aged and infirm women, and a large portion of the price ($2,300) been paid at once. The Institution is now open, with about a dozen of inmates of the Home; and arrangement are made to enlarge the accommodations and facilities of its infirmary. The Church Home Orphan Asylum was never in a better condition.

Parochial Reports.

REMARKS.—The congregation has increased its salary one-half for the coming year. This church, during past year, through the efforts of the Rev. Frank Stringfellow, has purchased and very delightfully fixed up a valuable piece of property to be used as a rectory. A fine house and two and a half acres of land in centre of town.

ST. ANNE'S CHURCH, ST. PATRICK'S PARISH.

Rev. WELLINGTON E. WEBB, Rector.

Baptisms: white 2. Confirmations 2. Communicants: added 1, present number 10.

REMARKS.—The members of this congregation and by whom the church was built, were mostly emigrants from England, and those who may be said to have revived the ancient parish, have become non-residents. The services are therefore held at intervals less regular than formerly.

Services for colored people are held on the evening of the Rector's visit, and the attendance is large and encouraging.

In addition to the congregations here, he has a large colored school of over 120 pupils in Halifax county, near his residence, with Sunday-school and regular services. The particulars of the latter work appear in the report of Antrim Parish.

On the North Carolina border, on the edge of Halifax county, a congregation has been formed and a new chapel built, known as Cunningham's chapel, where services are held monthly to large and attentive congregations, including also services to the colored people.

At Scotsburg an acre of land has been procured for a church, and occasional services are held, to be increased in the near future.

There has been no report from this county since 1880. I have given Bloomfield Parish half my time each month since the 1st of last January, and it is to be hoped that it will soon have the entire services of some earnest, hard-working minister.

I found there January 1st, communicants 54; confirmed in April by Bishop Peterkin 8; present number 62.

Canon XII as Amended.

ADDENDA.

The Twelfth Canon was amended so as to read as follows :

CANON XII.

Of Mission Churches.

Section 1. When any number of persons belonging to any parish or congregation desire a separate and independent organization, but cannot comply with the requirements of the Canon in regard to the formation of new congregations, they may, until they are so able, proceed to organize a Mission Church, upon the following condition :

They must obtain the approval of the vestry of the Parish to which they belonged, and if there be two or more vestries in the Parish, they must have the consent of a majority of the same.

They must have the approval of the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese.

They may have their own vestry and officers, whose manner of election, and whose duties, shall be according to the provisions of these Canons in regard to the election and duties of other vestries, except that they shall have no representation in the Council of the Diocese, and shall not call a minister without the approval of the ecclesiastical authority.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the vestry of a church, organized under this Canon, to give notice of the same to the Secretary and Treasurer of the Diocese, and a list of mission churches so organized shall be published annually in the Journal.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia respectfully report : That the committee have given aid to thirty-three missionaries during the year. Of these, Rev. George Report Executive Committee Diocesan Missionary Society.

H. Appleton, after a brief but active and useful service in Stafford, Spotsylvania and Caroline counties, has gone as a missionary to China. Rev. B. T. Turner has removed from Mecklenburg to Nelson county, and is not receiving aid from this committee, and Rev. Robert F. Jackson was cut down shortly after the meeting of the last Council in the bloom and vigor of early manhood, and in the midst of his usefulness and promise, and doubtless transferred to a higher sphere of service by the Master. His place as rector of Christ church, Richmond, has been taken by Rev. Duncan McCulloh; but the parishes vacated by the removal of Rev. Messrs. Appleton and Turner still remain unoccupied. Rev. Green Shackelford also has removed from Brunswick, and taken charge of St. James' church, Ashland, and St. Mary's, Goochland. The new missionaries, aided by us, are Rev. J. Y. Downman, West Point and St. David's; Rev. Curtis Grubb, Hanover; Rev. Duncan McCulloh, Richmond; Rev. A. S. Lloyd, Prince Edward, Cumberland and Buckingham; and Rev. Alexander Overby, Williamsburg.

The number receiving aid from the committee at present is twenty-nine—viz.: Revs. E. Allanson, Manchester; P. F. Berkeley, Amelia; P. Brooke, Westmoreland; Giles B. Cooke, Petersburg; T. W. Cain, Richmond; J. H. Chesley, Newport's News, &c.; R. R. Claiborne, Madison; H. L. Derby, Lancaster, and Northumberland; J. Y. Downman, West Point and King William; E. L. Goodwin, Franklin; Curtis Grubb, Hanover; A. Y. Hundley, York; J. H. Hundley, Essex; J. R. Joyner, Louisa; W. W. Kimball, Campbell; W. C. Latané, Westmoreland; J. P. Lawrence, Amherst; A. S. Lloyd, Prince Edward; J. M. Meredith, Stafford and Prince William; D. McCulloh, Richmond city; Alexander Overby, Williamsburg; J. H. M. Pollard, Petersburg; C. C. Randolph, Botetourt; Green Shackelford, Ashland and Goochland; A. B. Tizzard, Chesterfield; S. S. Ware, Loudoun; W. W. Walker, Shenandoah; D. M. Wood, Charlotte.

The amounts paid these missionaries have ranged from $85 to $350 per annum, the average being $179, and the sum total $5,755, subject to some corrections, because some of the new missionaries have not been receiving their stipends for an entire year, and some of the old ones left before their year had expired. We have reason to believe from their quarterly reports that these missionaries are working faithfully and efficiently in their several fields of labor according to their ability and opportunity.

The committee regret to say that several parishes formerly aided by them are unoccupied at present, but the committee are prepared to help them as soon as a minister can be procured, and the people are willing to do what may reasonably be expected of them. They hope soon to have a supply for the churches in Spotsylvania, Stafford, and Caroline, and to start a new mission in Southwest Virginia.

They are happy also to report a state of entire harmony and cordial coöperation as existing between the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Mission Society, and the different convocations of the Diocese; and as an index of that feeling on the part of the committee, they would state, that at a called meeting in April, after hearing the reports of the members who had been delegated to attend the Southwestern and the Rappahannock Valley Convocations, it was recommended by the Bishop that hereafter delegates be sent by the committee to all the convocations, and that the convocations be invited to send delegates in turn to the meetings of the committee; and this will doubtless be done.

And now, dear brethren, in closing this report we desire to return thanks to Almighty God for all His goodness to us, and especially for having disposed the hearts of our people to liberal things, so that they have raised the $7,000 promised by the last Council, and enabled us to do our work without being hampered by want of means, and to respond to every proper demand made upon us. We are sure that no one regrets what he has given, and no one has been made poorer by it; that what we have done once we can continue to do, and that the blessing of God will rest upon us more and more richly, both in our spiritual and temporal affairs, as we open our hearts and our hands more and more in His service.

J. J. NORWOOD.

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D.D.:

I entered upon my duties as missionary of the Diocese of Virginia on the 1st of June, 1882. Much unfinished mission work demanded attention, which has, in a considerable degree, shaped my course during the whole year. Much which has been undertaken is still in an incomplete state.

In July I visited Southwest Virginia. I had also appointments for November, but learning that Mr. Norwood, our Evangelist, was about to visit that section, concluded it was best to go as soon as the winter opened, which I did, taking the line of the Norfolk and Western railroad to Saltville, and then on horseback through the counties of Russel, Scott, Lee and Wise. In the last three named counties I found one Episcopalian, who is about to move to another section of the State. I have also visited every part of the Diocese, and nearly all of the vacant churches in it. Some I have visited several times, as the case demanded. I have preached in more than eighty different places, and have therefore had opportunity of seeing something of the condition of the Diocese, and of observing the spirit of our own people and of other folds. I can say, with a feeling of certainty, that our own people are determined to keep open their churches, to hold all the ground now occupied and are also decidedly aggressive in every section of the Diocese.

Of other Christian bodies, I can say that wherever the Church has been carried, there has been a marked interest in it, a kind feeling manifested and repeated invitations to use their houses of worship and to visit them whenever possible. I believe that our Church is growing in favor with God and man.

I have visited 83 places, preached 272 times, administered baptism 26 times, administered Holy Communion 13 times, officiated at one marriage and five funerals, organized eleven Sunday Schools and nine Sewing Societies, started work on four rectories, aided seven churches and one colored school, raised twenty-nine salaries, and have collected in the Diocese $500 not reported through any other channel, besides more than $1,200 outside of the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK STRINGFELLOW,
Missionary-at-Large.

SAN MARINO, May 12, 1883.

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D.:

Rev. and Dear Bishop,—My regular work during the past year has been as follows—viz: Preached at Sapony Church, Dinwiddie, one Sunday every month; at the Grange Hall, Dinwiddie, one Sunday every month; at St. John's, Lunenburg, one Sunday every month; and during the Summer, one Sunday at Trinity, Brunswick, while their pastor was absent. The fifth Sundays I give to a new church near Major Neblett's, Brunswick. The Rev. J. Russell, having taken charge of the colored work near me, I deemed it best to labor with those who had no minister. In April last, I commenced to preach two Sundays in the month at St. John's Church, Lunenburg, under an engagement with the Vestry of Cumberland Parish.

Respectfully submitted,

E. B. JONES, Deacon.

HAMPTON, VA., May 2, 1883.

My Dear Bishop:

I beg leave to submit the following report of my work, as missionary, during the past year: Pastoral visits 100; sermons and addresses 101; administered Holy Communion twice. For the past six or eight months have assisted the Rev. Mr. Gravatt at evening prayer, besides holding other special services for him. In March I was invited to the rectorship of St. Peter's, New Kent. In April a vestry was elected in Warwick Parish, and I was asked to become their rector. This is an old Parish, but one of great interest and promise.

Very faithfully yours,

J. H. CHESLEY.

STAUNTON, VA., May 11th, 1883.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Bishop:

I have the honor and pleasure to submit to you this, my fourth annual report of mission work among the deaf and dumb. I have held services during the past year, in the Diocese of Virginia, in Staunton, Lynchburg, Richmond, Fredericksburg, Brandy, Warrenton, Petersburg, Portsmouth, Wytheville and Manchester. In addition to work done within the bounds of your Diocese, I have visited about twenty other Dioceses, having in view the spiritual welfare of my fellow-unfortunates. I have been greatly encouraged and sustained in my humble work. The support in the discharge of my duty as a minister to the deaf and dumb, has been derived from voluntary contributions and the contribution from our Virginia Diocesan Missionary Committee, for which I make grateful mention. This has enabled me to visit and hold service for many deaf mutes, but has not been sufficient to enable me to visit many sections destitute of religious advantages, and where there is great need for the Word of Life among my fellow-unfortunates.

Miscellaneous.

Deaf mute missionaries, laboring in the northwestern and northern Dioceses, are provided for by annual stipends from the Dioceses in which they labor, and contributions from the Committee of Domestic Missions of the Church in the United States, which regular and stated support enable them, without interruption, to visit and reach almost every deaf mute within their respective fields. If it seemeth good to you, I would respectfully ask your good offices to secure for me like support, to the end that I may so extend my work as to reach a larger number of deaf mutes.

My heart has been cheered and my spirit comforted by the comfortable assurances that my humble labors are blessed, and that I am an instrument in the hands of the Great Head of the Church in imparting some good to those who, by reason of their infirmity, are not accessible to the more fortunate portion of the ministry.

With great respect and esteem,

JOB TURNER,
Missionary to Deaf Mutes in the South.

ELECTIONS.

Rev. R. A. Goodwin, Mr. A. R. Pendleton,
Mr. D. M. Chichester.

Rev. T. G. Dashiell moved that the consideration of the interests of the Brotherhood be made the order of the day for to-morrow afternoon at half past four o'clock.

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. A. M. Smith presented the following memorial from the vestry of Leeds Parish, Fauquier county, and moved that its consideration be made the order of the day for to-morrow morning, immediately after the reading of the Bishop's Address :

Whereas, the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Virginia, in the Council of 1878, unanimously passed resolutions, offered by the Rev. J. B. Newton, condemning round dancing, and requesting ministers "to use every effort to arrest it by admonition and discipline;" and

Whereas, it is well known that a large number of those who passed these resolutions, and of those who ought to be governed by them practically disregard them, while others, in attempting to give them the respect and influence that their importance and serious character would seem to demand, find it very difficult, if not impracticable, to accomplish good results, and often meet with determined and demoralizing opposition even from conscientious church members; and

Whereas, the effect of these resolutions, thus respected or ignored, as each individual minister or layman may decide, has already been to give rise to serious antagonism between the minister and his congregation, and to continually threaten the harmony of pastoral relations, and impair the efficiency of some of our most conscientious clergymen and laymen, especially in otherwise quiet country parishes, where the said resolutions were expected to have best effect; therefore,

 Round Dancing.

Resolved, 1st, That we respectfully ask the Council of our Diocese to take such definite action with regard to these resolutions as shall leave no ground for dispute or difference of opinion as to their meaning and binding character, either passing a canon positively and unmistakably forbidding round dancing, or, at least, rescinding or qualifying these resolutions which, under the interpretation of some ministers, impose the extreme penalty of the laws, while they lack its sanction and authority, and which cannot appreciably check the most seductive practice at which they are aimed, but must often lead to offence and evasion.

Resolved, 2d, That our delegate be instructed to present these resolutions and preamble to the Council, which is to meet in Winchester May 21st, 1884.

HENRY C. STRIBLING, Secretary.

Rev. J. B. Newton moved to lay the subject on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was lost.

Rev. J. Peterkin, D. D., offered the following as a substitute :

Whereas, we are solemnly reminded in our baptismal service that "baptism representeth unto us our profession, which is to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and to be made like unto Him, that as he died and rose again for us, so should we who are baptized die from sin, and rise again unto righteousness, continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all virtue and godliness of living ;"

And whereas, any participation in practices and customs which are unfriendly to a godly life ought to be studiously avoided by every Christian ;

Therefore resolved, as the sense of this Council, that all members of the Church are bound to conduct themselves with sobriety and decorum, and give no countenance to any mode of life, or to any fashion, habit, occupation, or amusement that is inconsistent with a thorough personal consecration to the service of God.

Resolved, that this expression of opinion be appended to the Canons when published, and be printed also in every future number of the Journal.

Rev. H. B. Lee moved to refer the memorial and substitute to a committee of three clergymen and two laymen to report to-morrow, immediately after the Bishop's Address.

The motion was carried, and the following committee appointed :

Rev. C. J. Gibson, D. D.

Mr. William Nelson,

" O. A. Kinsolving, D. D.,

" George P. Tayloe,

Rev. C. Walker, D. D.

 Bishop's Report.

The visiting clergy and theological students were then, according to usual custom, invited by the Bishop to seats in the Council.

On motion, the Council adjourned.

THURSDAY, MAY 22, 1884.

The Council met at 9:30 A. M., and after divine service, conducted by the Rev. William M. Dame, of the Diocese of Maryland, and sermon by the Rt. Rev. George W. Peterkin, D. D., Bishop of West Virginia, was called to order by the Bishop.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

Rev. Green Shackelford, of the Committee on Credentials, presented the list of lay delegates entitled to seats in the Council. (See page 12.)

The following clergymen, absent at the session yesterday, appeared and took their seats :

Rev. O. S. Barten, D. D.,

“ P. Brooke,

“ D. C. T. Davis,

“ Curtis Grubb,

“ Frank Page,

Rev. J. J. Page,

“ J. H. M. Pollard,

“ E. C. Murdaugh, D. D.

“ F. Stringfellow,

“ C. J. S. Mayo,

Rev. R. R. Claiborne.

The Bishop then read his Annual Address.

REPORT OF BISHOP WHITTLE.

REV. AND DEAR BRETHREN :

Most cordially do I greet you, dear brethren of the clergy and of the laity, on your assembling in this Eighty-ninth Council of the Church in Virginia.

My first duty, after recording my heartfelt gratitude to the Father of mercies and the Giver of all good for innumerable blessings during the past year, is to assure you, as representing the Diocese, that I do most deeply feel, but cannot express, my very great obligations for all the kindness you have shown me for now more than sixteen years. The last Council granted me leave of absence, and supplied me with means (a large part of which, as the treasurer's report will show, has been returned) to go abroad for the purpose of recruiting my health, which, I am thankful to be able to say, has much improved; but I am bound to add, that experience has taught me that I cannot hereafter perform more than a moderate amount of labor, without speedily relapsing into my former disabled condition.

Having been absent from the country for five months, and the unusually inclement weather and bad roads during the Spring having obliged me to miss a number of appointments, I have not much work to report. But my lack of service has been supplied by Bishop Peterkin, of West Virginia, who very kindly devoted a considerable portion of his time to the Diocese, and by Bishop Randolph, the beloved and most acceptable brother, whom the last Council, guided undoubtedly by the Holy Spirit, elected to be my assistant, and who was consecrated to his arduous and responsible office in October last.

Total confirmed by Bishop Peterkin, at twenty-eight visitations, one hundred and twenty.

I have visited and confirmed as follows:

1883, December 9.—Emmanuel, Southampton, preached twice and confirmed seven. This new church, in the growing town of Franklin, then without a pastor, is now in charge of Rev. W. A. Alrich.

1884, January 27.—St. John's, Richmond, preached and confirmed five; which was a second class presented by the then Assistant Minister, Rev. F. M. Burch, the rector being disabled by sickness.

February 17.—Preached and confirmed in Grace, Alexandria, four; St. Paul's three; and Christ, five.

February 29.—Preached in St. John's Liberty, to a colored congregation, and confirmed one; and the next day, in the same church, preached and confirmed six.

March 2.—Confirmed sixteen in St. John's Roanoke, and eight in St. Paul's, Salem.

March 3.—Grace, Memorial, Lynchburg, confirmed five.

March 4.—Assisted by Rev. Messrs. Carson and Gregory, the rector, consecrated Christ Church, a neat little brick building, in a growing part of Lynchburg. Rev. J. H. Williams, by whose zeal and energy the house was built, preached the sermon. In the evening of the same day preached in St. Paul's Church, and confirmed fifteen.

March 5.—Epiphany, Lynchburg, also in charge of Rev. E. S. Gregory, confirmed five.

March 9.—Ascension, Amherst C. H., confirmed three.

March 11.—St. Paul's Appomattox, confirmed five.

To me this is one of the most attractive churches in the Diocese, being a simple log building, but neat and comfortable, and always having a good and attentive congregation.

March 12.—Johns Memorial, Farmville, confirmed seven. The Bishop's Report.

Rev. A. S. Lloyd, pastor of these two last churches in a new and difficult field, has much to encourage him. I was glad to find him comfortably fixed in a valuable and delightful rectory, which had been recently purchased.

March 17.—St. James', Ashland, confirmed thirteen. Here too I found Rev. Green Shackelford occupying a new and handsome rectory, and the prospects of the church better than ever before.

March 23.—Confirmed four in St. Andrew's, Mt. Jackson; and one in Emmanuel, Woodstock.

March 24.—Christ, Winchester, confirmed forty-one. I need not call attention to the alterations and improvements which have been recently made in this now beautiful building.

March 25.—St. Thomas, Middletown, confirmed one.

March 26.—Calvary, Front Royal, confirmed four.

March 27.—Meade Memorial, White Post, confirmed nine.

March 28.—Christ, Millwood, confirmed fifteen. Here again I was glad to see the rectory occupied as a comfortable home by Rev. C. B. Bryan, having been enlarged and repaired since my last visit.

March 30.—Grace, Berryville, confirmed twelve. Amongst other evidences of the prosperity of this growing parish, I found the church building considerably enlarged and greatly improved, so that it is now one of the large and most beautiful churches in the Diocese. During the month of March I was prevented by the state of the weather and roads from filling appointments in Amherst, Nottoway, and Hanover counties, and Harrisonburg.

April 1.—Assisted by Rev. P. P. Phillips, consecrated Christ Church, Luray, and confirmed two. This is a commodious and pretty frame building, erected chiefly by the efforts of Rev. John Ambler. It is without a pastor, Rev. Mr. Phillips and other ministers of the Valley convocation supplying the congregation with such services as they are able to give them.

April 6.—Preached in St. John's, Louisa.

April 7.—Grace, Albemarle, confirmed nine.

April 8.—St. Paul's, Albemarle, confirmed thirteen.

April 11.—St. Martin's, Hanover, confirmed four.

April 12.—Fork, Hanover, confirmed nine.

April 16.—Emmanuel, Madison, Amherst county, confirmed seven; and the next day, in Grace, Campbell, confirmed two. These churches are regularly ministered to by Rev. J. H. Williams, in addition to his labors as rector of Grace Memorial Church, Lynchburg.

Bishop's Report.

April 18.—Trinity, Campbell Courthouse, confirmed four.

April 19.—Castle Craig, Campbell county, confirmed two.

DEATHS.

It is my sad duty to report that three of our brethren of the clergy — all of them honored and beloved, have departed this life during the past year. Rev. Alexander W. Weddell, D. D., Rector of St. John's Church, Richmond, after an able and earnest ministry of thirteen and a half years, died December 6th, 1883, aged forty-two years.

Rev. Horace Stringfellow, who had been unable, because of age and infirmity, to exercise his ministry for several years, died, at his home in Ashland, December 26, 1883, in the eighty-fifth year of his age. Rev. James Horace Morrison, D. D., who had been in feeble and declining health for some time, died, Rector of St. James Church, Cumberland, March 19, 1884, in his seventy-third year.

I need not add to the eulogies which have been written of these brethren elsewhere. Enough to say that they were all men of more than ordinary ability, of deep and earnest piety, and that they labored faithfully as long as strength was given them, and at last "finished their course with joy, and the ministry which they had received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God." May we who are left be, like them, faithful unto death, that we, also, may receive the crown of life.

I report, as required by the Council, the following

It appears from the above, that while we have sixteen added to the number of our ministers, including Bishop Randolph, we have still gained none, sixteen also having been lost by deaths and removals so that the whole number remains as was reported last year. The Lord hath ordained—hath made it a law—that they who preach the gospel, shall also live of the gospel. And yet the large majority of the thirteen who have left the Diocese were impelled to go, not by a want of work—for the fields are every where waiting to be harvested—but because of the insufficiency of their salaries to furnish them a comfortable, or even decent support. And must this state of things exist, year after year, for ever? Must the Church in Virginia continue to furnish so many of her best men as laborers for heathen lands and for all parts of our great country, while the members of her own household of faith are left with none to carry to them the blessing of the gospel? I know that our people are greatly impoverished but may it not be owing in part to the fact that, having withheld the Lord more than was meet of the good things of this world which He entrusted to them as His stewards, it has tended to poverty. Would that we had the wisdom to devise some plan to induce laity to contribute more generally and more largely to the funds of our Missionary Society, and to give more generously of their temporal things to the pastors who laboriously and faithfully minister to them in spiritual things.

And this reminds me to recommend that the Evangelists be continued in their work of supplying, in large measure, the want of a sufficient number of settled ministers. Their reports will shew that they have been abundant in labors during the past year.

The last Council (Journal, pp. 59 and 91) authorized me to appoint a colored evangelist to the colored population, "for the purpose of employing a colored evangelist to the colored population." I did not understand the resolution as being mandatory, but as leaving the matter to my discretion. And while the work to be done amongst the colored people is as great, and important, and pressing as I have repeatedly represented it to be, the plan proposed for doing it did not come to my judgment as being expedient, nor did I know of any suitable person for the office, and therefore, no appointment has been made.

I regret that I overlooked, and consequently failed to comply with a resolution of the last Council, (Journal, page 90,) "that the Bishop of the Diocese be, and he is hereby, requested to appoint some day during the year on which all of the clergy of the Diocese are requested to preach on the subject of the Lord's day." In my opinion no subject of more importance can engage the attention of our clergy and people. "The Sabbath was made for man"—for his physical and temporal, and for his spiritual and eternal well-being, and upon its proper observance depends everything that we hold dear in our religious and social life, even the maintenance of Christianity in the world, with all its unspeakable blessings. Whoso offendeth in this one point will soon come to lightly esteem the law of God. It is indeed alarming to observe how the desecration of the Sabbath—the not remembering it to keep it holy—is becoming more and more common, not only on the part of corporations godless individuals, but by Christian people, as is seen in an increasing devotion of the Lord's day, or a large part of it, to traveling, visiting, idleness and pleasure-seeking, and in a growing neglect of public worship. Extensive and organized efforts are made to lower or destroy its sanctity, and to change it from a holy to a holiday, by teaching that it is a human and temporary, and not a divine and lasting institution. But whatever distinctions others may make between the Jewish Sabbath and the Christian Sunday, the Church, whose doctrine we are bound to hold and teach, requires her ministers to proclaim continually that the fourth commandment is of equal authority with the other nine commandments of the decalogue—that it is a part of the moral law of God obligatory upon all men for all time—and that it and they must all stand or fall together. It is to be hoped that, without any action of the Council, all our ministers feel constrained to teach and exhort the people committed to their charge how necessary it is to all their highest interests, for time and eternity, that they keep the Lord's day holy—i. e., that they sanctify and set it apart from all common uses, not doing their own ways, nor finding their own pleasure, nor speaking their own words, but devoting it, as far as possible, to His worship and service.

I would remind you that the last General Convention adopted many changes in our Book of Common Prayer, which are submitted to the several Dioceses for their approval or disapproval, and which will be rejected or finally ratified and made a part of the Book by the next Convention. I presume it will be your pleasure to refer these proposed changes to a committee, or to several committees, to report on their merits to the Council of next year or the year following. In the mean time it may not be amiss to remark that the rubrics and offices and services as adopted by the last General Convention are of no authority whatever, and that it is not lawful to introduce any of them on any regular occasion of public worship. But what has just been said does not apply to the Lectionary. A new Lectionary has been finally adopted, which, and not the one printed in our Prayer Books, is now the Lectionary of the Church.

The parochial and other reports will show that while there is great room for improvement in many things, the state of the Church in the Diocese is still such as to afford us abundant cause for gratitude and encouragement. May we all be henceforth more faithful, and may God, even our own God, continue to give us His blessing.

Assistant Bishop's Report.

Assistant Bishop Randolph not being present, the Secretary was instructed to cause his Address to be printed in the Journal.

REPORT OF BISHOP RANDOLPH.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY:

You will kindly understand the cause of my absence from this the first Council of the Diocese since my election as your Assistant Bishop. It would have been to me a most grateful duty and privilege to have greeted those who conferred upon me this mark of their highest confidence in selecting me for the office of the Episcopate in the Church of God. The Providence of God has ordered it otherwise, and I am detained from the Council by the serious illness of a member of my family. My brief experience in the work of the diocese, and my limited acquaintance with its needs and resources, will confine this report to a simple statement of the work accomplished since I entered upon duty. At the beginning of my work I recognized the blessing of God in removing a burden from my heart by the improvement in the health of the Bishop of the Diocese. His experience and his loving sympathy have been more than help and comfort to me in the discharge of my Episcopal duties. I was consecrated in my own beloved church, Emmanuel, Baltimore, on the 22d of October, 1883. The circumstances in which the congregation was placed by my resignation as rector of the church made it my duty to remain with them until the month of December. During this month I entered upon Episcopal duties in Virginia. The following is a report of the services held and the visitations in the Diocese up to the date of the Council.

Assistant Bishop's Report.

The church was begun May, 1882, and opened for worship May, 1883. It is a neat building, and accommodates, I suppose, one hundred and fifty persons. It was built mainly by the earnest efforts and self-sacrificing zeal of a few ladies who felt the great need of a place of worship, and persevered in their work until it was accomplished. This church, with St. John's at Columbia, would form a compact and most promising field of work. It is hoped and believed that every effort will be made by the two congregations to secure a minister and to give a comfortable support.

February 18th.—Visited Normal School at Hampton in company with Rev. J. J. Gravatt. I mention this to speak of the enthusiastic labors of Rev. Mr. Gravatt, the earnest Rector of St. John's, Hampton, among the negroes and Indians at the Normal School. I am sure his work will be blessed to both races.

February 19th and 20th.—Visited Princess Anne Chapel and Emmanuel Church, Kempsville. This Parish is without a Rector. The Sunday schools and lay reading, and the devotion of the people to their churches, are, to some extent, keeping the congregations together. But a regular ministry is greatly needed. The minister, to whom the field is assigned, will meet a warm welcome and cordial coöperation from earnest workers in both congregations.

December 9th, 1883.—I visited the mission and schools for colored people at Gordonsville, in charge of Mrs. B. Brent, and under the parochial charge of Rev. L. R. Combs, rector of Christ Church, Gordonsville.

March 2d, 1884.—Visited St. Stephen's Church for colored people, Petersburg, Rev. Giles B. Cooke, rector. I would earnestly commend the work of our church among the colored people, as represented by these two missions. I was impressed with the prudence, the Christian fidelity and enthusiasm with which these missions are conducted. The only remedy for adverse criticism and speculative skepticism as to the reality of this work of our Church among the colored people is the knowledge and the observation of the work itself where it is conducted with ability and Christian prudence. Every effort for the regeneration of races which have been for long centuries without the moral and spiritual education of the Gospel, must be attended with difficulties, and to a weak faith in the power of the Gospel, with discouragements, compared to missionary efforts in the foreign fields, among the negro and the oriental races, the discouragements are less and the hopes far brighter in the work of the moral and spiritual education of the negro population of our own country. Questions of organization and of the relation of these missions to the government of the Church can afford to wait.

The question of infinite importance is to win these souls to Christ, and to train them by the power of regenerating grace into moral and spiritual obedience to the ten commandments of God.

This work demands patience and unwavering faith. In my opinion the liturgy, the teaching and the training of the Episcopal Church are most effective for this great end. The people of Virginia will miss an opportunity for obeying Christ's command and securing the Divine blessing if they fail to contribute to this work among our colored population, and to pray for those who are engaged in it.

Several churches were visited, where owing to the vacancy of the Parish or recent Episcopal visitations there were no confirmations.

Interesting services were held in Berkeley Chapel, Norfolk, on the night of the 22d of February.

The Cabin Point Church was visited on the morning of the 13th of March. This and the Brandon Church are without a Rector.

It is encouraging to observe, as suggested by the condition of these two churches, that the fidelity of Christian women and the administrative ability of a layman may keep alive spiritually and financially parishes which are deprived of the regular ministry of the Church.

I was requested, by the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese of Maryland, to give to that Diocese two weeks of Episcopal service, from the 19th of April to the 5th of May. During the visitations in that Diocese I officiated at five ordinations, and confirmed three hundred and thirty-two persons, and consecrated one Church. My report of these services has been rendered to the standing committee of that Diocese.

I cannot close this brief report without an expression of gratification and hope at the spiritual earnestness among the people and the clergy of the churches which I have visited. Nor can I withhold the expression of my gratitude for the loving welcome and kind consideration to me personally from both people and clergy in this the first year of my Episcopate in Virginia. I thank God for giving me a field of life work among such a people.

Faithfully and affectionately,

A. M. RANDOLPH,
Assistant Bishop of Virginia.

Report of Committee on Round Dancing.

By unanimous consent Mr. L. M. Blackford offered the following, and moved that it be sent to Bishop Randolph by telegraph :

Whereas, intelligence has been received that the deeply regretted absence from this meeting of the Assistant Bishop is due to the serious illness of his eldest son,

Resolved, That this Council offer to Bishop Randolph assurances of profound sympathy in his trouble, and of their fervent prayers that his threatened bereavement may be averted.

Unanimously approved.

Rev. C. J. Gibson, D. D., from the committee to which was referred the memorial of Leeds Parish, and the substitute of the Rev. Dr. Peterkin therefor, presented the following report :

The committee to whom was referred the preamble and resolutions of Leeds Parish, Fauquier county, asking for "definite action" by the Council on the subject of "round dancing," together with the substitute for those resolutions, offered by the Rev. Dr. Peterkin, respectfully report, that in their opinion the serious evils complained of, and thus sought to be remedied, cannot be reached by further canonical legislation.

Our Bishops have, in their charges, most solemnly pointed out the iniquity of the practices which bring such a scandal upon our Church and upon the cause of our Redeemer. Our Councils have again and again seconded most emphatically our Bishop's admonitions. In the 19th Canon, and in the resolutions passed in the Council of 1878, the mind of the whole Church in this Diocese has been most plainly and emphatically expressed. Let our ministers be content to avail themselves of such expression, diligently setting forth God's true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administering His Holy Sacraments, and with faith and patience appeal to Him "who alone can order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men."

CHURCHILL J. GIBSON,
O. A. KINSOLVING,
C. WALKER,
WILLIAM NELSON,
GEORGE P. TAYLOE,

Committee.

Rev. H. B. Lee offered the following as a substitute for the report :

Whereas, at the Council of 1872 the following language was used by Bishop Johns, in his annual address, in speaking upon the subject of "round dancing" : "This scandal is not to be tolerated in the Church of Christ. Let every appeal be made, in the way of affectionate remonstrance, judicious teaching, and earnest prayer, for the reformation of those led astray 'God, peradventure, will give them repentance.' If all such efforts prove unavailing, and to remove the scandal and at the same time employ the la expedient for awakening the offender to a sense of his sin and danger becomes necessary to resort to the exercise of decided discipline, it must be so. It may cause the ministers many tears, but the painful duty must not be declined."

Report of Committee on Diocesan Missionary Society—Standing Committee.

And whereas, these words were approved by the Council then in session and again by the Council in 1878;

And whereas, there appears still to be in some places embarrassment and difficulty on the part of ministers in connection with the same practice;

Therefore resolved, that this Council does hereby reaffirm the solemn and positive language of Bishop Johns', as above quoted.

Mr. W. Nelson called for the previous question. The call being sustained, the vote was then taken on the resolution of Rev. H. J. Lee, which was lost. The report of the Committee was then voted upon and adopted.

Rev. K. Nelson, D. D., from the Committee on the Accounts of the Diocesan Missionary Society, reported the following:

The Committee on the Accounts of the Diocesan Missionary Society would respectfully submit that they have examined the report of the Treasurer, find it correct and sustained by proper vouchers. They would also state that the amount on hand at the beginning of the last year, was $2,148.42; collected during the year, $6,530.57; total, $8,678.99. Amount expended, $6,670.22; balance on hand, $2,008.77.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

KINLOCH NELSON, Chairman.

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary and High School beg leave to report that during the current session there have been in the Seminary Senior Class, 15; Middle Class, 10; Junior Class, 6; Preparatory Department, 10; total, 41.

The venerable Dean has been afflicted with severe sickness, but is now greatly improved and able to resume a portion of his duties, the other Professors cheerfully dividing among themselves the classes under the Dean's charge during his indisposition.

The High School continues unabated in its prosperity.

of the Theological Seminary of Virginia :

The Professor of Biblical learning would respectfully report that the classes under his instruction have pursued the prescribed course of study during the past session.

The Junior Class has given special attention to the Hebrew Grammar and exercises, and has read the usual amount of Hebrew. In the Greek Testament they have read the Gospel of John, and have written exegetical essays on the most important and difficult subjects in the gospels.

The Middle Class has read in the Hebrew the prophecies of Christ in the Old Testament, and selections from Isaiah, and in the Greek Testament the Epistles to the Romans and to the Hebrews. They have also read exegetical essays.

The Senior Class has kept up the study of the Hebrew language by reading select chapters from Isaiah; and in the Greek Testament they have studied the two Epistles to the Corinthians.

Theological Seminary.

During the time when I was obliged to suspend my duties from illness my colleagues kindly divided my recitations among them.

I am more and more persuaded that an exegetical and experimental knowledge of the Divine law should be sought first of all by candidates for the gospel ministry.

All which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE INSTRUCTOR OF THEOLOGY IN BRANCH SCHOOL, PETERSBURG.

*To the Board of Trustees,
of the Theological Seminary:*

There have been under my instructions during the present session sixteen students, four of whom entered school for the first time last October. The studies have been largely in academic subjects, and real though slow progress has been made. In the department of theological study instruction has been given in Bible History (Pinnock's Analysis), Bible Introduction (Nicoll's Help), Christian Evidences (Whately's Evidences, and Row's Reasons), and elementary instruction has been given in Dogmatic Theology, based on the Catechism and Articles, which have been committed to memory, briefly analysed, and scriptural references written out in full by the classes.

The deportment of the students has been excellent; and their bodily health better than last year.

Since the beginning of this month, my own health has not been good, and my physician has forbidden my teaching during this month, but I have been fortunate in securing the services of my friend. Dr. D. M. Brown, formerly Principal of Public Schools in Petersburg, who during my absence is effi-

ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT TO TRUSTEES (1884) FOR COUNCIL JOURNAL.

*Right Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., LL.D.,

RIGHT REV. AND DEAR SIR :—As principal of the Episcopal High School I have the honor to submit the following report :

The aggregate number of pupils admitted during the present session 113—more than ever before since the institution was founded, in 1839. The good health so long characteristic of the school was never more conspicuous. Two improved fire-escapes have been constructed to the dormitory. A porch costing about $135 has been added to the hall of the Blackford Society and a new building, entire, at a cost of some $900, for the (Randolph) Fair Society, has been erected. All of this, except about $450, (contributed by myself) raised by subscription among the boys and their friends.

The religious exercises and advantages of the school, with habitual reverent use of the church year, remain unchanged. Daily prayers, and regular Sunday afternoon lecture and evening service by myself in the school chapel, have been as before, with special sermons there from time to time from clergymen. Sunday mornings, and on the chief holy days, we attend the Seminary chapel. The Lenten season was emphasized by three evening services at home each week, though on all such attendance is voluntary. Mr. Wm. L. Gravatt, of the Seminary senior class, has continued to conduct the Friday night devotional meeting with greater efficiency, if possible, than during the two preceding sessions. The Rev. Dr. Nelson, too, has rather increased than abated the faithful pastoral care he has long extended, having continued at the school not only his occasional preaching Sunday nights, weekly services during Lent, and meetings with the boy communicants each month. To Mr. Gravatt and himself, as well as to the Rev. Dr. Wallcut, whose sermons at his old school are always so much prized, I am most grateful. Thirteen boys have been confirmed during the session, and the whole number of communicants (including three Presbyterians) is fifty.

I have the honor to be, sir,

Very respectfully yours,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPAL FUND.

The Committee on the Episcopal Fund beg leave to report that they have examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the same, and found them to be correct. During the past year there has been an addition of $400 to this fund, the market value of which now amounts to $6,559. The Committee respectfully recommend that the surplus of the Contingent Fund be added annually to the Episcopal Fund, until the latter shall yield an income sufficient both to pay the salary of the Bishop and to meet the other expenses of the Council.

The report was received and its recommendation referred to the Committee on Finance

Rev C. R. Hains, D. D., from the Committee on the Accounts of the Widows' and Orphan's Fund, reported the accounts correct, and sustained by proper vouchers.

Rev C. J. Gibson, D. D., presented the report of the Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphan's Fund:

The Board of Managers of the fund for the relief of the widows and orphans of the deceased clergy of the Diocese of Virginia report to the Council that the amount of the fund is now $24,267.42, a slight improvement in its condition as reported last year, the assets for 1883 being $23,879.29 a gain of $388.13.

There is also an improvement in the amount contributed by churches and individuals, being $815.33 this year, while last year it was only $627.81. The number of churches, however, who contribute anything to this fund remains the same—only sixty out of one hundred and ninety parishes and missions.

The number of our beneficiaries, we are sorry to say, has also increased, so that although the amount of distributable income was somewhat larger this year than the last, the sum remaining to be invested for the increase of the capital fund is smaller, being only $352.42. The Board distributed $2,335 to the families of fifteen deceased clergymen as follows:

To Mrs. Meredith, Mrs. Hoxton, Mrs. Weddell and Mrs. Steptoe, each $200; to Mrs. William H. Pendleton, $175; to Mrs. J. P. McGuire, Mrs. Caldwell, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Okeson, Mrs. Stringfellow, Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. Charles Walker, and the children of the Rev. Andrew Fisher, each $150; to Mrs. John Wingfield, $100; to Mrs. E. B. Guire, $60.

Report of Committee on Diocesan Division.

Thankful for the small amount of relief we have been enabled to give, the Board are constrained to urge much larger contributions for this important charity.

CHURCHILL J. GIBSON, Secretary.

Rev. W. Q. Hullihen, from the Committee appointed at the last Council to consider the subject of Diocesan division, offered the following :

Your Committee, appointed to consider the subject of the division of the Diocese, have had under consideration for the past year the important subject committed to them, but in the absence of the chairman of the committee, and other members, they are not prepared to make a full report at the Council, and therefore respectfully ask that they may be continued, with permission to report to the next Council.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER Q. HULLIHEN, for Committee.

The report was received, and the committee continued to the next Council.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey offered the following :

Resolved, That the Bishop, the Assistant Bishop, and five clergymen and three laymen (to be designated by the President of the Council) constitute a committee to whom shall be referred the alterations and amendments to the Book of Common Prayer, proposed by the General Convention in October last, and that said Committee make report thereupon to the Council at its next session.

The hour of adjournment being too near to allow of its discussion the resolution was laid upon the table temporarily.

Rev. T. G. Dashiell, D. D., moved that at eleven o'clock to-morrow business be suspended so as to allow the presentation of the claims of the Virginia Bible Society to the Council, and that a collection be then made in its behalf.

The motion was adopted.

The Council took recess until 4:30 P. M.

Report of Committee on Clerical Support.

Resolved, That this Council further recommend to superintendents and teachers of Sabbath Schools in this Diocese to invite their pupils to pledge themselves for twelve months, or a longer time, to abstain from all intoxicants.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Peterkin, the resolution was referred to the Committee on the State of the Church.

On motion, the Council adjourned.

MAY 23d, 1884.

The Council met at 9:30 A. M., and after divine service, and sermon by the Rev. H. Suter, was called to order by the Bishop.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The interests of the Brotherhood, on motion of Mr. W. N. Nelson, were made the order of the day when the Council resumes business after hearing addresses in behalf of the Virginia Bible Society.

The hour of eleven o'clock having arrived, the business of the Council was suspended, and addresses were made in behalf of the Virginia Bible Society by the Revs. H. M. Jackson and Green Shackelford. A collection was taken up after the addresses.

The following resolution, offered by the Rev. H. M. Jackson, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Council includes the Virginia Bible Society amongst the objects for which contributions are asked, and the clergy are requested to appropriate at least one offering each year thereto.

By unanimous consent Mr. R. T. Craighill presented the report of the Committee on Clerical Support:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CLERICAL SUPPORT.

Your Committee respectfully offer the following report:

There have been filed before your Committee 127 reports of treasurers of parishes, as against 128 last year.

 Report of Committee on Clerical Support.

According to these 110 churches have paid their ministers the salary promised, in full, as against 98 last year.

† This church had paid its Rector's house rent ($500), in addition to salary promised.

Report of Committee on Brotherhood.

Sixty-eight rectories are reported (72 last year), and a few slender efforts made, in a few instances, toward securing rectories. The only cases of this sort deemed worthy of mention here are: Trinity and Christ Churches, Mathews county, where, it is stated, $1,431.06 are on hand for the purpose of purchasing a rectory; and St. Paul's Church, Nansemond county, where, it is stated, "a lot has been purchased, and we will build at once."

There appear to be 88 churches in the Diocese whose treasurers have failed to make any report. Your Committee respectfully recommend to the Rectors and other Ministers in charge of congregations that another year they personally attend to this matter, since past experience seems to indicate that the treasurers of churches cannot be depended upon to do it. It is, in the judgment of your Committee, a matter of too much importance to be either neglected, or done in a slovenly manner.

Respectfully submitted,

The order of the day was then taken up, and

Mr. W. N. Nelson presented the report of the Committee on the Brotherhood:

Your committee beg leave to report that they have examined the statement of A. Y. Stokes, Esq., Treasurer of the General Fund of the Brotherhood, of his receipts and disbursements from the 16th day of May, 1883, to the 19th day of May, 1884. This statement has been examined by Messrs. G. A. Barksdale and Thomas Potts, and certified by them to be correct, and supported by proper vouchers. The statement shows a balance to the credit of the general fund on the 19th day of May, 1884, of $1,944.86.

The report of the Trustees of the General Fund, presented and signed by D. N. Walker, President, is also before your committee, and filed with this report. The trustees made no report as to the working of the system under the reduced mortuary fees. That plan has been in operation too short a time for your committee to recommend any change; but they are credibly informed that though the membership has increased the receipts have diminished. It is evident to the committee that there are many persons who, while they would be willing to contribute to the families of deceased clergymen, and recognise the duty of so doing, are unwilling to commit themselves to a continuing and uncertain contribution.

Your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1st. Resolved, That at the death of a clerical member entitled to participate, the Rector of each Parish of the Diocese be notified by the Trustees of the General Fund of such death, and be requested to take up collection on the Sunday following such notification, or, as soon thereafter as practicable, to supplement the funds paid by the members of the Brotherhood.

2d. Resolved, That the Council advise the Board of Corporators of the Brotherhood to adopt the following additional By-laws.

SECTION 10. In addition to the ordinary and life members, any person may become a member by assuming and paying the sum of $3.30 per annum, and no assessment shall be made upon such members.

SECTION 11. The accounts of the funds realized from members making annual payments shall be kept separate from the assessment accounts; and upon the death of a clerical member entitled to participate, payment shall be made out of said fund, to the party entitled, of a sum equal to one dollar for each member, making such annual payments in addition to the amount realized from assessment members; and parties already members, whether clergymen or laymen, may, with the consent of the Board of Incorporators change from assessment members to members paying the annual sum $3.30.

3d. Resolved, That with the approval of the Bishop the Board of Trustees of the Brotherhood be authorized to make arrangements with the evangelists of the Diocese for such assistance in their work not inconsistent with the other duties of the evangelists as may tend to the increase of the membership and income of the Brotherhood.

Your committee further recommend that the Council instruct its Secretary to have the act of incorporation of the Brotherhood printed in the Journal of the Council each year, and that he procure from the Secretary of the Brotherhood a copy of its Constitution and By laws as amended, and have the same printed in the Journal each year.

They further recommend that the Board of Trustees be requested to guard carefully the provision contained in the second clause of article second of the Constitution with regard to the admission of clerical member entitled to participate in the funds of the association.

The report was received and its resolutions adopted by the Council.

Rev. O. A. Kinsolving, D. D., presented the report of the Committee on New Parishes:

The Committee on New Parishes report that they have considered a petition from Zion Church, Truro Parish, Fairfax Courthouse, asking that Truro

Parish be divided by a line beginning on the Occoquan river, at the mouth of Wolf run ; thence running northwesterly to the Midland railroad, where the county road crosses, near the poorhouse ; thence by a direct line to the Little river turnpike, at Ox hill ; thence with the Ox road to the school-house ; thence easterly with the county road to the Difficult run ; thence down said run to the Potomac river, this part to be known under the name of "Truro Parish," and the part set off from it to be known as "Upper Truro Parish."

The requirements of the Canon having been complied with and no objection being made, the committee recommend that the said petition be granted.

In regard to the petition of the vestry of St. Paul's Church, Fredericksville Parish, Albemarle county, for the erection of a new parish, to be called "Ivy Parish," the committee cannot recommend that it be granted, as it does not appear that notice as required by Canon X has been duly given to the majority of the vestries of St. Ann's and Fredericksville Parishes, in said county, and objection was made by Greenwood Parish because of a misunderstanding in regard to the metes and bounds of said parish at the time consent was given to the proposed new organization.

O. A. KINSOLVING, Chairman.

The report was received and its recommendations adopted.

Rev. O. A. Kinsolving, D. D., was called to the chair by the Bishop, who retired from the Council.

Rev. T. G. Dashiell, D. D., offered the following :

Whereas, the next Council of this Diocese will assemble in the centennial year of the organization of the Church in Virginia, after the Revolution, therefore,

Resolved, That five clergymen and six laymen shall be appointed by the Chair, who, together with the Bishop and Assistant Bishop of the Diocese, shall be a committee to make such arrangements as may be deemed advisable in connection with special services at that time.

Resolved, That this committee have full power to make a programme for the occasion, and that they be requested to prepare and publish the same at least thirty days before the meeting of the Council.

The resolutions were adopted.

Revs. J. H. M. Pollard and T. W. Cain, colored members of the Council, jointly offered the following :

Resolutions—Report of Committee on Finance.

Whereas, the Council of the Diocese of Virginia, for the last two or three years, has expressed itself definitely with regard to the spiritual advancement of the interest of the Church among the colored people, and

Whereas, this interest has had such beneficial results in the moral and religious elevation of the colored people throughout the Diocese of Virginia; that the number of communicants has been greatly increased, therefore be

Resolved, That this Council earnestly recommend that the clergy of the Diocese of Virginia, will, whenever practicable, give one service to the colored people in each month, and that they will encourage the laymen to organize Sunday Schools for the religious instruction of the said people in their parish.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey presented the report of the Committee on Finance:

The Committee on Finance respectfully report that they have examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese and find them correct and sustained by proper vouchers.

They recommend that the Treasurer be authorized to pay the salaries of the Bishop, Assistant Bishop, Secretary, Evangelists, Chaplains, Historiographer and their expenses, including the amount allowed for rent to the Assistant Bishop, and the further sum of fifty dollars to the Assistant Secretary and fifteen dollars to the sexton of Christ Church, Winchester.

It is proper that your Committee should call the attention of the Council to the financial condition of the Diocese. On the 1st day of May, 1882, the amount to the credit of the Treasurer in the State Bank of Virginia was $2,389.47: on the 1st day of May, 1883, the amount to credit was $4,456.22, while on the 1st day of May, 1884, as shown by the Treasurer's last Report the amount in money to the credit of the Treasurer in said bank was $974.78. He also holds in United States 4 per cent. bonds, $2,600, and a bond for a lot in Hollywood Cemetery for $200. There were, it is true, peculiar charges of expense during the past year, including those connected with the General Convention and some other extra expenses. But apart from these the Committee desires to call the attention of the Council to the Receipts of the Contingent Fund for two or three years and the delinquent arrearages connected there. In the Treasurer's Report of 1882, these arrearages were shown to amount to $10,147.95. With a communicant list of upwards of 13,000 which ought to yield receipts amounting to $13,000 at least, the Report of 1882, showed receipts up to June 13, 1882, amounting only to $9,002.22. The Report of 1883 shows receipts from all sources, including current assessments and arrearages paid up to the 13th day of June, 1883, amounting to only $9,550.60, the collections after this date, in each year, June 13th, did not exceed $300. Now the charges against the Diocese independent of these of the General Convention year, are as follows:

Salaries of Bishops.....	$7,000
Traveling expenses and rent, say.....	1,000
Salaries of Secretary, Chaplain, Historiographer and Evangelists.....	2,800
Traveling expenses of Evangelists, Chaplains, &c., say..	300
Total.....	$11,100

Now, almost the only income of the Diocese to meet this annual charge is derived from the contributions to the contingent fund at the rate of $1 for each communicant. But, inasmuch as the actual receipts fall short of the above amount of approximate expenses—not including many necessary incidental expenses—it is apparent, that measures should be adopted to secure the payment of the quota assessments from all the parishes and churches. If these were fully paid, the income of the Diocese would be ample. If, however, the churches, in default, continue so, and increase, from year to year, the amounts of arrearages due from them, then it is clear, that the congregations or parishes which do and will pay, must meet the liabilities of those who do not pay. It is hardly conceivable that any large number of communicants are so poor, that with proper warning, exhortation and effort, vestries cannot secure from each the small sum of $1. But granting that there are necessary defaults in each parish and congregation; then the rule acted on by many vestries, should be recognized as binding upon all, that is to say, that each parish or congregation make up the deficiencies of its own membership. The Committee earnestly advise and recommend that the parishes and congregations, which are now in arrear, on Contingent Fund account, use their most strenuous exertions to pay, at least, a part of what is overdue from them, and in future to allow no such accumulations of indebtedness to the Fund, which, if continued, threaten serious embarrassment, in the near future, to the finances of the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

HUGH W. SHEFFEY.

The Committee on Finance recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Council duly appreciates the motives of the Bishop in desiring to return the money appropriated by the Council, it is believed with the cordial approval of the whole Diocese, for the purpose of defraying his expenses in Europe, respectfully and earnestly request the Bishop to forbear making any further payments to the Treasurer on this account, and that the Treasurer be instructed to refund to the Bishop the amounts already paid into the treasury by him.

HUGH W. SHEFFEY, Chairman.

Report of Committee on the State of the Church.

The report was received, its recommendations approved and accompanying resolution unanimously adopted.

The Committee asked to be discharged from the consideration the report made by the Committee on the Episcopal Fund. The request was granted.

Mr. Eugene Davis moved that the next meeting of the Council held at Christ Church, Charlottesville.

Rev. H. Suter moved to substitute Alexandria.

Mr. R. T. Craighill moved to substitute Lynchburg. The motion was lost.

Rev. T. G. Dashiell, D. D., moved to substitute Richmond. The motion was carried.

Rev. H. Suter presented the report of the Committee on the State of the Church :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee on the State of the Church have given good heed to the facts brought before them in the reports made to the Council from the several parishes of the diocese.

Their judgment of the condition, financial and numerical, of the church in Virginia must be based on the information coming from the cities, towns and rural districts.

While, however, we are thus enabled to find and state material as to numerical progress or decline, we need not, and should not, fail to note that in these facts, whether favorable or unfavorable, we have signs of the spiritual life of the church. "By their fruits ye shall know them." The liberal desireth liberal things; the bountiful hand shows the grateful heart—a sign, too, of that stewardship which the Scriptures teach to be the relation of all. Looking at the amount contributed during the year and in comparison with that of last year, we find an increase of $24,000—a sum sufficiently large to sustain the pleasant conviction that the grace of giving is growing.

If it be true that through the material we can and should judge of the spiritual state of the Church, it is also true that we may judge of the same by the success of ministerial work done for the ingathering of souls—the trophies of the grace of our ascended Lord.

Times of spiritual depression are indicated by the results of the Gospel ministry. If the ingathering be small, the cause is in the state of the Church.

Report of Committee on the State of the Church.

itself. If its light shine but dimly, few will be attracted to it. If it have only a name to live, its power to impress will not be strong.

In judging, however, of the results of the past year in the light of the numbers reported, necessarily less by reason of the enforced absence in foreign lands of our beloved Bishop seeking health, we must ever bear in mind that the Church in Virginia does not hold its gains. The attractions of localities more favorable, in fact or seemingly, for success in life draw away many. These, while lost to us, are not lost to the cause.

The godly doctrine and discipline of the old home are borne as seed to other places, and bear fruit there.

It is in this way that many parishes in our Diocese have an influence wider than their own borders, and may be credited with a work which does not appear upon their records.

Your committee need hardly say that for the finding of the conditions named—as the signs of spiritual life are needed—a weanedness from the world, which is content to deny itself for the Master's sake, and that earnest sympathy for the race which leads to prayer and deed for its highest well-being.

To secure the first, we need more and more to feel the bonds of our consecration to the service of our blessed Lord. To secure the latter, we must seek and find more of the spirit of Him who came to seek and to save the lost.

With these two graces had, need for special appeals from authorities and councils would die, and in their growth we are well assured lies the secret of successful restraint—and only there.

As a real and effectual guard against the spirit of unbelief, which is so widely spread, we deem nothing better for our people than a careful and prayerful study of those Scriptures, which are so full of a Divine witness to their origin, and whose power for good is felt by every one who makes them—as one of old—a meditation both day and night.

But not only a guard against theoretical unbelief do we deem the right study of the Scriptures to be, but also a defence against those corruptions of doctrine which mar the simplicity of the faith as it is in Jesus, and hinder the progress of our Zion. "The entrance" of God's word "giveth light;" it giveth understanding to the simple.

In reference to the resolution submitted to us, and whose purpose is to secure, through superintendents and teachers, a pledge of total abstinence from Sunday school scholars, your committee, while fully conscious of the great evil sought to be remedied, are not prepared to recommend the adoption of the resolution.

Respectfully submitted,

H. SUTER,
J. B. NEWTON,
J. H. WILLIAMS,

Historiographer's Report.

Rev. C. J. Gibson, D. D., read the Historiographer's report.

HISTORIOGRAPHER'S REPORT.

Besides the Church Records which I have formerly reported as having been found by me, and deposited in the Library at the Seminary, I have, during the current ecclesiastical year, gotten into possession several more valuable documents. One of these is the old Vestry Book of Truro Parish which extended along the Potomac to the Blue Ridge, and thence to Ashby's Gap, then known as the "Indian thoroughfare of the Blue Mountains." This Record is specially interesting as containing the proceedings of the Vestry, when such men as George Washington, George Mason, and George Wm. Fairfax, were active members of it. This is the Book of which Bishop Meade said he could never hear.

It cost me some time and negotiation and some money to get hold of it. I had to be weary in the negotiation as there is no person or corporation competent to recover such documents by any process of law. The party in possession could not be dispossessed but by his own will, and he behaved very well about it, seeing it had been an heir-loom in the family, perhaps, for more than half a century, and I thought that in the peculiar circumstances (what, it is not necessary to explain), he was entitled to the consideration in money, which I cheerfully gave him out of my own pocket, and for which I alone, am responsible. I hope I will find some one who will esteem it a privilege to have this interesting Record printed for the Church, after which the original will be deposited in the Library at the Seminary. The other is a Register of St. Mark's Parish in Mr. Woodville's time, (beginning in 1794). It was carried off by Federal soldiers during the war, and having come to the knowledge of Col. Green, U. S. A., he gave it to Dr. Smith, of Philadelphia, and from him, through Dr. Peterkin, it has come into my hands.

During the current year I have written a popular Memoir of Bishop Meade, in response to a courteous call from the Historical Society of Massachusetts. In my own experience endorsed by two of our oldest Presbyters, I thought I could not better spend a part of my time than in aiding these literary gentlemen of Boston in their patriotic design to revive the memory of one to whom this Diocese and the whole Church is so much indebted. It is as well to say that this work being done in my capacity of Historiographer, is gratuitous and a labor of love.

In response to a resolution of the Council, I herewith submit a list of the parishes of this Diocese and of the separate congregations in each parish having the right of representation in Council. It is as near an approximation to accuracy as I could attain under the circumstances. The difficulty of being perfectly accurate arises from the careless legislation upon the admission of new parishes, and the consequent conflict of statements in the Journals which it is hard to reconcile.

In face of the positive law that new parishes shall not be admitted unless their metes and bounds are specified and put upon the Journals, there is no such record to be found in the Journals as to many of these parishes.

Again, a new Parish has sometimes been instituted by one Council, and appears in the very next Journal as a Church in the old Parish, from which it was cut off, as in the case of Greenwood and St. Paul's in Albemarle. Boyden Parish, in Augusta, was established, and reappears in the Journal as Boyden Chapel. Charles, one of the oldest parishes in the State, has dropped out of the lists, because it happened for some years not to be represented; and its very interesting records have been deposited in the library as the records of York-Hampton Parish, in the same county, and were supposed to be such, until, upon personal examination, I found them to be the records not of York-Hampton, but of Charles Parish; and that eminent jurist, the late Conway Robinson, to whom I showed them, was so much interested in them, that he asked permission to have the book copied under his own eye, which has been done, and his son is now comparing it with the original.

Once more. Bromfield Parish, which covers what is now the counties of Madison and Rappahannock, was instituted in 1752, and after appearing in the Journal for seventy-five years by its right name comes out as Bloomfield Parish, and was even spoken of by Bishop Meade as "Old Bloomfield" Parish.

Rev. W. B. Lee and Mr. Claiborne, who represented that part of the Parish which is in Madison, a few years ago, at my instance, restored the right name, Bromfield; but in Rappahannock it continued to be called Bloomfield; so that for some years we have had on the Journals Bromfield Parish, Madison, and Bloomfield Parish, Rappahannock, and yet they are one and the same Parish.

I only descend to such details to give some idea of the difficulty of keeping things in a historical form. Some people despise details, but they are vital to history as atoms are to a world. The old question, "Is it not a little one?" applies here with force.

I would respectfully suggest that as one step towards remedying these evils, it might be well to have the committee on new parishes composed of several of the same persons every year, who thus become familiar with the subject, and if they should also be persons who were not superior to details there might be a better chance of avoiding all this conflict and confusion, which is fatal to the truth of history.

P. SLAUGHTER.

Judge Sheffey, on behalf of the Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute, presented the following:

REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF VIRGINIA FEMALE INSTITUTE.

The Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute respectfully report to the Council that they have received from the Board of Directors, and from Mrs.

 Report of Trustees of Virginia Female Institute.

Stuart, the Principal of the Institute, their annual reports, from which the Trustees derive the gratifying information that the indebtedness of the Institute has been satisfactorily adjusted and secured as directed by the Trustees—that the interest on the existing debt is provided for—that no increase of the debt can reasonably be expected, and that, as the result of the present arrangements for the conduct of the school and the increase of its proper means, in the near future, will be at the command of the Trustees to create and ultimately extinguish the debt, and to preserve this most valuable property to the Church.

The Trustees have learned with gratification of the marked increase in the number of boarding pupils. At this time last year there were thirty-one, now there are fifty-one. Last year there were but nine from the Diocese of Virginia, now there are nineteen, fifteen other States being represented by pupils in the Institute, “thus,” as Mrs. Stuart says in her report, “showing, I think, an increasing interest and confidence in the school, and causing me to feel that the arduous work of three years past is yielding good results.” The health of the pupils has been exceptionably good. Mr. Stuart says: “The health of my pupils throughout the entire session has been excellent, no case of sickness having occurred to require the use of the infirmary for a single day.” At this time, when tendencies to disease are spreading over the country, it is pleasing to know that the long-established reputation of the Institute for healthfulness continues. The mode in which the buildings are warmed, and the abundant supply of pure water, doubtless contribute to the results stated; but these results are assured by the increasing watchfulness and care exercised by Mrs. Stuart and her assistants over the pupils.

The Trustees take pleasure in conveying to the Council an expression of their own sentiments, the substance of part of the report of the Board of Directors. The report states that “the Board with increased confidence and assurance renews to the Trustees the statement contained in a former report: That they know Mrs. Stuart to be thoroughly competent for her position, and eminently successful as Principal of the Institute. She possesses unusual administrative ability. In the management of the Institute judgment and economy are admirably blended, and in the government of the pupils firmness and maternal gentleness meet and temper each other. The Trustees quote another brief passage from Mrs. Stuart’s report. She says: “The moral advancement of all is notable, and encourages me to continue my unceasing watchfulness and firm discipline.”

Every year at his visitations the Bishop is called upon to lay his hands upon a number of the pupils of the Institute in confirmation. This year the class was ready for the sacred rite, but owing to the sickness of his son the assistant Bishop could not come, and so the renewal of their baptismal vow by those ready for the ordinance, has been postponed for a brief period. The Trustees send to the Council the expression of views and opinion heretofore communicated to it—that they commend the Institute to the pa-ronage and confidence of the Diocese, with the belief that if well sustained this Diocesan Institution will not only steadily contribute to the increase of godliness in the Church and to its growth and prosperity—not only continue to swell the number of well-educated, thoroughly refined and accomplished young women in our Southern country—but will in due time enable the Trustees to provide, in whole or in large part, for the education of the daughters of Virginia clergymen and others entitled to the assistance of the Church. This great object the Trustees keep steadily in view, and they believe it will be attained.

HUGH W. SHEFFEY, Secretary.

The Bishop laid before the Council a list of parishes in the Diocese entitled to lay representation, furnished by the Historiographer in response to a resolution of a previous Council. The list was ordered to be printed as an appendix to the Journal.

The Bishop laid before the Council a communication from the Secretary of the General Convention, which was referred to the Committee on the Prayer-Book.

The Bishop announced the following Committee on the Centennial Celebration at next Council:

The Council then took recess to 4:30 P. M.

Resolved, That 1,500 copies of the Council be printed for distribution.

The report of the Secretary of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society was then read:

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, MAY, 1884.

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia respectfully report that forty missionaries have received aid from the committee during the year which has intervened since the Council of 1883, the large number being due in part to the withdrawal of some from our support during the year, but more to the new applications for aid which have been granted. Rev. W. W. Walker has removed from Beckford Parish, Shenandoah county, to Ohio, and his place has been supplied by Rev. James V. Shields, formerly of Brandon Parish, Prince George. Rev. J. H. Chesley, in charge of Newport's News and St. Peter's Church, New Kent county, has removed to Maryland. Rev. A. Y. Hundley has resigned the charge of Grace Church, Yorktown. Rev. E. Allanson, of Meade Memorial Church, Manchester, has gone back to England, and his place in Manchester has been supplied by Rev. J. J. Clopton, formerly assistant minister of Grace Church, Petersburg. Rev. John R. Joyner has resigned the charge of the churches in Gordonsville and Louisa Courthouse, and his place has been taken by Rev. L. R. Combs. Rev. P. F. Berkeley has been placed on the list of disabled clergy, and of course the application for aid to him from the committee was not renewed. Rev. J. H. Morrison was also placed on the list of disabled clergy, but died on the 19th of March, 1884, after a long life of earnest and faithful work in the ministry. Rev. J. H. M. Pollard has resigned his position as assistant in St. Stephen's school, Petersburg, and is now doing mission work among the colored people in Norfolk; and Rev. D. M. Wood has removed from Cornwall Parish, Charlotte county, to Roanoke, Roanoke county. The new missionaries aided by us are Rev. Messrs. David May, Goshen, Rockbridge county; B. Dennis, Pulaski; James B. Funsten, Bristol, Tenn.; G. M. Funsten, Stafford; A. J. Willis, Northumberland; G. W. Phelps, Greensville; L. R. Combs, Gordonsville; James W. Shields, Shenandoah; W. B. Everett, Charles City; H. M. Jarvis, Scottsville; J. J. Clopton, Manchester.

There are now thirty-two missionaries receiving aid from the committee, viz: Rev. Messrs. P. Brooke, Westmoreland; T. W. Cain, Richmond; R. R. Claiborne, Culpeper; J. J. Clopton, Manchester; L. R. Combs, Gordonsville; G. B. Cooke, Petersburg; B. Dennis, Pulaski; H. L. Derby, Lancaster; J. Y. Downman, West Point; W. B. Everett, Charles City; G. M. Funsten, Stafford; J. B. Funsten, Bristol, Tenn.; E. L. Goodwin, Franklin; Curtis Grubb, Hanover; J. H. Hundley, Essex; H. M. Jarvis, Scottsville; W. W. Kimball, Campbell; J. P. Lawrence, Amherst; W. C. Latané, Westmoreland; A. S. Lloyd, Farmville; T. E. Locke, Albemarle; David May, Rockbridge; D. McCulloh, Richmond; J. M. Meredith, Stafford; Alex. Overby, Williamsburg; J. H. M. Pollard, Norfolk; G. W. Phelps, Greensville; C. C. Randolph, Botetourt; Green Shackelford, Ashland; James W. Shields, Shenandoah; A. B. Tizzard, Chesterfield; S. S. Ware, Loudoun; and A. J. Willis, Northumberland.

The appropriations to these missionaries range from $85 to $350 per annum, averaging $169 and aggregating $5,430. To this must be added the partial stipends paid to the nine missionaries whose appropriations ceased during the year by resignation or other causes. There are also standing appropriations to the counties of Mecklenburg, Brunswick, Fairfax, Loudon and Spotsylvania, to go into effect as soon as ministers are procured.

The reports of the missionaries and the general aspect of the work throughout the Diocese, indicate life, activity, and earnestness. In some places, the people may not be doing as much as they are able to do, but there is no question that some of our country parishes are stationary in their financial ability or getting poorer by death and removals, and must be helped or they will die out. These old parishes are not going to be depopulated. The old people are passing away, but new people are coming in with more or less rapidity, and these new-comers must be brought into the Church; but it will take time, patience and faith to do it. Meanwhile we must stand by the self-denying ministers and the few faithful laymen and laywomen who are keeping alive, in these waste places, the light of divine truth as this Church has received the same; and besides, in most of these old or weak parishes, there is abundant material for mission work among the colored people. New fields also are opening, especially in southwest Virginia, and we must enter in and occupy these fields. Our policy is, wherever there are any sheep of this fold, there to put a shepherd if we can; wherever there is an opening in some new field to hold forth the light of divine truth as this Church has received it, there to let our light shine, even though other lights be there before us, satisfied that many will prefer to come to us, and that those who do not will probably be helped and benefited by us.

While in some places there is stagnation, and in some declension in population and prosperity, yet in the Diocese as a whole there has been a decided advance in both; and the Church in Virginia is to-day more able to do mission work than it ever has been, yet we have not come up to the measure of our last year's contributions—we have not given one cent a week per head, nor an aggregate of $7,000 for the year, and we are about to enter upon the Summer, when the contributions are always small, and when the missionaries have to be paid as much as at other times, for, with most of them, it is the chief season for work, with a much smaller balance than we had last year.

There is one place vacant in our committee and in our Council to-day which was worthily and zealously filled for many years—one voice silent, whose trumpet call of "a penny a week" stirred the Diocese to its depths two years ago. One earnest, faithful man, whose heart was devoted to this work, has gone to his reward since our last annual meeting—Rev. Alex. W. Weddell, D. D., of St. John's Church, Richmond.

The last meeting of the Executive Committee which he attended was the monthly meeting of November 5th, 1883, to which he was brought in a carriage by a friend, and staid only long enough to get through two appropriations on which his heart was set, one for his old Parish in Shenandoah, and one for colored work in Norfolk. On the 6th of December following he fell asleep, called, as we believe, to higher work above. Can we better show our loving memory of our departed brother, and our devotion to the cause of his Master and ours, than by carrying out the plan of "a penny a week," or, if need be, two pennies a week, to sustain and extend the cause of Christ and his Church throughout the Diocese?

In conclusion, we desire to bring before the Council a suggestion presented to the committee by Rev. G. W. Dame, of Danville, as to the expediency of inaugurating a method of supplying weak parishes by some system of itineracy or combination. There are difficulties connected with the subject, but we think it one which deserves the serious consideration of the Council.

Respectfully submitted,

PIKE POWERS,
Secretary Diocesan Missionary Society.

Rev. Frank Page offered the following:

Resolved, That a committee of three clergymen and two laymen be appointed to consider and report to the next Council upon the expediency and practicability of the plan suggested by the Rev. Dr. Dame, whereby feeble parishes can in certain places, be combined for ministerial support, and the missionary treasury of the Diocese to that extent relieved.

The resolution was adopted.

Rev. Thomas Spencer, from the Committee on Sunday Schools, presented the report.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Committee on Sunday Schools, appointed at the last Council, beg leave to offer their report. They conceived that their first duty was to inform themselves of the condition, work, needs and prospects of the Sunday Schools throughout the Diocese. To this end they prepared and sent forth to the clergy of the Diocese a paper of questions, asking for information on these matters, and inviting suggestions from the clergy and Sunday School Superintendents. About seventy replies were received—double that number of papers being sent out. Among those who made no reply were the Rectors of many of the most prominent parishes in the Diocese. The committee regret that they did not receive, and cannot present to the Council the wealth of wise suggestion which those in charge of the important Sunday School work in these parishes were so competent to offer. When it is mentioned that among the parishes that have failed to report are—St. Paul's, Alexandria; Christ, Charlottesville; St. James, Leesburg; St. Paul's and Grace, Lynchburg; Epiphany, Danville; Trinity, Fredericksburg; Monumental and Christ, Richmond; Christ and St. Paul's, Norfolk; Trinity, Staunton; and Christ, Winchester—the Council will perceive how much the committee lose by the failure of these parishes to respond to their appeal. With not more than about half our Sunday Schools heard from, the committee are not able to present to the Council such statistics as they had hoped. From such reports as have been received, it appears that our Sunday School work is conducted mainly by unmarried teachers, and that of these by far the larger number are females. There is everywhere a lack of young men for this work, and particularly in the cities a failure on the part of heads of families to participate in it. We note also, in respect to the scholars, that comparatively few remain in our schools after they reach the age of sixteen. Far more scholars are reported as under eight years of age than as above sixteen. Until they reach the age of sixteen, there are nearly as many males among our scholars as there are females. Beyond that age, the number of males is greatly below that of the females. There is evident need of special effort to retain in our Sunday Schools the grown boys.

 Memorial Committee.

In response to the question asked by the Committee, "What are greatest needs of your Sunday Schools?" there have come many answers but none more frequent than this: "We need teachers, not so much more teachers, but better teachers—teachers prepared for that work by sound judgment, deep piety, and large scriptural knowledge." How to supply that need is the present pressing question in our Sunday School work. The Spirit of God alone can give us the pious teachers we need, and in judgment, our clergy should take heed that they call to this work none of those who seem to be qualified for that work by piety. Advanced Bible classes for grown scholars, may furnish a supply of intelligently prepared teachers. Beyond this we make no further recommendation at present, choosing rather to wait until our wise and experienced brethren, from whom we have not heard, shall aid us with their suggestions.

Meantime the Committee will be glad to aid, by advice and counsel, attempt at organizing or reviving Sunday School work within the Diocese and to disburse such material aid as the friends of the work may entrust to their stewardship.

THOMAS SPENCER,
On behalf of the Committee

Mr. Joseph Bryan moved to reconsider the resolution of Rev. J. B. Newton, in reference to the Centennial.

The motion to reconsider was adopted.

Mr. Joseph Bryan offered the following as a substitute, which was accepted by Rev. J. B. Newton and agreed to by the Council:

Parochial Reports.

REMARKS.—For five months of the past year the Rector was laid aside. His place was supplied by assistance, as it could be procured, at the expense of the congregation, while his salary was generously continued. This accounts for the increased amount of "regular expenses." Besides the teachers and scholars of the Sunday School taught at the church, some sixty or seventy more children, white and colored, are taught by members of the congregation at their respective homes, or in their vicinity.

REMARKS.—This Parish, in subscription and money, has raised little over $500 for a rectory; besides, two acres of land have been given for that purpose. Under the Church of The Good Shepherd should be noted the mission at Lynch's Station. Our members there have subscribed nearly $700 for a Church building. This work must be fostered if this Parish is ever to be made a success. Lynch's is the largest village in the Parish, and the prospect for our Church there is very encouraging.

REMARKS.—In this is included the report of our mission work at Rappahannock Station. The Church building, which is so far completed as to enable us to occupy it (when the pews which are now being made are finished) during the Summer, is church-like and roomy. We have thus far expended some $1,400 on the building. There are nine or ten acres of land attached to and adjoining the Church. The work seems to promise well.

REMARKS.—As the Rev. Lewis Wm. Burton only took charge of the church on the 13th of April, this report is made out by the register. During the past year our late Rector's sickness continued, and finally terminated on the 6th of December, 1883. The Rev. F. M. Burch's services as assistant to the Rev. Alexander W. Weddell were secured, and he entered on his duties on the 15th of June last, and after the death of the rector remained as minister in charge until the 1st of April. Owing to these changes the parish registers have not been thoroughly kept, and the register is unable to give the exact figures of the membership.

REMARKS.—Christ Church was burnt to the ground March 2d, 1884, but funds have since been collected by the vestry and congregation, and it is expected that the work of rebuilding will be commenced this month, though at least $1,200 more will be needed to finish the Church.

In this connection the Rector wishes to express his grateful appreciation of the liberality of the many friends of Christ Church, and so to testify to the self-sacrificing efforts of the members of the Church themselves for the work of rebuilding.

REMARKS.—The colored day and Sunday Schools at Antrim Church, near Halifax Courthouse, continue in a prosperous condition. Annually several teachers are sent forth, and others are now in preparation. Added to the duties at the points above named the Rector does large missionary duty over an extended area.

During the year he has also held services in the counties of Mecklenburg, Charlotte and Brunswick, ministering in each case to both white and colored. As it is difficult to bring such duties within the range of statistics the fact is merely mentioned.

Monthly services are also held at Cunningham's Chapel on the border of North Carolina. This chapel was erected by the individual efforts of the Hon. John W. Cunningham. There we have eight communicants.

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D.:

Inclosed you will find a tabulated form, showing work done in the past nine and a half months—two months and a half having been lost from sickness produced by over-work. Before I was strong enough for heavy work I accepted the temporary charge of Dr. Hanckel's Church, as his assistant, and remained at Charlottesville for six weeks. This arrangement enabled me to save the Diocese $125 of my salary, and gave me time for a good deal of work during the week—as much as my strength would allow.

The number of sermons preached during the nine and a half months is 262. In addition to the regular sermons, over thirty lectures have been delivered in public and private schools. No opportunity has been lost for impressing the young men with a sense of their obligation to God and his Church. Twenty-one infants and ten adults have been baptized. Holy Communion has been administered nineteen times. There have been fourteen special services for the colored race, but a rapidly increasing disposition to attend all of our night services renders this almost useless. Three Sunday

Miscellaneous.

Schools have been started, and others revived. Sixteen Aid Societies have been organized. If they do as well as the least amount ever made by any of the Societies started on the same plan, it will bring over $2,000 into the Church, which would have been in a great degree lost to the Church. There is evidence of increasing religious interest throughout the Diocese. We are reaching the masses. The vacant Parishes of the Diocese are being rapidly filled.

We have at last discovered the solution of two important problems:

First. "What shall we do with the vacant Parishes?" Answer, "Fill them."

Second. "How can we reach the masses?" Answer, "Go near enough to them, and we can reach them; it is about the only way to reach anything."

My condition demanded rest from the consuming care of money-raising, and, all told, I have only raised a little over $1,000, of which amount $800 have not been reported through other channels. Salaries in a good many vacant Parishes have been either entirely raised or considerably increased. The graduating class will leave very few vacant churches.

The Diocese has never been in as good condition as at the present. Ministers from abroad are seeking homes in our midst, and our own ministers are constantly declining calls to other fields.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK STRINGFELLOW, Missionary.

NOTE.—Charles Parish, which has lapsed from the Journals for some years, is one of the oldest parishes in the Diocese. Traces of the Parish Church may still be seen in some tombstones near the Half-way House, in York county.

One of the parishes in Accomac has sometimes appeared in the Journal as St. James.

ELECTIONS.

Rev. Robb White,

Mr. S. J. C. Moore,
 Mr. W. R. Abbott.

The Bishop presented the following communication, which he had received from the Historiographer of the Diocese:

Y DEAR BISHOP:

Having past my threescore years and sixteen, and having no ambition to play the part of the "veteran lingering on the stage," and as I see by the Treasurer's report in the newspaper that the revenue of the Diocese has fallen short of the expenses, it seems to be an opportune time for my retirement in accordance with the settled usage of civil officers, founded upon experience. I desire to return thanks and to express my high appreciation of the honor conferred upon me by the Council in conferring upon me, in my absence, without my solicitation or even knowledge of their purpose, the office of Historiographer of the Diocese. I have tried as best I could to do my duties, under the burden of age and of many infirmities, but am painfully conscious of having fallen far short of my conception of them. The burden of answering queries from nearly every State in the Union, and from abroad, is far heavier than one would think. It is some satisfaction to know that I have brought to light and recovered divers old vestry books and registers, which had been long hidden from public view, and were supposed to have been irreparably lost, and that I have contributed somewhat in my parish histories and personal memoirs to the illustration of the History of the Church and of the State. With my best wishes for the health, happiness and well-being of yourself and every member of the Council, and my prayers for the honor and glory of the Old Church and the Old Dominion, I am,

Your brother in Christ,

PHILIP SLAUGHTER.

May 16th, 1885.

On motion, the communication was referred to a special committee composed of the following:

Rev. C. J. Gibson, D. D.,

Rev. G. W. Dame,

Mr. H. W. Sheffey.

The Council then took recess until 8:15 P. M.

8:15-P. M.

The Council met and was addressed upon the subject of Missions by the Rev. R. A. Goodwin, Rev. John McGill, and the Rev. Dr. Minnigerode.

On motion, the Council adjourned.

REPORT OF BISHOP WHITTLE.

. AND DEAR BRETHREN :

The first Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Virginia after the Revolution met in this city of Richmond, under the presidency of the Reverend afterwards Bishop, James Madison, May 1785, just one hundred years ago. No Convention was held in any of the subsequent years, and hence, we are now assembled at our ninetieth annual Council, or Convention, but in the one hundredth year of the organization of the Church in the Diocese. A committee, appointed by the last Council, having made ample arrangements for the proper celebration of this interesting and important Centennial, I will not detain you with any thoughts on the subject but proceed to give an account of my stewardship during the past year, and to lay before you such information in regard to the state of the Diocese as is required by the canons.

May 25.—I confirmed two persons in the morning in Christ Church Winchester, and at night preached the sermon at the closing service in connection with the Council.

May 28.—Read morning prayer and preached in Calvary Church Dinwiddie C. H., which, for several years, has been without a rector.

May 29.—In Sapony Church, confirmed two.

May 30.—Trinity, Brunswick, preached, confirmed five and administered the Lord's Supper, assisted by Rev. E. B. Jones.

May 31.—Mercy Seat, a church kindly loaned us for the occasion, preached to a large colored congregation, confirmed twenty-five and celebrated the Lord's Supper. This is one of three prosperous missions, two in Brunswick and one in Mecklenburg, faithfully conducted by Rev. James S. Russell. He is building a church at the place, which is greatly needed, and is in want of funds to complete it. His work is cordially commended to any one who may wish to contribute to a good and deserving object.

June 1.—In the morning confirmed two in St. Andrew's Church Lawrenceville, which, with Trinity, in the same Parish, has long been without a rector. In the afternoon, in St. Paul's colored church, confirmed twenty-nine, and the next morning visited the large and well-conducted parish school of the same church and gave the children a very satisfactory examination in their religious and other studies. Mr. Russell commenced work at this point about three years ago and has now a neat and comfortable frame church with a good congregation, a commodious and suitably arranged school building, with two teachers and between fifty and a hundred pupils, and a large lot of ground on which he proposes to build a rectory as soon as kind friends will give him the money.

June 3.—Visited Christ, and the next day Grace Church, Greenville county, and in the latter confirmed three.

June 8.—Preached and celebrated the Lord's Supper in St. John Lunenburg, assisted by Rev. E. B. Jones, Deacon in charge. In the afternoon of the same day went to Trinity Chapel (colored), where thirteen were confirmed. This is a mission school which was started and has been carried on for several years by Mrs. M. M. Jennings and one assistant. Services are held in the chapel on one Sunday in each month by Rev. Mr. Cain, of Richmond, and occasionally by Rev. E. B. Jones, as his other duties will permit. Since the work was commenced twenty-seven persons have been confirmed.

June 14.—In Elon (Presbyterian) Church, Amherst county, confirmed one, and the next day, in St. Luke's, twelve.

June 16.—Ordained Rev. Wm. T. Roberts, Presbyter, in St. Paul's Church, Petersburg, Rev. Messrs. Gibson, Hains and Shackelford assisting in the service.

June 22.—St. John's Langley, Fairfax county, one of the churches served by students from the Seminary, confirmed three, and in the afternoon in Falls Church, eleven.

June 19-27.—Was engaged in duties at the Theological Seminary and on the last day admitted thirteen candidates to Deacon's orders.

June 28.—Gray's Chapel, Stafford county, confirmed seven and the next day, in Aquia Church, confirmed nineteen.

August 17.—Assisted by Rev. Messrs. Jno. A. Wharton and Dennis consecrated St. John's Church, Pulaski county, and confirmed two, and at night preached in St. James, Central Depot, Montgomery county. This latter church, then vacant, is now in charge of Rev. J. E. Hammond.

August 19.—Preached in McGill Memorial Church, Pulaski county.

DEPOSED.

DEATH.

One of our brethren has been called to cease from his labors during the past year. Rev. Edward S. Gregory, rector of the Epiphany Church, Lynchburg, died December 19th, 1884, aged, I think, about forty-one years. He was ordained deacon in June, 1879, and presbyter in March, 1881. The previous years of his manhood having been devoted to literary work. He had a large and remarkably right mind in a frail body, and being earnest in spirit and abundant in labors, he gave promise of great usefulness, if not of eminence, in the ministry. But God was pleased to take him to himself; if we know not why, we shall know hereafter. May his brief service, suddenly terminated, deeply impress us all with the solemn truth that our time is also short, and may we so employ it that, when called to give account of our stewardship, we may be ready to do it with joy and not with grief.

It will be seen from the preceding report that there has been a large increase in the number of colored persons confirmed during the past year. There really appears to be hardly any limit to the work we might do amongst this people, if we only had a sufficient supply of men and money. And the former are likely to be forthcoming before the latter. One of the students in the Theological School, Petersburg, having died the present session, the number now under instruction by Rev. Mr. Spencer is fourteen, seven of whom are candidates for Deacon's orders. I refer to Mr. Spencer's report to the trustees of the Seminary for further information in regard to the important work in which he is engaged.

Bishop's Report.

The last Legislature of the State incorporated "The Bishop Payne Divinity and Industrial School in Virginia," as is declared "for the purpose of educating colored persons for the ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church, or for any secular business." The trustees have held but one meeting for the purpose of organizing and accepting the charter, but it is believed that a liberal friend of the colored people will soon present them with a building and ground to start the school, and then, I trust, the money will not be wanting to carry it on.

Daily observation and experience confirm me more and more in the conviction that this negro question in our church is going to be a very difficult and serious one, and that the only solution of it is to be found in the plan adopted by other churches around us, of forming our colored brethren into a separate organization. In this conclusion, I believe a large majority of our Clergy and Laity, white and black, agree with me, and if this be so, I hope we will agitate the question until the General Convention can be induced to take it up and adopt the necessary legislation.

I have received from the Secretary of the House of Deputies of the General Convention, to be presented to the Council, the volume which I hold in my hand, and which is a copy of the official "notification to the Dioceses of the alterations and additions in the Book of Common Prayer of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, proposed in the General Convention of 1883, and to be acted upon at the General Convention of 1886."

A committee, of which I am chairman, was appointed by the last Council to report on these proposed changes to the one now in session, but of course we could do nothing until we were informed what were the contemplated "alterations and additions," and as this "notification" of them was not received until some ten or twelve days ago—too late to examine and consider them—the committee was never called together. For my own part, I have been from the first utterly opposed to this whole movement for the so-called "enrichment" of our Prayer Book, which is already rich enough in everything that is good and desirable, if clergy and people would only make a right use of it. No doubt improvements can be made and have been suggested, but, on the whole, the old book appears to me to be far better than the proposed new one. At a time like the present, when there is everywhere so much restlessness and lawlessness and love of change, we are not well qualified to accomplish so great and important a work. But whatever may be our views and feelings in regard to a revision of the Prayer Book, the time is now too short. It will be simply impossible for our next Council to give anything like a proper consideration to the many proposed changes, and I therefore respectfully suggest whether it will not be best to instruct our deputies to the next General Convention to vote against them all. It is much easier to make mistakes than to correct them after they have been made, and it is far wiser and safer to continue to endure evils and imperfections in our liturgy—if there be any—which we have always endured, than to entail upon ourselves others and worse ones by hasty and inconsiderate legislation.

The parochial and other reports will show that most of the parishes and the various institutions of the Diocese are in a healthy condition. Improvement might no doubt be made in many things, but we have abundant cause to be thankful for the past and hopeful for the future. A large amount of work has been done by as faithful and earnest a body of Clergy and Laity as I believe is anywhere to be found, and God has not withheld His blessing, as may be seen in such fruits as the large number of persons confirmed, the many new churches built, the list of young men seeking admission into the ministry, the roll of Sunday School teachers and scholars, and the amount contributed to various religious and benevolent objects.

The earnest effort to raise the sum of ten thousand dollars for the most important work of Diocesan missions, to which we pledged ourselves at the last Council, has not been quite successful, but we have done so well and so much better than usual that it is hoped we may be encouraged to make a still greater effort and to practice a little more self denial to secure that amount the present year. The Executive Committee will then be able, not only to enlarge the bounds of the missionary work, but also—which is so desirable—to increase the inadequate salaries of some of the laborers now in the field.

The Theological Seminary and High School continue to enjoy the favor of God and man. The Female Institute, in Staunton, commending itself by its own merits, has largely increased the number of its pupils and is gradually extending its influence and usefulness. The Education Society is still prosecuting the good work, in which it has been engaged for more than sixty years, of helping young men to qualify themselves for the ministry of the Church. The Protestant Episcopal Church Home, in Richmond, is surely doing a blessed work in furnishing a home for fourteen lady guests, which are as many as the building will accommodate. To procure the means to provide for the maintenance of so large a family from day to day, the managers have nowhere to look except to the voluntary contributions of our churches and people. These are all institutions of the Diocese, worthy of and entitled to receive the prayers and support of all its members.

And now, dear brethren, as we stand at the close of the first century of the history of our beloved Church and on the threshold of the second, I pray that we all, ministers and people, may be as wise and faithful as those who have gone before us, and that God may bless us even far more in the coming hundred years than He has done in the past.

The Assistant Bishop then read his Annual Address:

REPORT OF BISHOP RANDOLPH.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY:

I present, as required, my report of Episcopal work during the year. On Sundays, when I had no appointments, I have preached in churches in the city of Richmond, and in other parts of the Diocese, to supply a need of ministrations, or at the kind invitation of the rectors.

I am thankful to report that I have been able to fill all my appointments during the year, with a single exception, due to slight indisposition.

I desire to express my thanks to the Clergy and Laity of the country churches for their kind consideration in their arrangements for my sojourn and my travel through their parishes.

The following is the list of visitations and confirmations. As I read them, they will perhaps sound to those of you, who are not personally interested, as other dry statistics. As I recall them in memory, they bring back to me the warm greetings of kind Christian people, hearty, solemn and tender services in the churches, and friendships begun with Clergy and with people, which I trust will grow and keep warm until my work is done.

The activity in the Diocese, in the erection of new churches, is a subject for earnest congratulation. In addition to those consecrated during the year, there are several now awaiting consecration. The buildings are dignified and church-like, and many of them are very beautiful in architectural form. If, in building churches, we can make a graceful form instead of an indifferent or an ugly one for the same expenditure of money, it is clearly our duty, to the dignity of Christian worship, to ourselves and to our children, to do so. The permanent attraction in a church building must be its spiritual associations with the blessedness of approaching God in the ordinances of worship; but it is a mistake to suppose that a wise attention to the external incidents of worship is other than a help to religious reverence in the house of God.

Bethel Chapel, in the mountains of Fauquier county, consecrated in September, gave me the impression of the blessedness and the promise of mission work with the Prayer Book for worship, and an earnest missionary spirit in the pastor. Of the new churches visited by myself, I believe each one to be needed, to be judiciously located, and as having a promise of enlarged usefulness in the future. Some of them take the places of colonial churches, deserted or in ruins, or passed into other hands. In King & Queen county we passed by a noble old church now worshipped in and owned by the Baptists. A few miles further on, the next day, at King & Queen Courthouse, we consecrated a neat Gothic Chapel, built under the ministry of the earnest rector of the church at Tappahannock.

Christ Church, Lancaster county, is, perhaps, the noblest monument of the colonial church in Virginia. Occasional services are held in it, but for the greater part of the year it is deserted. But Grace Church, three miles away and a new church at Lancaster Courthouse, very tasteful and capacious, have taken its place. These old buildings, whose massive walls have defied the attrition of centuries, tell us of the religious reverence of our forefathers, who reared them, and when it is practicable, the historic spirit and the importance of that moral influence which comes from due honor to the memorials of past generations should lead us to efforts for their preservation.

But for the practical work of religious education and evangelization the new churches more than fill the places of the old, so that the desertion of the old, mainly because the population has receded from their neighborhood, is not a sign of decay in the spirit and the life of the Church. My visits to many parishes in the country have impressed upon me the importance and the absolute necessity of increased lay work to keep the churches warm and alive. The new energy that has been devoted to Sunday Schools within the past thirty years is one of the most promising features of the religious activity of our times. In parishes where there are three or four churches, and no one of these can expect more than two services a month, a Sunday School which meets every Sunday is of more importance to the coherence and the permanent growth of a congregation than in churches where the people have the blessing of church services every Sunday. As a field of activity for Christian effort, and for the development of the working spirit and the missionary impulse in our church members, the Sunday School is perhaps the most important agency. If our laymen would make the effort in response to the call of their Rectors, I am sure that all obstacles would be overcome, and that no one of our country churches would be without a Sunday School. There are poor children, and many of the children of well-to-do people in every neighborhood, to whom a Sunday School would be a blessing that cannot be measured. No Christian man or woman who has tried it doubts the blessing, and the spiritual quickening that comes as the reward of missionary activity in this field. Gather the children, especially upon the Sundays when there is no service in your Church, teach them the Bible, introduce them to the creeds, the prayers, the catechisms of your liturgy. Form a friendship between the Prayer Book and the mirror of the child, and that friendship never dies. The growth of our Church in mission fields has its germ in the Mission Sunday School. Through the child you win the confidence of the parents, who have perhaps never heard an Episcopal service in their lives, and who rarely attend the worship of any other Christian Church. But, more than this, by carrying the Gospel to the poor children around you, you are deepening the fervor of your own piety, you are warming the life of your own Church, and bringing down upon it the blessing of God.

The Christian men of our country churches meet a suggestion or a call to this work, by their rectors, with the answer, "they are not fit for it." "They never taught children in their lives." "The women must do that"—and how is it possible that women alone can organize and work a Sunday school in a country community. You cannot teach children, and yet you can plead for your client at the bar. In your country homes you can talk to me about religion, about literature, about politics, with exceptional intelligence. You can criticise your minister's sermons, but cannot help him in his work. You cannot superintend a Sunday school; you cannot illustrate to children the story of the Gospel, the wonderful literature of the Bible—the principles of the Ten Commandments. What you need is to pray for the fire of Christ's love in your hearts. What you need is a sense of the dignity and blessedness and the tremendous responsibility of Christian work—Christian men you must break the ice—you must try the work, and when you begin, stand by it and Christ will take care of it and of you too. We Episcopalians, and it is true to some extent of the Presbyterians also, have in the generations that are past acted upon the principle that a church should grow and become strong and widen its influence in the community by the regular Christian worship; by devout Christian conduct, by teaching our children their Catechism and their Bible lessons at home, by making our families the nurseries of the church, and forming religious habits in our children, and trusting to these quiet methods to influence the careless and the indifferent around us. We have believed that the parable of the leaven contains the true and only conception of the methods for propagating the Gospel. As some one has said: "We are keepers at home." We don't believe in raids in the name of Christ against the irreligion, the drunkenness, the ungodliness, the ignorance around us. We are afraid of pressing too far the parable of the lost sheep—we think that the Methodists with their revivals, their prayer-meetings, their excited appeals have gone too far—they are in too great a hurry to save the souls of men from destruction. The parable of the leaven contains a great truth, but it is not all the truth. The parable of the seeking and the saving of the lost sheep contains another great truth, and the Methodists, may God bless them, have helped and are helping to teach us that we must go after the sheep and not stand on our dignity, and wait for them to come to us. We must build churches for the poor ; we must welcome them into our houses of worship; we must greet them—go out of our way to make them feel at home with us. A church must be a home; it must be a practical exhibition in its meetings of Christian brotherhood. If it is not, men and women will find a home in some other church. Our ministers have found that out. There is no body of clergy in the country, in any church, more faithful in their ministrations to the poor and to people who were seldom seen in our churches in past generations, than the clergy of Virginia, and everywhere these classes of people are responding to their efforts.

What the clergy need is the sympathy, the loving co-operation of the Laity, men and women, and, thank God, the tide of broader Christian sympathies among them is rising, and the realization that our Church has a great field for Christ open to it which it has never entered before is beginning to dawn. Our dependence for mission work is not in the discussions at Convocations or in the wrangling of Conventions over organization and missionary methods, but in the practical growth of the Spirit of Christ among the Laity. And while I am speaking to the Laity let me say a word to them about the support of the Clergy. I know that they are solicitous about the comfort and the temporal welfare of their ministers, and well they may be, for no people in any of the churches have for their pastors a more self-denying body of men. But they must be kept above solicitude about the necessities of life for themselves and their families. If not, there are other congregations and other dioceses who want earnest men and if they are called, they will and they ought to go. I would suggest to all of the country churches where the system is not in operation, and I know it is not in the majority, that, in addition to the salary in money, they should have a system of supply for the Rector's family of wood, of provender and of articles of family consumption. A little trouble and an organized effort would make this practicable in every country congregation. The ministers will not tell you about it, you must think of it yourselves, and not only think of it and talk of it, but do it. It would fall lightly upon every member and would be a burden to none.

Division of the Diocese.

The Church in our dear old Diocese has wide opportunities and new fields opening in every direction corresponding with the varied development of our material growth throughout the State. In the Southwest, with its mining centres, its railroad towns and its agricultural populations there are fields of intense interest and promise. In the tidewater counties the old love for the Episcopal Church seems in many places to be coming back again.

On last Sunday I visited St. John's Church, Hampton. It is the oldest church in America in use as a house of worship. Old, but so young in its beautiful interior, newly decorated; so warm and active in its missionary spirit. I confirmed there, with others, two Indians from the Normal School. A few weeks before I had confirmed sixteen Indians from the same institution. In addition to the charge of the parish this special work of the religious training of the Indians is under the manly, judicious and devoted pastorate of the Rector of St. John's. Here, almost on the spot where the first battles were fought beginning that long war which has pressed the Indian back from the homes of his fathers towards the setting sun, here, where the conflict begun more than two centuries ago, the red man is learning under the training of our Church the Gospel of peace. For the evangelization of the Indians I regard that work as perhaps the most important in our whole country.

The fields are open to us on every side. God give us the courage, the manhood and the faith to work them for Christ. If, in answer to our prayer, He will do that, the century that begins here will be marked by wider growth and larger measures of blessing to our Diocese and to the world than the century which closes with this centennial celebration.

The Rev. George H. Norton, D. D., from the committee appointed to consider the subject of the division of the Diocese, presented the following report:

The committee appointed by the Annual Council of 1883, "to consider the subject of a division of the Diocese," beg leave to report:

Your committee, in considering the subject submitted to them, have not been influenced by any theories as to the respective advantages of large and small Dioceses. The question of a division of the Diocese of Virginia does not seem to involve any question as to the expediency of forming a small Diocese, and, therefore, much that has been said and written on the general topic has been left out of view by your committee. The Diocèse of Virginia contains 273 churches and chapels needing the visitations and supervision of a Bishop. The first question that presents itself is :

1. Whether one Bishop can be expected permanently to perform this duty with justice to himself, to the Diocese, and to the other obligations resting upon him.

Any answer to this question, so far as it depends upon experience, is complicated by the fact, that for the larger portion of the past fifty-four years this Diocese has enjoyed the services of two Bishops.

Your committee, therefore, look chiefly for the teachings of experience to the period from 1876 to 1883, during which the Diocese was under the sole charge of its present Bishop.

It will no doubt, be conceded by all that nothing more can ever be expected from a Bishop than the amount of labor performed by the Bishop of Virginia from May, 1876, when he expressed to the Council his opinion "that it would be better he should make the experiment of undertaking the discharge of his full Episcopal duties for the present " to May, 1883, when the unanimous voice of the Diocese begged him to seek, for a time, a much needed rest from his labors.

It would be ungracious and ungrateful on the part of your committee to enter upon any criticism of the success of this experiment of the Bishop, so far as the interests of the Diocese are concerned.

If anything was left undone, we feel sure it must have been something which no sacrifice of time or strength could accomplish. Nay, more, the abundant prosperity of the Diocese, in all branches of church enterprise, by comparison with the statistics of other Dioceses, great or small, forbids the thought that our Diocese, during the period referred to, has suffered, in any considerable degree, from lack of Episcopal supervision. All opinions as to what might have been, under other circumstances, are purely speculative. It can neither be proved nor disproved that greater progress would have resulted from more frequent Episcopal visitations.

Even a seeming basis for such opinions in statistics is exposed to the difficulty of taking into account all the conditions under which different Dioceses have worked, and a mere array of figures is conclusive only to those whose minds are already made up upon other grounds.

We, therefore, shut our eyes upon this whole view of the subject.

Neither will your committee ask, whether a Bishop can visit 273 places as often as the interests of the Church require.

It will be more satisfactory to look at what the Bishop of this Diocese, in view of the field, considered to be his duty, and at what he actually accomplished. Let us take the six years coming next after West Virginia had been set apart as a new Diocese. In his annual statement to the Council of the previous year's work the Bishop reports in—

“ 1879, “	146

Division of the Diocese.

May 1880, visitations.....	140
“ 1881, “	130
“ 1882, “	142
“ 1883, “	155

This gives an average of 142 annual visitations. When we reflect upon the time, fatigue, exposure, tax on mind and body, implied in such long journeys and constant ministrations, it is clear that the circuit of our Bishop, under such circumstances, through his Diocese, can never be watched by his clergy and laity without anxious and painful thoughts.

When we ask, in addition, when shall opportunity be found for study, for the questions connected with the care of all the churches, which comes daily upon a Bishop, for the recovery of strength which such exhausting duties demand, we are unable to see how one man can with safety ever permanently attempt what the Bishop of this Diocese undertook as an experiment.

It is likewise to be remembered, as Bishop White says (Memoirs, page 392), that “a Bishop will generally have a family, to whom a reasonable portion of his time will be as much due as are any of his services to the Church.” Looking fairly at everything, your committee feel convinced that one Bishop cannot be expected permanently to perform the duties of his office in the present Diocese of Virginia.

The next question presenting itself is—

2. Whether, under the laws of our Church, the services of two Bishops can be permanently secured for the Diocese?

The provision of the Canons for an assistant, in case of the inability of a Bishop, from permanent cause or infirmity, to discharge his Episcopal duties, cannot of course be relied on. The former attempt of this Diocese to obtain an assistant Bishop, upon the ground that, from extent of territory, its Bishop was unable to perform his duties, does not encourage much hope in that direction.

The Canonical law of our Church provides for the election of an assistant Bishop. when the Bishop of a Diocese is unable to perform his Episcopal duties, either from age or other permanent cause of infirmity, or from extent of Diocese.

But the permission to elect an assistant Bishop, when the inability arises from extent of Diocese, rests upon a different footing from the right to elect one upon the ground of age or permanent cause of infirmity.

From the first organization of our church and before any canon on the subject was enacted, the Dioceses exercised the right of electing an assistant to a Bishop who was disabled by age or infirmity, This was claimed upon the ground of necessity and the practice of the primitive church.

It was not until 1829 that a canon was passed limiting the number of assistant Bishops to one for a Diocese, and expressly defining that the Bishop, for whom an assistant was to be provided, should be "unable by reason of old age or other permanent cause of infirmity, to discharge his Episcopal duties."

Division of the Diocese.

In 1835 it had become obvious that there were Bishops, neither old nor infirm, who still could not discharge "their Episcopal duties" because of the extent of their Dioceses.

The General Convention of that year deliberated upon the matter. The schemes suggested were three, viz: Assistant Bishops, Suffragan Bishops, and Division of Dioceses. The joint committee having charge of the subject reported against Assistant Bishops, against Suffragan Bishops, and in favor of Division. (Journal, 1835, page 94)

A change of the Constitution, making lawful the division of Dioceses, which were too large for one Bishop, was adopted by that convention, and ratified by the convention of 1838.

The advocates for Assistant or Suffragan Bishops seem to have been few. Bishop White, not only as chairman of the joint committee referred to, but in contributions to the public press, gave the authority of his great name against Assistant or Suffragan Bishops and in favor of Division. He says, "I am in favor of the division of a Diocese, whenever it is rendered expedient by extent of territory, and by Episcopalian population in point of number." (Memoirs, 389, 390).

Such, it is believed, was and has continued to be the general sentiment of our Church.

Such remained the law until 1871. In that year it was urged upon the notice of the General Convention that there are Dioceses so large that it is impossible for any one Bishop to exercise the needed supervision over them, and that such Dioceses, in some cases from "lack of the requisite number of clergymen and self-supporting parishes," cannot be divided. (Journal, 603, 604.) In response to this appeal the Convention amended the Canon by inserting "extent of Diocese" as a form of disability on the part of a Bishop to discharge his Episcopal duties which should entitle a Diocese to elect an assistant. But the concession was hedged in by a Proviso which indicated that it was not the purpose of the Church to depart from its established policy. After the declaration of power conceded to a Diocese to elect an assistant upon either of the specified grounds the Canon adds as follows: "Provided, that before the election of an Assistant Bishop, for reason of extent of Diocese, the consent of the General Convention, or, during the recess thereof, the consent of a majority of the Bishops and of the several standing committees, must be had and obtained."

It is clear from this statement that while a Diocese, whose Bishop is disabled, by reason of age or permanent cause of infirmity, may proceed at once to elect an assistant and claim the sanction of the General Church unless grave fault shall be found in the doctrine or character of the man elected, a Diocese which desires an assistant, because its territory and numbers are too great for any one Bishop's strength, cannot elect without permission and it is left to the judgment of the General Church whether it be right and expedient to grant such permission.

The Diocese of Virginia has once asked such permission and it was refused.

Your Committee would not recommend this Diocese to depend in the future upon a renewal of such request.

We must answer, therefore, that there is little prospect of any permanent continuance of the services of two Bishops in our Diocese.

We come then to the last question:

3. Ought our Diocese to be divided? Notwithstanding all that has been said, your committee would not recommend a division of the Diocese, if there be danger of casting off a weak new Diocese unable to take care of itself, or of leaving the old Diocese so crippled in resources as to be unable easily to bear all its responsibilities. Upon a scrutiny of the field, and counting the number of Clergy and churches in the State of Virginia, your committee believe two Dioceses might be formed, neither of which should be feeble in strength or contemptible in size. The experiment thus far made in the case of West Virginia encourages the hope that another division would not sunder the ties of sympathy which naturally bind together all churchmen living on the soil of Virginia, or prevent efficient coöperation in some matters of common interest, such as the Theological Seminary, &c.

The feeling of reluctance to divide the Diocese again is one in which your committee largely shares, but it is believed that questions affecting the prosperity of the Church should not be determined by feeling.

Should the views thus freely expressed ever become those of the Diocese, your committee are not prepared to recommend an immediate division of the Diocese by the action of the Council, subject to the consent of the Bishop.

It is believed by some of your committee that the safest mode of dividing the Diocese would be by a movement in some portion of the Diocese desiring to be set apart as a new Diocese. It was a movement of this kind in the western part of the State of New York, which led to the change in the Constitution of the Church, which permits the division of a Diocese. There would certainly be advantages in waiting for a similar movement from some portion of the Diocese of Virginia desiring to be set apart as a new Diocese.

Questions of boundary would thus be at least primarily adjusted among those most interested. There would be time for a decided manifestation of the wishes of those who should, if the application were granted, become the new Diocese. There would be time to arouse the energy and liberality needed for the commencement of a new Diocesan life. There would be an avoidance of the agitation in our Council of the subject until it was required an answer should be given to a definite proposal.

If, for example, a portion of the Diocese should apply to the Council to be set apart as a new Diocese, with proper boundaries, and with evidence of the general approval of the Clergy and Laity within those boundaries, and of their ability to meet the responsibilities of an independent Diocese, and if such proposed scheme should not seriously impair the resources of the old Diocese, division might then seem reasonable and practicable, even to those now most opposed to it.

There can be no doubt, however, that it is in the power of the Council to proceed at once to divide the Diocese in any way deemed right and expedient. Of course it is understood that no division, however the movement be inaugurated, can ever be effected without the consent of the Bishop of the Diocese and of the General Convention. Upon the whole, looking at all the present surroundings of the question, your committee are not prepared to submit any practical resolution for adoption by the Council at this time. It is in the power of any member of the Council to offer such a resolution, and the right to do so is reserved to the members of this committee as individuals, notwithstanding the committee as a body declines to present such resolution at this time. All which is respectfully submitted.

The Rev. Dr. Norton presented the Report of the Trustees of the Theological Seminary and High School:

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary and High School beg leave to report that during the current year there have been in the Seminary—
Students: Senior Class, 10; Middle Class, 6; Junior Class, 12; Preparatory Department, 9; total, 37.

The venerable Dean, to the joy of all friends of the Seminary, has recovered his health, and has been in discharge of full duty.

A number of the students think of devoting themselves to the Foreign Mission field.

The High School continues to meet the wishes of the friends of thorough culture and Christian training.

The Divinity School at Petersburg has had in all seventeen students this year; is useful now, and promises well for the future.

The reports of Seminary Professors, Principal of High School, and instructor of Divinity School, are annexed.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF BIBLICAL LEARNING.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

The Professor of Biblical Learning, with thankfulness to God, respectfully reports to the Trustees that he has been able to perform the duties assigned him. He has officiated in the Chapel in his turn, and at the Faculty meetings on Thursday evenings.

The Senior Class has finished in Hebrew the last twenty-six chapters of Isaiah. They have also, in the Greek New Testament, studied exegetically the two epistles to the Corinthians.

The Middle Class has read the Old Testament prophecies of Christ in the original, and many of the Psalms.

In the Greek New Testament they have studied critically the Epistles to the Romans and to the Hebrews.

The Preparatory Department has been, in his opinion, well taught, and the students in it have made commendable progress.

The past session has been distinguished for diligence and success in study on the part of the members of the Seminary and of the Preparatory Department.

J. PACKARD.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF SYSTEMATIC DIVINITY AND HOMILETICS.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

I would respectfully report that the classes have, during the session, pursued the usual course of study.

The Senior Class, reciting three times a week, has studied the Articles, Homiletics and Liturgics. With the Articles they have used Boultbie and Burnett. In Homiletics they have studied Broadbush with exercise in plans and analysis of sermons and the usual Wednesday service and sermon. In Liturgics they have had lectures with written questions and references. They are now occupied with the study of the history and formation of the Prayer Book.

The Middle Class, for most of the session reciting daily, has studied Knapp's Theology, with written essays on the subjects studied. They have also been engaged in the study and analysis of the Epistles.

The Junior Class has, as usual, studied Chadbourn's Natural Theology. This they have finished and are now reviewing.

C. WALKER.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF APOLOGETICS AND CHURCH POLITY.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

The Professor of Apologetics and Church Polity respectfully reports that during the current session the several classes under his instruction have pursued their respective courses of study with due diligence.

The Senior Class has studied Hooker's Laws of Ecclesiastical Polity in connection with a course of lectures on the Church and Ministry.

The Middle Class continues and concludes the study of Apologetics in the use of Butler's Analogy as a Text-book. In the same department the Junior Class receives instruction by means of lectures with written questions as supplemental to the Text book. The Professor has also met the Junior Class daily for recitation in Hebrew.

J. J. McELHINNEY.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF CHURCH HISTORY.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

The Professor of Church History would respectfully report that the classes under his charge pursued the studies of their respective courses faithfully and successfully up to the second day of March last. Since that time he has been incapacitated for all work by a severe and protracted disease. During his sickness, Drs. McElhinney and Walker, aided by Mr. Mayo, of the Senior Class, have most kindly carried on the greater portion of his work. It is, therefore, to be hoped that the classes have lost very little by his enforced absence.

Respectfully submitted,

I beg leave to report my work as Instructor of the Colored Theological Students under your charge in this city:

attend our recitations, and fifteen regular students. One of our regular students, Mr. Fountain Barner, died at his home, of consumption, on April 22d.

The progress made by the younger students during the session has been most encouraging. The older students will never attain much in scholarship. It is hoped that five of our students may be able to obtain Deacon's Orders at the close of this session.

The subjects taught have been Bible History and Introduction, Prayer Book with Articles and Catechism, Homiletics, General and Ecclesiastical History, Mental and Moral Science and Greek together with certain elementary branches in the teaching of which I have been efficiently assisted by the most advanced pupils.

The change that has taken place in the removal of the School to the more suitable and commodious premises now occupied, will doubtless be reported by the Committee of your number at whose instance it was made, and it only remains for me to report that the results have justified the wisdom of the Committee's action.

In conclusion, I respectfully submit that the School needs an additional teacher and earnestly request that steps may be taken to supply that need by the beginning of next session.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS SPENCER.

ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT TO TRUSTEES (1885) FOR COUNCIL JOURNAL.

Right Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., LL.D.,

President of the Board of Trustees:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—As Principal of the Episcopal High School I have the honor to submit the following report:

The aggregate number of pupils entered during the present session is 101; 9 only being day scholars. The general health of the School has been excellent. * * * Various improvements at the expense of the Trustees have been made; among them the ceiling of dormitory and vestuary with tongue-and-grooved pine suitably painted, and extensive repairs to the roof, also the equipment of the entire premises with Flagg Fire Extinguishing Hand Grenades, the most efficient security now attainable. Other improvements, at an expense to myself of nearly a thousand dollars, have been made. * * *

The religious privileges and exercises of the School, including a loving observance of the Church year, have been mainly, as heretofore, though since the falling ill in March of the Rev. Dr. Nelson, curtailed of the ministrations of that gentleman who had previously, as in former sessions, held monthly meetings with our boy communicants and otherwise been their faithful pastor. On the mornings of Sundays and the chief holy days all attend service in the Seminary chapel, regular evening service being performed by myself, with occasional relief by visiting clergymen, Sunday night in the School chapel. My Sunday afternoon lectures to the elder boys have been, as heretofore, an extended course on the Book of Common Prayer being now nearly completed. The season of Lent was again duly improved by extra services and the usual daily instruction—this year from Norton—afforded during Holy Week. The Friday night devotional meetings have been conducted with interest and profit by Mr. R. Allen Castleman, of the Seminary Middle Class, to whom and to Dr. Nelson my best thanks are due. Eight boys have been confirmed during the session and the whole number of communicants, including two Presbyterians and one Methodist, is thirty-nine.

I have the honor to be, sir,

Very respectfully yours,

L. M. BLACKFORD.

The Rev. Dr. Pike Powers presented the report of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society:

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF VIRGINIA.

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia respectfully report, that forty-five Missionaries have received regular aid from the Committee since the last meeting of the Council, besides an appropriation of $100 to Rev. Job Turner, Missionary to Deaf Mutes in the Southern States, and several special appropriations to ministers who needed and deserved help.

The following changes have taken place in the course of the year: Rev. J. Y. Downman has given up the charge of the churches in King William county and become assistant to Rev. G. W. Dame, Epiphany Church, Danville; Rev. William B. Everett has resigned the Mission in Charles City county and become assistant to Rev. L. W. Burton, St. John's Church, Richmond, and in charge of the mission work of that church with one service a month at the penitentiary; Rev. J. B. Funsten has resigned the church in Bristol and taken charge of Christ Church, Richmond; Rev. E. L. Goodwin has resigned the churches in Franklin county to take charge of the churches in Albemarle and Louisa, lately served by Rev. Robb White; Rev. H. M. Jarvis, of St. John's Church, Scottsville, has gone South, and the charge of church been resumed by Rev. Thomas E. Locke; also Rev. W. W. Kimball has given up the churches in Campbell county and gone South, and his place in Campbell been taken by Rev. Abraham Jaeger, D. D.; Rev. A. S. Lloyd, of John's Memorial Church, Farmville, has gone to St. Luke's, Norfolk, and his place in Farmville been occupied by Rev. J. W. Ware; Rev. David May, of Goshen, Rockbridge county, has gone to Ohio; Rev. J. M. Meredith has resigned his work in Stafford and Prince William and taken charge of St. Margaret's, Caroline, and Christ Church, Spotsylvania Courthouse; Rev. C. J. S. Mayo has resigned the Mission at Newport News and Morrison's, and gone to Ohio; Rev. Duncan McCulloh has left Christ Church, Richmond, for New York; Rev. Alexander Overby has left Williamsburg and gone to Michigan; Rev. A. J. Willis has given up his work in Northumberland county and taken charge of the churches in King George county. Here are thirteen changes, an unusually large number, and nearly one-third of the number aided by the committee.

The new names added to our list are: Rev. William B. Lee, Mathews and Middlesex; Rev. S. S. Moore, Fairfax; Rev. Carter Page, Loudoun; Rev. J. E. Poindexter, Caroline (resumed); Rev. L. W. Rose, Mecklenburg; Rev. James S. Russell, Brunswick; Rev. J. W. Sykes, Bristol, Tenn.; Rev. F. G. Scott, Charlotte; Rev. W. R. Savage, Princess Anne; Rev. J. W. Ware, Farmville; Rev. N. F. Marshall, Nottoway; Rev. Abraham Jaeger, Campbell; Rev. G. Moseley Murray, Luray, Page county, and Rev. E. B. Burwell, Fluvanna county.

There are now thirty-six missionaries receiving aid from the committee, viz:

Rev. Messrs. P. Brooke, Westmoreland; T. W. Cain, Richmond city; J. J. Clopton, Manchester; L. R. Combs, Gordonsville; G. B. Cooke, Petersburg; R. R. Claiborne, Culpeper; H. L. Derby, Lancaster; B. Dennis, Tazewell and Pulaski; G. M. Funsten, Stafford; J. B. Funsten, Richmond city; Curtis Grubb, Hanover; J. H. Hundley, Essex; Abraham Jaeger, Campbell; William B. Lee, Mathews and Middlesex; W. C. Latané, Westmoreland; T. E. Locke, Albemarle; J. P. Lawrence, Amherst; S. S. Moore, Fairfax; J. M. Meredith, Stafford; N. F. Marshall, Nottoway; G. Moseley Murray, Page; Carter Page, Loudoun; G. W. Phelps, Greenville; J. E. Poindexter, Caroline; C. C. Randolph, Botetourt; James S. Russell, Brunswick; L. W. Rose, Mecklenburg; James W. Shields, Shenandoah; Green Shackelford, Ashland; A. B. Tizzard, Chesterfield; J. W. Sykes, Bristol; F. G. Scott, Charlotte; W. R. Savage, Princess Anne; J. W. Ware, Prince Edward; S. S. Ware, Loudoun, and Rev. E. B. Burwell, Fluvanna county.

Their stipends range from $100 to $350 per annum, being an average of $186, and an aggregate of $6,525, to which must be added partial payments made to missionaries who have resigned, special appropriations to ministers who needed and deserved help, and other necessary expenses.

We deplore the frequent changes among our ministers and their constant exodus from the Diocese, but we are encouraged to hope, that with the increased means placed at our disposal, we shall be able to remove, to a good degree, one of the chief reasons of these changes, the inadequacy of support, as well as to do more for the destitute portions of the Diocese.

A reasonable support being assured to them, we think that those ministers who have received their theological education from the Diocese of Virginia ought to remain in it long enough to make some adequate return for the benefit.

Report of Committee on Removals of Parochial Clergy.

Our missionaries, as a rule, are doing good work, and the contributions of the past year show that the Diocese is abundantly able to furnish the means of sustaining them, and sustaining them better, and of pushing forward our work into new localities.

We have not yet reached an average of one cent and a half a week per capita, for that, with only 14,000 communicants, would give us $10,920. But we have done well. Let us try to do still better, and rejoice to work for Him, and to give to Him who gave Himself for us, and for our sakes became poor.

We have not raised the $10,000, but we have raised more than ever before, say $9,000, and that in a year of almost unexampled hardship and financial depression. Of this sum nearly one-third was paid in after 1st of April, and not notified to the Executive Committee before their regular meeting in May, so that they have not had time to adopt such measures as the increase of their means may seem to justify.

PIKE POWERS,
Secretary Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia.

The Rev. J. D. Powell presented the following :

The Committee, to whom was referred so much of the Bishop's address as relates to removals of the Parochial clergy from the Diocese to other fields, asks to report as follows:

At their first meeting it was deemed advisable to get some facts as data for their consideration. To this end they corresponded with those clergy that have left the Diocese in four years past. From such data your Committee have been impressed with the painful embarrassments of many faithful ministers owing to the scantiness of their incomes promised and the delay and uncertainty in the payment of what is promised. This difficulty is doubtless the main cause of frequent separation between pastor and people. By keeping her ministers so straitened the Church cripples them and impairs their usefulness as well as starves and dwarfs herself.

While the average support of the Clergy in Virginia compares favorably with other Dioceses yet it must be acknowledged it falls far below a just and generous standard. For men who have in many cases spent their substance in preparing themselves for the ministry, have relinquished lucrative positions and the prospect of future advantage and are devoting themselves exclusively to the ministry of the Word and of prayer, it is not just and right that they should be kept at starvation rates on less than a mechanic's wages. They have a right to ask (not in any mercenary spirit, either), but as the Lord ordained, that they that preach the Gospel shall live of the Gospel. Is there no remedy for this evil? It were idle to repeat the grievances of Virginia ministers while no practical relief is pointed out. The remedy must be principally with the parish. With those that represent the Church the responsibility rests. An offer made and accepted in good faith creates a mutual obligation of the highest dignity of service for Christ's sake on the one side, of sympathy and support on the other. The pastoral relation is no mere labor contract of dollars and cents but a reciprocal pledge of loving service and generous support for the Lord's sake. With every vestry rests the performance of this pledge. They must stand between the pastor and the people for he is powerless to protect his own rights. This contract should be rigidly performed by business methods. It is the loose and slovenly ways with which Church business is too often transacted that has led to the present evil. The treasurer as well as every vestryman should see to it that all pledges are scrupulously redeemed. Besides the money salary, contributions in kind ought to form a stipulated part of the income and not as a gratuity. The free-will offerings of the people, over and above their pledged support, should be distinctly understood as such. For his support as a minister of Christ he should never be regarded as an object of charity. He should not be embarrassed or humiliated by a sense of dependence upon the favor or caprice of his people. Let him that is taught in the Word minister unto him that teacheth in all good things.

As auxiliary to the vestry a women's parochial aid society in every parish could do much to supplement the work of the official body, the vestry, in suggesting and carrying out plans for supplying and replenishing the furniture of the rectory. The generous sympathy, delicate tact and fervent zeal, those gracious qualities that made her last at the cross and first at the sepulchre, are not to be neglected as factors in good work for the Church.

Again, no parish should be without a rectory. It is hard that the small income should be taxed to provide a home. Such a drain impoverishes the minister, fixes on him in a few years a hopeless burden of debt and in the end does not better the condition of the parish. By a wise and liberal plan, of building, or buying by instalment, a home for the rector in every church may be secured as the property of the church to its permanent advantage. This would afford great relief to many ministers who now find their lives embittered by the prospect of increasing difficulties in the future.

We have said that the remedy for these evils rests with the parish. It is vain to look elsewhere for help. But it is with the congregation, the vestry, the individual members of the church in every parish that the question of a proper support of the clergy rests.

Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

The Rev. Dr. C. J. Gibson presented the report of the Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund:

The Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund of the Diocese of Virginia respectfully report the condition of the fund as decidedly encouraging. The income this year from which our appropriations are made, is not quite as large as it was last year, being only $2,286.05. But the report of our treasurer, herewith submitted, shows that a change of investments has absorbed some $350 of our income of this year, so that it has been really as large, if not larger, than that of the last year. The principal of the fund is now $24,866.05. The Board have distributed the sum of $2,335, exactly the same amount as last year, among exactly the same number of families—fifteen—and in the same amounts, except that the name of Mrs. Edward S. Gregory was substituted for one who had married again. In the wise Providence of God the Board has been deprived by death of the valuable aid of their beloved brother, Mr. John Stewart, one of the permanent members of the Board and Trustees of the Fund. The Council are called upon not to fill his place, but to supply the vacancy by the election of a successor at its present session. The list of beneficiaries is now as follows:

Mrs. William C. Meredith and child, Mrs. Hoxton, Mrs. Weddell, Mrs. Steptoe, each $200; Mrs. William H. Pendleton, $175; Mrs. J. P. McGuire, Mrs. Caldwell, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Okeson, Mrs. H. Stringfellow, Sr., Mrs. J. H. Morrison, Mrs. Edward S. Gregory, and the children of the Rev Andrew Fisher, each $150; Mrs. John Wingfield, $100; Mrs. E. B. McGuire, $60.

CHURCHILL J. GIBSON, Secretary.

N. B.—The parishes have not contributed this year as much as they did the last—only $789.

The report was referred to the Standing Committee on the Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Gibson, Mr. Joseph Bryan was elected to fill the vacancy on the Board of Managers, occasioned by the death of Mr. John Stewart.

The Rev. W. C. Latané offered the following:

After divine service the Council was called to order by the Bishop.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The Secretary reported that, prior to the meeting of the Council, he had received the following communication from the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and that he had acknowledged the same in the name of the Council. He moved that the letter be spread upon the Journal, and it was so ordered.

Greetings from Dioceses of Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Episcopal Rooms, 1102 Walnut Street,
PHILADELPHIA, MAY 13, 1885.

Very truly and respectfully,

The Secretary then reported that a delegation from West Virginia was present to extend to us the congratulations of that Diocese, and moved that they be at once received.

On motion, the thanks of the Council were returned to Mr. Whittaker for his generous offer, which was accepted by the Council, and the Secretary was instructed to notify Mr. Whittaker of the Council's action.

Mr. L. M. Blackford moved that the Rev. Dr. Hubbard and Mr. H. W. Sheffey be appointed a committee to respond to the communications of the Dioceses of Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

respectfully report that while they appreciate the delicacy of feeling which prompted his resignation, arising out of the difficulty of performing, at his advanced age, the full work of his office and of the inadequacy of the revenues of the Diocese to meet the charges upon the Treasury, your Committee are unwilling to lose entirely the services of one who has done so much to enrich the archives of the Diocese with recovered records and most valuable contributions to its history, and trusting that, in the discharge of the lighter duties which he will hereafter be expected to perform, our faithful and learned brother will still be able, in the field in which he lives, to do much for the Diocese, and even "in his old age" to continue to "bring forth fruit" to its honor and God's glory, your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the resignation of the office of Historiographer of the Diocese, tendered by Dr. Slaughter, be not accepted, and that he be requested, without taxing his strength with burdensome work, to continue, as far as may be, his efforts to illustrate the history of the Diocese and to increase the value of its permanent records.

2. That for such services as Dr. Slaughter may render, in the manner indicated in the foregoing resolution, the Treasurer pay him at the rate of two hundred dollars for the current year and his necessary expenses.

Committee.

The first resolution appended to the report was adopted.

The second resolution was referred to the Finance Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Gibson, from the Standing Committee on Sunday Schools, presented the following:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Standing Committee on Sunday Schools would respectfully report that in their attempt last year to gather, by circular, the statistics of the Sunday schools of the Diocese, they were so discouraged that they had no heart to repeat the experiment.

Our list of questions, carefully prepared, were intended to bring out important facts concerning the condition of this all-important work—the training of the young in the ways of Godliness. Not more than half the parishes were heard from. Many, and those representing perhaps the majority of children, failed to respond. No trustworthy conclusions, therefore, could be arrived at. We content ourselves, therefore, by asking the Council, at its present session, so to amend the "Form of Parochial Report," on the cover of the JOURNAL that it may bring into more prominence the Sunday school work of the Diocese. We suggest that these items be inserted, "Scholars habitually attending Divine Service," "Number confirmed and become communicants," "Number of catechizings by the Minister."

 Report of Committee on Parochial Reports.

Respectfully submitted,

CHURCHILL J. GIBSON,
On behalf of the Committee.

8:15 P. M.

The Council met, and after service, conducted by the Rev. Peregrine Wroth, of Baltimore, Md., was addressed upon the subject of "The Theological Seminary of Virginia," by the Right Rev. Bishop Peterkin (his address being read by the Rev. R. A. Gibson), and by the Rev. J. E. Grammer, D. D., of Baltimore, Md.

SATURDAY, MAY 23d, 1885.

The Council assembled at 10 A. M. for divine service.

Morning prayer was read by the Rev. J. E. Poindexter.

The Rev. C. J. Gibson, D. D., then delivered an address on "Memorials of the Deceased Bishops of Virginia."

After the address the Council was called to order by the Bishop.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

Mr. W. W. Old, from the Committee on the Brotherhood, presented the following:

The Committee on the Brotherhood beg leave to say that they have carefully examined the several papers submitted to their consideration, and report as follows:

The statement of the account of the Brotherhood, with Mr. A. Y. Stokes, Treasurer, is duly attested by the proper committee of examination, and found sustained by proper vouchers. A balance of $1,876.89 remains on hand.

The President, Major D. N. Walker, in presenting his fifteenth annual report, congratulates the Brotherhood on the fact that during the past year there has been no death among its Clerical members.

"The collections of last year indicated a reliable membership of about 800. To increase this, and in accordance with a suggestion made at the last Council," the Rev. Frank Stringfellow, one of the evangelists, was, in October last, appointed general agent. Mr. Stringfellow has secured nearly 200 members, and is satisfied he could secure an equal number each year without serious injury to his regular work.

Mr. Stringfellow is of opinion, in which this Committee entirely concurs, that the cause can only be duly presented through agents, and we cannot too strongly urge upon the Clergy the importance of having a representative of the Brotherhood in every Parish. We are not aware of any mode in which more good, with the same expenditure of effort, can be accomplished.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. W. OLD,

P. H. POWERS,

Committee.

The Rev. R. A. Goodwin, from the Committee on Parochial Reports, reported against the resolution submitted at yesterday's session by Mr. Woolnough. The report was approved.

The Rev. Dr. Kinsolving, from the Committee on New Parishes, presented the following :

The Committee on New Parishes respectfully report that they have had under consideration a petition from St. John's Church, Pulaski county, asking for the establishment of a new Parish, to be composed mainly of the western portion of West Augusta Parish, and a small part of Montgomery Parish. The petition states that there is no Vestry in the first-named Parish to be consulted ; but there being no evidence that the Vestry of Montgomery Parish has consented to the proposed division, the committee cannot recommend that the petition be granted. The petition from Fredericksville Parish, Albemarle county, was withdrawn.

O. A. KINSOLVING, Chairman.

The report was approved by the Council.

The Rev. Dr. Packard presented the report of the Committee on the State of the Church :

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

At this Centennial Council, your committee cannot forbear contrasting the present state of the Church in Virginia with its feeble condition seventy years ago, at Bishop Moore's election, from which time the revival of the Church may be dated.

Report of Committee on State of the Church.

At that meeting there were present seven clergymen and seventeen laymen. Now we have about three hundred Clerical and Lay Delegates in attendance upon this Council. The small number of communicants then has increased to more than 15,000. "The little one has become a thousand."

From the addresses of the Bishops and from the Parochial reports, we have great reason to thank God for the continued and increased prosperity of the Diocese.

The confirmations have been over 1,500 more than ever before in our history, and of these 233 are colored.

In a year of drought and scarcity the contributions have not fallen off, and our Diocesan Missions, have greatly increased. Numbers and material growth are not the only or best measure of true prosperity, but we feel gratified that the spiritual has kept pace with the material prosperity.

At no time in the history of the Church has a more faithful and hard working band of clergy labored for her advancement, nor, we believe, has the Gospel been more clearly and fully presented to her people. While preaching salvation by Christ only, and urging their hearers to be careful to maintain good works, they have taught that the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ to the praise and glory of God, can only be brought forth by the aid of the renewing, sanctifying influences of the Holy Spirit. No other foundation indeed can be laid than Jesus Christ, yet we can only be built up on our most holy faith by the constant assistance of the Holy Spirit. In vain do ministers urge their hearers to greater earnestness in religion, unless they teach them that God will give His spirit to them that ask Him to help their infirmities, and enable them to do what without Him they cannot do.

Our Diocese, with her Bishops and Clergy, may justly claim to have ever contended earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints, and that love which is the bond of perfectness has, in a marked degree, united the Church in Virginia. This has been, and is at once her glory and her strength, and we pray that this spirit may increase more and more, and be perpetual. United in this faith and love we shall firmly stand, divided we must surely fall.

We observe with satisfaction that the ranks of our clergy are, in a great measure, recruited from her own sons, who have been trained like Timothy in the hereditary faith of their parents, who, with filial love, naturally know and care for her needs. It is chiefly from sons reared in pious homes that the Lord of the harvest calls and sends forth laborers into his harvest. In such a home Bishop Meade was nurtured and prepared for his great work. We read that Hannibal's father made him, at the age of nine years, swear before the altar, love to his country and undying hatred to Rome. So Christian parents should bring their sons to the altar and make them swear eternal love to Christ and his Church, and undying warfare against all the enemies of the truth. For lack of this early dedication to the Lord the Church laments the fewness of the candidates for her ministry.

Report of Committee on State of the Church.

In this connection, we urge the importance of family worship. We fear the fire has gone out on many family altars ; the business and the pleasures of the world have been so pressing, that no time is taken for collecting the family together, and uniting them in the presence of God, thus offering an acceptable morning and evening sacrifice. Those who like Joshua determine, "As for me and for my house we will serve the Lord," may expect a blessing on their children's children. A family thus united on earth may become a family in heaven—no wanderer lost.

In his address, the Bishop has spoken of the great importance and encouragement of the work among the colored people. This work increases with every year, as is shown by the large number of candidates for the ministry and by the large number confirmed. The building of churches for their use, the ever widening field, which each year opens to us, so that we can almost hear the voice of the Master saying, "I have set before thee an open door," the earnest zeal and devotion of those engaged in it, are all proofs of God's favor, and an earnest of its future success. We believe that the more intelligent and thoughtful of the colored race will turn to the Episcopal Church to find in her compact and effective organization, in her large and generous sympathy, in her orderly and decorous methods, and in her instructive and educational liturgy, the best and fullest answer to the needs of their people. The successful working of the Divinity School, at Petersburg, is a ground of encouragement in this department of the Church's work, for it promises to give us a pious and educated colored ministry. Without such a ministry we can hope for no great improvement among them. All who feel an interest in the welfare of this people should remember this institution, not only in their prayers, but in their offerings. This work must be done by those among whom they live, the responsibility is laid upon us, we cannot shake it off, and should not wait for aid from without.

Without considering other important points, which have been often brought before the Council, we close with the prayer that the Lord our God may be with us as he was with our fathers, and that he may never leave us nor forsake us.

Committee on Greeting from Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey, from the special Committee on the communications of greeting from the Dioceses of West Virginia and Pennsylvania, presented the following reports which were received and their resolutions adopted :

The undersigned committee appointed for the purpose, beg leave to commend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Council of the Diocese of Virginia desires to express cordial and grateful appreciation of the Centennial greeting so eloquently and affectionately tendered to the Diocese on yesterday by the shop and other deputies from the Diocese of West Virginia. In this, the hundredth anniversary of the orderly reorganization of the church in her borders in 1785, the Mother Diocese, with warm heart and maternal pride, returns the greeting of her daughter, and rejoices to count her as one of her jewels; and she humbly prays that the mother and the daughter may continue to walk together in love, and in the unity of common spirit to set forward and maintain the precious "faith once delivered to the saints."
2. That a copy of the foregoing resolution be delivered by the Secretary to the Bishop of West Virginia.

J. R. HUBARD,
HUGH W. SHEFFEY.

The undersigned committee appointed for the purpose, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions :

1. Resolved, That the Council of the Diocese of Virginia has received with grateful emotions the resolution of the Diocesan Convention of Pennsylvania, communicating its fraternal greetings on the occasions of Virginia's celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the orderly reorganization in 1785 of the Church which was planted at Jamestown at the dawn of Virginia's colonial life, and which, in its form of sound words, its holy orders, its solemn sacraments, its Scriptural teachings, its Protestant and conservative power, precious alike to Pennsylvania and Virginia, this Council trusts, may continue to rest securely upon the rock of our salvation as Centennial anniversaries successively roll by.
2. That a copy of the foregoing resolution be sent by the Secretary to the shop of Pennsylvania.

J. R. HUBARD,
HUGH W. SHEFFEY,

Mr. H. W. Sheffey, from the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute, presented the following :

Report of Trustees of Virginia Female Institute.

The Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute submit to the Council their annual report.

The interest on the debt of the Institute has been paid to the first day of April, 1885.

The reports of the Board of Directors, and of Mrs. Stuart, the Principal, show gratifying evidences of the success of the Institute and of increased favor and confidence among its patrons.

The number of boarding pupils is now fifty-five. For several months there were sixty.

The conduct of the pupils has, as usual, been lady-like and refined, their habits studious, and their health such as pure air, uniform temperature throughout the building, regular exercise and watchful care, have always secured for the inmates of the Institute.

The high grade of scholarship, heretofore established, has been maintained during the session in a manner most satisfactory to the Principal and Teachers; and for the next year a corps of skilled and competent instructors, including native teachers of the French and German languages, has been secured.

The Principal reports a steady increase of patronage from Virginia. It is gratifying to know that Church people in Virginia begin to realize that they have a Diocesan School entitled to their confidence and support.

Fifteen of the pupils were confirmed by the Bishop at his visitation in March last, a spectacle well calculated to enkindle a warmer interest in the school throughout the entire Diocese.

Deeply impressed with the importance of affording facilities within the means of clergymen for the education of their daughters, Mrs. Stuart offers to them instruction in all English branches without charge. In view of the concessions she proposes, it is believed that $200 will cover all necessary expenses of the year for such pupils. She appeals with earnestness to those whom God has blessed with wealth to aid in the work of securing education for the daughters of those who, out of their meagre salaries, cannot defray even the ordinary expenses of such education. She says: "Let some one who is able and willing come forward to the aid of those whose lives are being spent in a noble but self-sacrificing work—work for the Master's cause." The Trustees hope that this appeal will not be in vain.

Endowed Schools, Colleges and Universities for boys are found everywhere. Why should not some provision be made for lessening the cost of educating those upon whom the Church and the security of our Christian social and domestic life in the future so much depend? Even if ten Laymen could be found willing and able "to lend to the Lord" one hundred dollars each for such a noble object the beginning of a great and good work would be inaugurated.

The Trustees renew the expression of their approval of the management, educational advantages and elevating influences of the Institute.

As year after year the number of those presented to the Bishop for confir-

 Report of Finance Committee.

As increases, the conviction grows that the Diocesan School of Virginia becoming more and more not only a nursery of truly refined and noble education, but one of the missions of the Church for the ingathering of its daughters into the sacred fold.

Trustees recommend that the Council adopt the following resolution:

Resolved, That gratified to know that the Virginia Female Institute, one of the recognized Institutions of this Diocese, has entered upon a new career of usefulness with encouraging assurances of abundant success, the Council commends it to the continued patronage of the Diocese, and earnestly appeals with the Principal and the Trustees in appealing to those whom God has blessed with wealth to contribute of their abundance, so that those who give generous help may, at reduced rates of charge, at least secure the precious blessing of Christian education.

HUGH W. SHEFFEY, Secretary.

The report was received and its resolution adopted.

H. W. Sheffey presented the report of the Finance Committee:

The Committee on Finance respectfully report that they have examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese and found them correct and verified by proper vouchers.

There was to the credit of the Diocese at the commencement of the fiscal year of 1884-5, the sum of $974.78. The receipts on account of dues to the Contingent Fund last year were only $9,562.92. They should have amounted, leaving a reasonable margin for delinquencies, to $12,000. The amount due from the Diocese at the close of the present fiscal year was $1,865.46.

The delinquencies on Contingent Fund account last year amounted to $1,007, more than enough to discharge all indebtedness. The aggregate of delinquencies for the year 1883 was $2,402.91, showing for two years last past a total of delinquencies of $5,015.98. By the Treasurer's Report of 1882 the accumulations of delinquencies, prior to that year, amounted to $10,147.95, making a grand total of delinquencies up to 1884, of $15,163.93. Doubtless the serious habit of negligence in making full payments of Contingent Fund arose out of the fact that having but one Bishop to provide for, the income seemed to be, and was ample to meet current charges. And many do not appreciate the importance of laying by in store for the future a fund to bear the burden of unexpected charges, or to provide for the eventual maintenance of an Episcopal fund.

At the time is at hand when the matter of Diocesan support must be considered in a strictly business point of view; and, at the next session of Council, unless the appeal hereinafter made to the parishes and churches promptly and satisfactorily responded to, the question of rigid curtailment of expenses must be met and decided, that is, whether provision for the services of the evangelists and the historiographer shall be continued; whether the usual allowance to the examining chaplains shall be made, and how far the salaries of the secretaries may be diminished, and, lastly, whether the failure of the parishes and churches to make full payment of the assessments, shall compel us to lessen the compensation of our already poorly paid Bishops? It is sincerely hoped that this alternative of dire necessity will not be forced upon the Council by the carelessness, indifference or supposed inability of debtors to the Contingent Fund. It may be, and doubtless there are those in the Diocese who are personally unable to pay the assessment of one dollar for each communicant. But it is true that, with but few exceptions, these are in churches or parishes in the Diocese which have not the ability to make good the delinquencies of poor communicants. This is done in many parishes, and should be done in every case, where the ability exists: and congregations should feel it to be their bounden duty to see to it that the Contingent Fund is paid as an honest debt, necessary to be paid for the support of the Diocese; and it will not do for the rich man to pay his dollar, and to allow his church to be returned delinquent because some of his brethren are too poor to raise the dollar. Let those who are able in each parish bear the burden—sub-divided it will be trifling, but thrown in a grand aggregate upon the Diocese the delinquencies threaten serious consequences. In this centennial year of the history of the Church in this Diocese, let us not only rejoice in the rich inheritance which is ours, but feel revived in us the noble sensitiveness of our fathers to the honorable obligation to pay our debts, and chiefly those due to the Church and to God.

And if our people will in earnest set to work to do their duty in this regard the finances of the Diocese need be in no difficulty.

If for every communicant one dollar was paid the income would be, say..... $15,000 00
 Deduct for delinquencies, 15 per cent.—that is, $2,250, and we have an income of..... $12,750 00
 This surely should be reliable.

Now the expenses are estimated as follows :

Salaries and residence of Bishops.....	$ 7,750 00
Evangelists.....	1,600 00
Secretaries.....	450 00
Chaplains.....	300 00
Historiographer (reduced).....	200 00
Traveling expenses, &c.....	1,245 89
	$11,545 89
Add for extra cost of Journal this year.....	300 00
	$11,845 89

 Report of Finance Committee.

Add amount due the Treasurer.....	$ 1,865 46
Total sum to be provided for.....	$13,711 35
Estimated income.....	12,750 00
Deficiency for 1886.....	$ 961 35

A small effort on the part of already delinquent parishes would meet this amount. At any rate, your committee prefer, at present, not to advise reduction of salaries, except in the case of the Historiographer, whose duties are to be so much lessened. This, they recommend, shall be fixed at $200; the other salaries they recommend to be continued as they were last year. Let the Diocese stand as it were on trial for the ensuing year, and let its fifteen thousand communicants determine whether for lack of means the work of the Church shall be curtailed, and its growth stopped on our borders. The committee renew their last year's appeal, which was in these words: "The committee earnestly advise and recommend that the parishes and congregations which are now in arrear on contingent fund account, use their most strenuous exertions to pay at least a part of what is over due from them, and in future to allow no such accumulations of indebtedness to the fund, which, if continued, threatens serious embarrassment in the near future to the finances of the Diocese."

The committee ask that the recommendations of this report be approved.

Respectfully submitted,

HUGH W. SHEFFEY, Chairman.

The report being received and its recommendations being under consideration the Rev. H. M. Jackson offered the following :

Custodian of Matters Pertaining to History of Diocese.

As it is a matter of interest to us to have gathered and preserved for future use all duly authenticated facts in reference to the past history of the Church in this Diocese which may now be had, and as many papers, books and other matters of interest and value have been and will be sent to the historiographer of the Diocese, which, as such, are the property of the Diocese, and which, in the event of his disability by death or otherwise, before a successor shall be appointed, there is no one to claim in her name.

Resolved, That a permanent Standing Committee of three be appointed by the Bishop, to be known as the keeper or custodian of the matters pertaining to the history of the Diocese, of which committee the historiographer shall be ex-officio a member, whose duty it shall be to gather, hold and keep in safety, in the name of the Diocese of Virginia, all such matters as shall come into their hands as such, to have copied in a bound volume all written or printed manuscripts of value, which have no known duplicate, and of which there is from any cause danger of loss, and that the historiographer be requested to endorse on all books and papers, "the property of the Diocese," together with his own correspondence as such officer, and that they are to be handed to said committee in any event where it is necessary for the Diocese to claim such property.

Resolved, That the Rector or person in charge of any Parish in this Diocese be and is hereby earnestly requested, in person or by proxy, to use all diligence to gather and report in a proper form for preservation to said committee at the next annual Council all well authenticated facts in reference to the past history of his Parish, and such a sketch of the lives of the ministers, who have had it in charge, as shall show their work and character, the leading hand of God with them, and the course which they severally found most useful in advancing the prosperity of the Church as the spouse of Christ, in gathering souls into the fold of God, and training them by work, instruction and discipline to occupy their position as lights in the world.

On motion of Mr. H. W. Sheffey, further consideration of the subject was postponed to the next Council.

The Rev. R. A. Goodwin offered the following :

Carried.

The Council then united in singing the 315th Hymn—

“Blest be the tie that binds.”

Prayer was offered by the Bishop, and the Council adjourned sine die.

REMARKS.—In connection with this work is the work of St. Matthews mission, sustained, in a great measure, by the energy and activity of Edward B. Ambler, Esq., our lay delegate, and which is signed to result in a new Church building, to take the place of the old colonial Church of St. Matthew, now gone to ruins. Here a Sunday School has been kept alive during the snows of winter, and regular services are held during summer.

REMARKS.—This Church has been completed, with the exception of plastering and painting, which we should like to have done this year. The neighbors, white and colored, rendered valuable assistance in the way of furnishing their teams to haul the lumber, &c. This Church, valued at $500 as it stands, is in debt only to the amount of about $75.

REMARKS.—The well-conducted mission school for colored children, under the care of Mrs. Burgwin, is in the upper part of this parish. It is doing a very efficient work and is worthy of all commendation. The attendance on the day school ranges from sixty-five to eighty-five. From one hundred and fifty to two hundred attend the Sunday School conducted by the same excellent Christian woman. She deserves the good-will of all in her laborious and self-sacrificing work.

REMARKS.—During the winter I started a mission in the lower part of the town, where a Sunday School meets every afternoon. There are about fifty scholars, and I think the school will grow. Miss King, assisted by Mrs. Clark, continues her self denying work among the colored people. During the year this mission has been supplied by Mr. Walter Burwell, a student of the Theological School at Petersburg. The Ladies' Society of St. James' Parish, Newtown, Long Island, have kindly given a lectern, font, two chairs and a communion table.

REMARKS.—The colored day and Sunday schools at Antrim Church, near Halifax Courthouse, continue in a flourishing condition. There, teachers are prepared and sent forth, and leaders among the race are prepared for a higher grade of usefulness. In addition to services at the two points named, services are also held at others as occasion may require. Monthly, as heretofore, at Cunningham's Chapel, on the North Carolina line, where we have interesting and encouraging congregations. It is the habit of the rector to meet at intervals, at points remote from each other, the teachers and leaders of the colored people for instruction, and, therefore, his duties cover a larger area than many imagine.

REMARKS.—The monthly appointment at Enon Baptist Church is continued, also at Hollins Institute. Good congregations and good results. Our rectory, reported last year, is now paid for. We were assisted to the extent of $400 by Rev. Dr. Saul. His contribution was made conditional upon an increase of $100 per annum to the rector's salary. This the vestry promised from March 1st, 1885. We have on hand a Church Building Fund of something over $350. This is not reported above. It was obtained mainly through the efforts of Mr. John Dabney outside of this parish.

REMARKS.—Since last Council. a Mission Church has been established at Lynnwood, twelve miles east of Harrisonburg, on the Shenandoah river. Services had been held by the rector one Sunday afternoon in the month during the longer days of two seasons, when, in October last, Rev. G. Mosley Murray assumed charge in connection with his work at Luray. Since then the Mission has been organized, a Sunday School established, and services held regularly two Sundays a month, in a country school-house. The items of report included in the above are, salary and expenses for nine months, $100; Diocesan Missionary Society, $10; infant baptisms, 12; Sunday School teachers, 8; scholars, 50. The work is in a community for the most part very destitute; the congregations are large and the interest increasing. There is a class of twelve awaiting confirmation.

Respectfully submitted,

• Miscellaneous—General Summary.

SAN MARINO, May 16, 1885.

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D.,
Richmond, Va.:

REV. AND DEAR BISHOP,—Having entered upon my duties as rector, since my ordination, in January last, I scarcely know how to make a correct report. I find Trinity Chapel (colored) reported in the last JOURNAL, by Mr. Cain, as missionary, and do not know that I ought to report it, though Mrs. Jennings enquired of me if I would not, and sent me a statement of her work, by my request, which I enclose.

Since my ordination, have preached and administered the Holy Communion at St. Andrew's Church, Lawrenceville, and also for Rev. J. S. Russel's congregations (colored.) I still continue my appointments at Spony and Grange Hall, Dinwiddie, and am encouraged in my work: Baptisms at Spony: infants white 3; Marriages 1; Baptisms at Grange Hall: infants white 5; Marriages 1. Have continued to labor in St. Andrew's Parish, Brunswick county, but suppose my work in the parish will be embodied in the report of that parish made by register.

Respectfully and affectionately yours,

E. B. JONES.

WEDNESDAY, May 19th, 8 P. M.

The Council met at 8 o'clock, in Committee of the Whole, for the consideration of the subject of Diocesan Missions, Bishop Whittle presiding.

The Rev. Pike Powers, D. D., Secretary of the Executive Committee, read the Annual Report as follows:

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF VIRGINIA.

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society respectfully report, that they have aided forty-seven regular Missionaries and Rectors of weak Parishes since the Council of 1885, and that the appropriations to these beneficiaries of the Society have amounted to $8,725, per annum, or an average of about $185, though the whole of this amount has not been paid out because some of these appropriations have been standing for less than a year.

Besides this, the Committee have paid to Rev. F. Stringfellow, evangelist, $500 for six months' service, from 1st June to 1st December, 1885; to Rev. Geo. C. Sutton, $133.33, being at the rate of $800 a year, for services while in charge of St. Stephen's Church and School two months from the 20th of September to the 20th November, 1885, after the resignation of Rev. Giles B. Cooke; to several worthy ministers of the Diocese who were in need, $400, and they have also appropriated $100 to Rev. Job Turner, Missionary to Deaf Mutes in the Southern States, and paid $30 to Walter Burwell, Divinity Student, Petersburg, for his board while doing colored work at Hope Chapel, Manchester, during his vacation in the summer of 1885, making specials to the amount of $1,063.33 and the total amount appropriated, and the greater part paid out, since the last Council, $9,788.33.

The amount of existing appropriations which must be provided for if they are to be continued, is $8,725. We left the Council last year with a balance on hand of $3,153.52 according to the report of the Treasurer. We have received since $8,496.48, and there is a balance in the hands of the Treasurer of $2,444.32 to begin the year with.

We have more vacant Parishes and churches and more ministers to aid than a year ago. In several cases we have had to increase the stipend, in not one to make a reduction, and have had but one resignation of a stipend, that of Rev. Wm. B. Lee, of Gloucester. The cry comes to us from almost every quarter that the Parishes are getting poorer every year from deaths and removals, from bad crops and from the general depression of business. They must be kept up by the help of the Diocese at large and by this Committee, as the agent of the Diocese, or they will die out. We have the men and we have the money; but men are nothing without the Spirit of consecration—the will to work for the Master and His church, and the readiness to deny themselves if need be, and to endure hardness as good soldiers of Jesus Christ. And money is nothing, if it is kept locked up; nothing for Christ, if it is used only for the world, the flesh, and the devil; nothing for the Church and the Gospel, if it is made and employed only to enrich children and to give them the means of indolence, self-indulgence, and, perhaps, of vice. Many of the Parishes are, doubtless, poor, and some of them getting poorer. But we doubt if, as a rule, they are doing what they are able to do. Then, there is money in the cities, in the centres of business, and we ought to get for the Lord's work a great deal more than we do. "Give as the Lord prospers you," is the Apostle's rule, but that means a liberal beginning, and afterwards a proportionate increase, proportioned to increase of prosperity; otherwise, a man might give one cent when he makes $100, two cents when he makes $200, and so on, and this would make the rule a nullity and a farce. We could save enough every year in dress, in entertainments, in weddings, in funerals, and in the merest superfluities, to carry on the Lord's work, and yet have enough left to dress becomingly, to do all things needful decently and in order, and to have as much reasonable, Christian enjoyment, as is good for body and soul.

The missionaries aided by the Committee in the course of the year are as follows:

Rev. Messrs. P. Brooke, Westmoreland; J. J. Clopton, Manchester; G. B. Cooke, Petersburg; T. W. Cain, Richmond; R. R. Claiborne, Culpeper; W. M. Clarke, Amherst; L. R. Combs, Orange and Louisa; H. L. Derby, Lancaster; B. Dennis, Pulaski and Tazewell; G. M. Funsten, Henry; J. B. Funsten, Richmond; R. A. Goodwin, Petersburg; C. Grubb, Hanover; J. C. Hobson, Petersburg; J. H. Hundley, Essex; J. E. Hammond, Montgomery; A. Jaeger, Campbell; W. C. Latane, Westmoreland; J. P. Lawrence, Amherst; Wm. B. Lee, Gloucester; T. E. Locke, Albemarle; N. F. Marshall, Nottoway; J. M. Meredith, Spotsylvania; S. S. Moore, Fairfax; G. W. Murray, Rockingham and Page; John McGill, Ashland; W. N. Meade, Elizabeth City; A. A. McDonough, Fauquier; J. J. abundant reason to believe that our missionaries as a body are zealous, laborious, self-denying, and efficient.

Respectfully submitted,

The Bishop then read his Annual Address :

ADDRESS OF BISHOP WHITTLE.

REV. AND DEAR BRETHREN :

For the first time in my experience we are permitted to assemble in our Annual Council (the Ninety-first of the Diocese) without our clerical ranks having been broken during the preceding year by the death of a single one of its members. For this and for all His unnumbered mercies, temporal and spiritual, may God's holy name be praised.

The Council which met two years ago in Winchester appointed a committee to arrange for celebrating the one hundredth anniversary of the organization of our church in Virginia. This celebration was held from May 20th to 24th inclusive in St. Paul's and St. John's churches, Richmond, and I must congratulate you on its having been a grand success. There was a larger attendance of clerical and lay delegates than ever before in the history of the Diocese, and many visitors were present from within and from beyond our borders. A number of the papers and addresses which were read and delivered have been published in a handsome volume by our good friend, Thomas Whittaker, Esq., of New York, which is well worth possessing, as being a valuable contribution to the history of our beloved church. It is to be hoped that the admirable recital, on that memorable occasion, of God's dealings with the Episcopal Church in Virginia during the past one hundred years, made a deep and lasting impression for good on many minds and hearts.

Bishop's Report.

I now proceed to give as briefly as possible such information in regard to the work and state of the Diocese as the Canons require shall be laid before you.

The church is a commodious, comfortable and very pretty building, and its completion opens to us a new field and supplies a great want in a large community. The very sad and really alarming fact is developed by the above summary, that there has been a great falling off in the number of young men seeking to enter the ministry of our church. Last year twenty-seven candidates for Priest's orders were reported, while now we have but fourteen. And it will be seen that there is a corresponding decrease in the number of students at the Seminary. I say this is alarming, because it indicates, in my judgment, a declining and low state of religion as the cause; and what is to become of us without an adequate supply of ministers? And if we do not find and educate men at home, where are they to be had? In time past we have not only provided for ourselves, but largely for others also, eleven having been lost to us during the last year by removals to other Dioceses. I would earnestly beg the attention of parents and pastors to this all-important matter. While, in my opinion, no one should ever urge or advise another to enter the ministry, except under very peculiar circumstances, yet every young man who consecrates himself, soul and body, to the service of Christ in the rite of confirmation, and thereby becomes a communicant of the church, might have his mind directed to the subject, and be induced to seriously and prayerfully consider whether he is not called of God to this sacred office. And this reminds me how necessary it is that all our people should contribute to the utmost of their ability to sustain the two most important of our Diocesan societies—the Education and the Missionary Society—the former of which is engaged in the good work of sending forth laborers into the harvest, and the latter of helping to support, and thus to retain, more than one-third of the whole number of those who are already there.

The work amongst the colored people continues to increase in interest and magnitude. Your committee on the subject will report a plan for its better organization, which, if adopted, I trust will remove some of the difficulties attending it. Rev. R. A. Goodwin is now in charge of St. Stephen's colored church and school in Petersburg, and they are in a more prosperous condition than ever before. Four students of the Divinity School, in the same city, have been admitted to Deacon's orders, and are now at work, and others expect to be ordained during the summer. Rev. Thomas Spencer has been obliged to resign the charge of St. John's Church, that he may devote all his time to the instruction of the theological students. I mentioned in my last address that the Legislature of the State had incorporated the "Bishop Payne Divinity and Industrial School," as the charter states, "for the purpose of educating colored persons for the ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church, or for any secular business," and the Rev. James Saul, D. D., a generous friend of the negroes and Virginia, has given about five thousand dollars towards the purchase of a suitable location and buildings for its use. Money is greatly needed for the support of teachers and students, and contributions for these objects are solicited from all who desire to promote the best interests of our church and of the colored race.

The Trustees respectively of the Theological Seminary and High School and the Virginia Female Institute, and the managers of the different societies of the Diocese, will inform you of the condition of those institutions.

I have united with the other members of the committee in their report on the proposed alterations in the Prayer Book, but have not changed my opinion of the whole movement as expressed a year ago. In my judgment, the best thing for the Council to do is to instruct your deputies to the General Convention to vote against them all.

Commending you, dear brethren, to God, and to the word of His grace, I pray that the Holy Spirit may in all things enlighten our minds and direct and rule our hearts.

The Assistant Bishop then read his Annual Address :

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY :

With gratitude to the providence of God I have to report a year of work as Assistant Bishop of the Diocese without interruption, except in two instances, by slight indisposition and by accident in travel. opportunity offered, twenty-eight times in different churches in the Diocese. I have consecrated six churches.

September 8th.—Emmanuel Church, Eagle Rock, Botetourt county, was consecrated. Rev. Messrs. F. Stringfellow, Valentine Jones, J. H. Williams, assisted in the service. The Rev. Dr. Stanger, of Cincinnati, who had encouraged and contributed generously towards the building of the church, preached the sermon. To the energy and earnestness of the Rev. F. Stringfellow, the gathering of this congregation and the erection of the church building are largely due. The Church is judiciously located on the Richmond and Alleghany railroad in one of the most picturesque portions of the valley of the James River, with a growing village around it, and a populous country neighborhood; it affords a most promising mission field. Beyond Eagle Rock is Clifton Forge, the terminus of the Richmond and Alleghany railroad—a railroad centre and a growing town. With missionary effort a congregation could be gathered and a church built at this important point. There are four vacant churches and two promising mission stations immediately on the Richmond and Alleghany railroad, between Bremo Bluff and Clifton Forge. With the railroad as a vehicle of communication, one practical and energetic minister could accomplish great good, and build up permanent congregations. If aided, they will live and grow. If left without ministrations, they will be lost to the Episcopal Church. These opening fields are calls upon the missionary spirit of the Diocese, that involve responsibility and earnest effort.

On the 11th of November, Grace Church, Mecklenburg county, was consecrated. The Rev. Mr. Pettigrew, of the Diocese of North Carolina, the beloved Pastor of this little flock, was present, and assisted in the service.

On the 25th of November, Holy Innocents' Church, in Burkeville, Nottoway county, was consecrated. The Rev. N. F. Marshall, the Rector, to whose efforts the completion of the enterprise is due, was present, and assisted in the service. The Rev. F. Stringfellow and Dr. Joseph Southall organized this effort, which in two years has developed into a comely and commodious church and an earnest congregation.

On the 13th of March, All-Saints' Church, Goochland, was consecrated. The Rev. Messrs. P. M. Boyden (Rector), B. M. Randolph, Martin Johnson, and W. B. Everett were present, and assisted in the service. Rev. Dr. Powers, of Richmond, preached the consecration sermon. By uniting with St. Mary's Church and Protestant Episcopal House, it is hoped that this new field may secure a regular ministry.

On the 22d of March, the Ritchie Memorial Church, Pikesville, was consecrated. It is a gift to the Diocese of Maryland from Mrs. Charlotte C. Gittings, of Baltimore. It is dedicated to the memory of all of its appointments, and our sincere thanks are tendered to the generous donor. The Rector, the Rev. T. Jones, Rev. Dr. G. L. Jackson, Rev. David Barr, Rev. Robert Goodwin, Rev. George Stodenville were present, and assisted in the service.

On the 3d of May, Quantico Church, Dennington, was consecrated. The new Church is built upon the site of the old Church which fell in ruins in the year 1813. The persons assisted at the service were the first presented since the year 1813. The Church cost $1,200. It represents the labor and devotion of the Rector and people, and the kind help of friends in Maryland and Baltimore. It is comforting to hear the voice of the Church on the spot where it has been sleeping for more than half a century. The Church must press out to possess new fields, but it must not neglect the old. Isaiah saw the spirit of the Gospel seven centuries before the day of Pentecost, and he describes us as the mission of the Gospel. "The Gentiles shall come to thy light; the eyes of strangers shall build up thy walls; they shall build the old walls the desolations of many generations." Around this Church is a large mission field, without Gospel ministrations it would be a barren field at long intervals, which render them inefficient in any permanent impression upon the community. I may mention in passing that my visit to old Aquia Church, in the neighborhood of the old one mentioned, impressed me with the reviving reality of those of the Episcopal Church in Virginia. When the Rector of St. George's Church, Fredericksburg, in 1860, I visited the Church with Bishop Johns. It was then almost a ruin with a sparse congregation. To-day the old building is renovated and strong for a new work, and filled with an earnest active congregation.

My work during the year has brought me into contact with the various congregations and missions and schools of the Diocese. I have visited the Church and Parish School in Petersburg in charge of the Rev. Mr. Goodwin; the Theological Seminary in charge of the Rev. Mr. Spencer; Mrs. Brent's School and Church at Geo-donsville; the Mission Station in Nottoway county; Mrs. Jennings' School and Chapel in Lunenburg county; St. James' Colored Church, Brunswick county; St. Paul's Colored Church at Lawrenceville, now with a rectory completed; and St. Mark's Colored Church, Mecklenburg county; St. Philip's Church, Richmond, and Hope Chapel, Manchester, and Holy Innocents' Chapel, Norfolk. The confirmations at these visits have been given in the list that has just been read; the aggregate is 123. If you of the clergy and laity could visit this work as we, the Bishops, have to do, you would need nothing from us to win for it your confidence and to touch your consciences with the conviction that it is a great mission work which God has given this generation to do. I wish to repeat here some extracts from a published communication of my own, suggested by the visits recorded in this report:

“A doubt exists in the minds of many of our people as to the adaptation of our Church to the religious education of this race. That doubt is theoretical. Wherever the practical effort has been made the results have dissipated the impression. The Episcopal Church, more perhaps than any other, relies upon the saving power of Christian education. From the dawn of intelligence in the child, it associates with the story of redemption the teachings of the commandments of the decalogue. Its catechism, after the creed, teaches the duty towards God and our neighbor as springing out of the regenerating power of the gospel, and as the mark of the new man in Christ Jesus. It teaches the child, and the adult, too, that his salvation by the gospel involves not only the regeneration of his spiritual life, but the reconstruction of his whole conception of moral duty; at the same time giving him new foundation upon which that moral duty is to rest. It teaches that a Christian is not only one who prays in private and in public, who reads his Bible, who spends time in religious thought and meditation, who is studying to work out his salvation with fear and trembling, but he must be truthful and honest and just and temperate and pure and self-controlled and kindly and loving towards his fellow-men. The negro, and indeed all the races in the lower stages of civilization, tend towards a divorce of religion from morality. That tendency exists in various forms among all classes of the white race, modified and controlled by long ages of discipline by Christian law and public sentiment, by the churches and the Bible. That superstition belongs not only to the negro race, but it is the inveterate tendency of all the races. With the negro it is the inheritance of generations of paganism from the dawn of his history. The proposition that he is incapable of education out of a religion of physical excitation of antinomianism and superstitious emotionalism is equivalent to the proposition that he is incapable of salvation by the gospel. Surely only the ignorant and the unthinking among us can adopt such a conclusion. The church that addresses itself to the mighty task of bridging over the gulf between Christian faith and Christian morals, in the mind of the negro, is the one best adapted to bear to him the message of the gospel.

“If I were a politician I would advocate the Christian education of the colored population, as the strongest ground for the stability of our political institutions. An acknowledgement of the awful authority of God and obedience to the ten commandments as His law, must be recognized by all political parties as lessening the difficulties of human governments and securing readier obedience to human laws. As a political economist I would advocate the evangelizing of the race, as contributing to national wealth and material prosperity. To have in a nation, a vast population with thriftless habits, living from hand to mouth, with no instincts to accumulate property, clothed with the right of suffrage but with no interest in the laws for the protection of property, must always be an element of danger and a barrier to material progress. Christianity and Christianity alone will teach them the divine authority of marriage, the sacredness of property, purity in the control of their bodies, honesty in their relations with their fellow-men, industry in their common toil, and all the virtues that contribute to the wealth of nations. If I were engaged in a trade I would advocate their Christian education, for as they are elevated by the power of the gospel all the conditions of their temporal life would be progressively improved. They would live in better houses, they would wear better clothes, they would accumulate property which would advance the resources of the State and diminish taxation. They would be better customers of the merchants in our cities and towns, as their wants would increase through the refining influences of a Christian civilization, and thus contribute to the prosperity of the whole community. But these are not the motives which impel the Christian Church in the work of their evangelization. These incidental blessings follow in the pathway of the Christian faith, but they are as nothing compared with the infinite blessings which Christ brings to all of the children of men. We must refuse to estimate the value of our missionary efforts in terms of material progress. Could we train the uncivilized race in all the arts and the literature and the social refinements of the foremost nations of Europe, could we banish poverty and spread the blessings of wealth and enlightenment over all the nations that sit in darkness, we would have done nothing after all compared to the work of bringing souls home to God and making them heirs through Christ of eternal life and glory.

“ The conversion of the heathen abroad and at home may add to our commercial prosperity, may lighten the cost of government by diminishing crime and taxation to support poorhouses, and increase the wealth of the nation. (!) With what withering contempt would the early apostles have regarded such a conception of the motive to preach Christ to the lost world.

“ We must believe that these people have souls to be saved ; we must believe that Christ lays upon Christians the responsibility of bringing these wanderers home to God. This alone can kindle the enthusiasm and inspire the self-sacrifice needed for the work. If we do that, Christ will take the future of the two races, living together in the same home, into His own hands. He will cause them to dwell together in peace, each filling its own sphere and working out its own destiny. He will solve the problems that statesmen cannot solve with reference to the relations and development of the races under a common government ; He will bless us in the great work He has given us to do, and open the way, perhaps in the near future, for our colored population, Christianized and civilized, to bear to their own race, in the long darkened continent of Africa, the salvation of the Gospel for the life here and the life that is to come.”

The views here expressed have been confirmed by contact with this work, and reflection upon the problems it involves, during thirteen years of my ministry. I would call the attention of the clergy and laity to the special organ of our work in Virginia, published in Petersburg, and edited by one of our colored Theological students. It is an interesting and most creditable paper, and by subscribing to it we would furnish ourselves with information of the progress of the work, and encourage a Missionary cause.

Assistant Bishop's Address.

Theological Seminary Chapel on the 26th of June, I ordained to the priesthood, Charles John Fair, Wiley Jones Page, and William Rutherford Savage.

At a special service at Grace Church, Petersburg, I ordained to the priesthood, Joseph C. Jones, J. Cannon Hobson, and George S. Somerville. These brethren were ordained in the presence of members of their several congregations, and in the community which constituted the field of their work during the term of their diaconate. It would be well to give to congregations in the Diocese, when practicable, the opportunity to witness and to participate in this noble and solemn service of the Church. I must not neglect to express my thanks to friends throughout the Diocese for offers of hospitality which I have been unable for the most part to accept. As I visit the clergy of Virginia, in their homes and their parishes, I am impressed with the fidelity and religious earnestness of their ministry. We should be devoutly thankful for the loving confidence in our parishes between pastors and people, and for our exemption from disturbed relations between ministers and organizations which have afflicted other Dioceses. There is an ordination vow which we of the clergy should keep ever in remembrance in all the duties and relations of the Christian ministry. In the most solemn moment of our lives each one of us was asked this question, "Will you maintain and set forward, as much as lieth in you, quietness, peace and love among all Christian people, and especially among them that are, or shall be, committed to your charge?" and we answered, "I will do so, the Lord being my helper." Our experience has taught us the inability of unaided human nature, and the absolute need of the Lord's help to keep this vow. Failure to keep it in the long run, means failure in the Christian ministry. I know of a minister in this Church who gives to that duty constant prayer, and noble enthusiasm. He cannot rest as long as there is alienation or strife among his neighbors, rich or poor, high or low. The people of his community, of all the churches, have learned to look up to him with a strange, tender reverence; they listen to him as he speaks to them from the pulpit, as one known to have been with Jesus, and words that would seem common-place from other men are clothed with dignity and power by the Christ-like walk and conversation of the man behind them. Christ words never fail: "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God;" and when men call us "the children of God," we have gone a long way towards winning them to become His children too.

The confirmations, as you have observed by the reports of your Bishops, have been numerous, and encouraging to our pastors. The services in the churches in the observance of the Holy ordinance and the external behavior of the candidates, as well as information concerning them from their ministers, gave me the satisfactory hope that they were duly instructed and impressed with the import and the solemnity of the occasion. To win souls, to add to the Church such as are in the way of salvation, is surely the highest function of the Christian ministry. We should watch against an ambition for numbers to be presented at the visitation of the Bishop; we should pray against the temptation to admit to confirmation persons ill prepared, or where the preparation is at least doubtful; but we should pray just as fervently to be saved from the temptation to indifference and neglect of personal effort and solicitude for the individual souls committed to our charge. Indifference here on the part of a minister will destroy the spiritual life of any Church. In this connection, I would suggest that we keep in mind the rule of this Church, that no candidate be admitted to confirmation who is not ready and desirous to partake of the Holy Communion; and that in our teachings upon the subject, this principle be not only assumed, but clearly stated to the people and to the candidates. Confirmation is the connecting link between baptism and the Lord's Supper; it is the door of the Holy Communion. If a person is in a fit state to take upon him the engagements of his baptism, he is in a fit state to receive the Lord's Supper. If he is ready to declare his resolution, as he does declare in confirmation, to fight manfully under the banner of Christ crucified, against the world, the flesh and the devil, and to continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant to his life's end, then he is ready to come to the Lord's table, and cannot be an unworthy communicant.

It is clear that no long interval should be allowed between confirmation and participation in the Holy Communion. Need I remind any pastor or Christian parent of the temptation to those who have received confirmation and attended the Lord's table, to imagine that their spiritual concerns have been attended to, and to look upon themselves as having discharged the great duty, and to rest in indolent and contented security. Special pastoral care and loving

Assistant Bishop's Address.

Christian training should be bestowed upon the newly confirmed in our flocks. Try to keep them in remembrance of their confirmation day. You might remind them a Sunday before of the anniversary of their confirmation morning. Anything, to tell them that you, the Shepherd, love the sheep, and that you "know them by name," and that you never forget to pray that they may be kept from the evil that is in the world. Having you all here before me, tempts me to transgress the limits of a Bishop's address. But you will pardon that. For my honored Bishop, and for myself, the joy and blessedness of our work is to deepen and to strengthen, to guide and to quicken yours in all the fields of this wide Diocese. We hear it said, again and again, that our day is a time of skepticism. Other days, the eighteenth century for example, were times of harder skepticism than ours. We must not judge the age by typical specimens of revolt from Christianity, or from the name of religion. I read with a shock, some years ago, this utterance of a statesman, the Prime Minister of a great and a nominally Christian nation: "As men move out of the influence of religion they get nearer to morality and to practical sense and truthfulness." What was his conception of Christianity? What kind of religion did that statesman mean? A Christianity, whose authoritative exposition was an unintelligible tirade against every element of liberal progress, which the modern world owes to Christianity, and which never could have been without it. A religion of pilgrimages to shrines and irrational belief in the false miracles of modern superstitions. We make men skeptics, too, if our religion is a quarrel about dress, or posture, or a solicitude about organization and machinery, to the subordination of their spiritual interests and the mighty themes of the Gospel. The heart of the Gospel is the redemption of Christ and the character of Christ; and the Bible is the inspired exposition of these elements of theology and life and saving power. Let us preach the Bible—the world around us knows less about it than we imagine. Ignorance of the Bible is the soil out of which the weeds of irreverence and flippant skepticism grow. Preach from texts in the Bible; but widen your teaching beyond the exposition of single sentences. If you teach it by single sentences your people will come to read it as a book of detached texts. They may read it in that way for a lifetime and be ignorant of its meaning, the current of its revelation, its structure, its scope, its argument and its history. You cannot get a conception of the Falls of Niagara, by examining under a microscope a single drop of its water. So you cannot know the Bible by analytical examination of the fragments of the Bible. Preach and expound the Bible, and men's hearts and consciences will respond to-day as they have done in all Christian ages wherever the word of God has been given to them as the Bread of Life.

The report of the Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund was presented and referred to the Standing Committee on that Fund.

Rev. Dr. Gibson presented the report of the Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund. Referred to Committee on said Fund.

The Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund respectfully present their Annual Report: By a change of investments, our judicious treasurer has increased the market value of our bonds, so that while they have a face value of $24,795.96, they are worth at least $27,000.

The income from this fund has increased, however, by no means in proportion to the value of the principal. It has improved from $1,372.91 to $1,397.02. The contributions also, during the past conventional year, have increased from $789.22 to $877.39, and the number of contributing parishes from seventy to seventy-five: But it is well to remind our brethren that there are in the Diocese still at least seventy non-contributing parishes. Our beneficiaries are fifteen in number, and although the income of the fund would seem to demand some reduction of the amounts to be given, the Board have thought it best to continue their appropriations as last year. They hope the parishes of the Diocese will, by their future liberality, more than supply the deficiency they have felt themselves bound, by the wants of "the fatherless and the widow," to create.

CHURCHILL J. GIBSON, Secretary.

I approve of the underlying principle embraced in the proposed Canon, but am not sure that all the ends sought to be attained can be accomplished except by a change in the Constitution.

W. H. TAYLOR.

Rev. Dr. Hanckel presented the following :

REPORT ON SEPARATE ORGANIZATION FOR COLORED BRETHERN.

The Committee appointed at Winchester, and enlarged at Richmond, to consider what action should be taken by the Diocese looking to a separate organization for our colored brethren, respectfully report: Your Committee are free to acknowledge at the outset that they have found the task assigned to them by your honorable body beset with difficulties, all of which they cannot hope to avoid or overcome.

They realize that, in the abstract, race-segregation might not seem to furnish the best solution of the race-problem; that it might be preferable, if found practicable, for the races to worship together the common God and Father of us all, and to legislate for His Church in close conjunction. But, in point of fact, this question is not an open one. It has been practically settled in advance by the action, not of the white, but of the colored race, and been thus eliminated from the race-problem, as presented for our consideration. The colored race have withdrawn in overwhelming majority from the churches in which they once worshipped with the whites, and that in every section of this broad land. Race-affinity, which we do not fault, has proved so strong, that even among the Methodists and Baptists, where they were formerly most numerous, and where they enjoyed race-associations to the full, short of race-segregation, this withdrawal has nevertheless occurred. The colored race have thus set off the white race, and not the white the colored; the conclusion therefrom being, that a separate organization of some sort our colored brethren have, and will continue to have an organization of their own. It has been conceded to them as unavoidable by all other denominations of Christians. The Northern Methodists, after an earnest effort to do otherwise, being the last to make the concession—a concession which our Church must, sooner or later, make in some shape and to some extent, or else abandon the colored field. Your committee therefore concurs in the opinion expressed by our Assistant Bishop, that "History" (which repeats itself in our experience) "has demonstrated that the races must work out their destinies under separate social and religious organizations." In essaying to disregard, to go counter to, this teaching of History and of Providence, we only fight against God.

Again, it might in the abstract, as has been suggested, be deemed wiser that, for a time at least, congregations composed exclusively of colored persons should be under the pastoral charge of white ministers; but as a fact, in days bygone, the colored people of the South usually had colored preachers in addition to their white pastors, and in the future, when the choice will, and of necessity must, rest with themselves, they will certainly, as a rule, continue to have pastors of their own race, despite all the whites may either say or do. It is then another foregone conclusion, that all we can hope to accomplish in this regard is to educate colored pastors for colored congregations, and this your Committee do most earnestly urge as wise and proper. Having conceded separate organization to our colored brethren, to the extent of allowing and recognizing colored congregations with colored pastors, it remains to consider what further steps can be taken in the same direction consistently with a continuance of ecclesiastical union between the races and the welfare of our entire Diocese. Despite the difficulties therein involved, your Committee recognize the great, nay, the extreme, importance of as close Church affiliation as may be compatible with the highest welfare of both races. The whites, to whom it is in the Providence of God committed, must sedulously guard and preserve inviolate in its purity that deposit of truth and of duty which it is theirs to keep and to transmit. Nothing would be gained for either race by which this previous deposit was imperilled.

In seeking to determine what relation may safely subsist between our colored brethren (with their exclusively colored congregations and colored pastor, especially in the rural districts) and our entire Church in this Diocese, your Committee have been able to devise no expedient better adapted than the one to which resort has been had by the Congress of the United States and by the General Convention of our Church, so far as the precedents are applicable to the case we have in hand. Congress erects territories (with territorial governments) out of sparsely settled portions of the public domain not yet prepared for the burthens, the duties, or the privileges of fully organized States.

In like manner, the General Convention of our Church has organized Missionary jurisdiction (out of parts of the territory nominally under its authority), composed at one time of an entire civil division; at another of parts, or the whole of several civil divisions; or, as in one instance (that of Dakota), out of a part only of a single civil division. In this last case, more closely resembling ours, a race-jurisdiction (i. e. for Indians) was originally erected under the title of Niobrara. Niobrara was, and still is, an ecclesiastical, and not a civil division, whose metes and bounds were determined by race-occupancy. The name of the jurisdiction has been changed to Southern Dakota, the same Bishop holding over, with his newly named jurisdiction subdivided into two deaneries, one of which sub-divisions ("for Indians") still bears the original name of Niobrara. These Missionary jurisdictions of the Church at large are officered and legislated for by the General Convention. Their representatives may be admitted to seats but not to votes in the House of Deputies. While of our Foreign Missionary jurisdictions, neither the African, nor the Chinese, nor the Japanese have, or ever had, representatives in the General Council of the Church.

Following these precedents in part, your Committee suggest the erection of a Colored Missionary jurisdiction of our Diocese, for which special legislation may then be had, and fostering care extended. They propose to allow colored convocations, and that such convocations may assemble annually in joint Council to consult and devise for their common welfare; and lastly, that such local convocations, in General Convocation assembled, may elect deputies to represent the whole colored jurisdiction in the annual Councils of the Diocese, thus ceding to our Diocesan Missionary jurisdiction what has not been ceded by the General Convention to its Missionary jurisdictions, either at home or abroad.

In pursuance of these objects your Committee recommend the adoption of the following:

CANON' XIII,

OF COLORED MISSION CHURCHES.

Section 1. The colored people of Virginia, who are, or may hereafter be, connected with the Protestant Episcopal Church, shall constitute a Missionary jurisdiction of the Diocese.

Sec. 2. It shall be lawful to organize mission churches or congregations, composed exclusively of colored persons, within the limits of any already existing parish, subject to the same conditions and regulations as are other mission churches (see Canon XII), and specially those of this Canon.

Sec. 3. Colored churches and congregations, organized as above provided, may be associated with other churches similarly constituted in convocations, such convocations to consist of as many congregations as may be determined by the ecclesiastical authority.

A General Convocation, to be composed of two clerical and two lay deputies from each local convocation, may be held at such time and place as may be designated, by the Bishop as to the first meeting, and afterwards by the General Convocation itself, to be presided over by the Bishop or Assistant Bishop, with power to consult and devise measures for their common welfare, which measures shall take effect when approved by the Council of the Diocese.

Sec. 4. At each such General Convocation there may be elected four clerical delegates to represent the entire colored missionary jurisdiction in the Annual Council of the Diocese, to vote only on matters affecting the interests of said jurisdiction.

Sec. 5. Colored congregations constituted as above provided shall not be liable to any assessment for the contingent expenses of the Diocese. They may acquire and hold property of their own, as by law provided, but cannot come into possession of the property of any white congregation, except by legal transfer, under the direction of the proper court of equity; nor shall any white congregation come into possession of the property of any colored congregation, except by legal transfer under similar direction.

Sec. 6. As a temporary (or, if found desirable, permanent) measure, there shall be appointed by the Bishop an Archdeacon, being a Presbyter, white or colored, of this Church (and if found necessary or possible more than one Archdeacon), who shall have general supervision of the colored churches and congregations within a prescribed district, whose duty it shall be to preside at meetings of convocation; to administer the Lord's Supper for colored deacons; to advise and aid such colored deacons, and when desired by themselves, colored Presbyters also in preparing classes for confirmation; and in general to discharge such other duties as may be assigned by the Bishop.

REPORT OF THE INSTRUCTOR OF THEOLOGY IN BRANCH SCHOOL, PETERSBURG.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia :*

I beg leave to report that there have been under instruction in your Branch School, during the past session, seventeen students in all. Of these, four were ordained deacons and went forth to their fields of labor last December, leaving thirteen students now in attendance, four of whom entered this session.

The subjects taught have been Latin, Greek Testament, Elementary Hebrew, English Grammar, General and Church History, Theology, Bible Introduction, Prayer Book, Mental and Moral Philosophy. Only six of the students receive instruction in languages other than English. The progress made in studies has been upon the whole quite encouraging, and the deportment of the students excellent.

Three students will apply for Deacon's Orders at the end of the session.

In teaching the lower branches I have been efficiently assisted by two of our advanced students, but an additional teacher is much needed.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS SPENCER.

ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT TO TRUSTEES (1886) FOR COUNCIL JOURNAL.

*Right Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., LL D.,
President of the Board of Trustees :*

RIGHT REV. AND DEAR SIR:—As Principal of the Episcopal High School I have the honor to submit the following report :

The whole number of pupils entered the present session is eighty. * * * Except in the diminution of numbers the session has been a prosperous one. We have had no serious sickness, and little of any sort. Fewer students have withdrawn during the year than ever before. The conduct of the boys has been unusually good, and the percentage of communicants has rarely been larger. With a return of better times our numbers will doubtless be restored.

In respect to religious observances at the School I have nothing new to report. They have continued as before, with due celebration of the Holy Seasons, and with confidence on our part that nothing beyond what is reasonable in the way of attendance is exacted. Family prayers in the morning in the School Chapel, and a brief service at the tea-table in the evening are held daily throughout the session. Sunday we go in the morning to the Seminary Chapel, and in the evening the regular service of the Church is performed at home; this, with Bible class Sunday afternoon, is all that is required. Attendance at Church on the chief festivals and fasts is cheerfully conceded by the boys as the condition of a full holiday—the only ones we have except the Christmas recess – and to the various extra services in the School Chapel, especially during Lent, they come in larger proportion probably than any congregation in the Diocese. Before the formation of the annual class for confirmation, instruction is furnished all who choose to listen, in a series of weekly lectures on the subject, with the understanding that no one is committed by such attendance to be a candidate, and from this plan the most satisfactory results follow.

I have again to thank the Rev. Drs. Walker and Nelson for occasional sermons in the School Chapel, and Dr. Nelson in particular for weekly services as heretofore during Lent, and for invaluable pastoral attention throughout the session.

Mr. R. A. Castleman, of the Seminary Senior Class, has retained charge of the Friday night devotional meeting for the boys, and has continued to exercise among them an influence of which I cannot overstate my grateful appreciation.

Eleven boys have been confirmed during the session the whole number of communicants now being thirty-three.

I have the honor to be, sir,

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

L. M. BLACKFORD.

Mr. Randolph Harrison presented the report of the Committee on the Brotherhood.

The Committee on the Brotherhood beg leave to transmit to the Council the report of the Trustees made through the President, Major D. N. Walker, and the report of the Treasurer, A. Y. Stokes, Esq., both of which papers they have carefully examined.

In this, the sixteenth annual report, the President again congratulates the Brotherhood on the fact that during the preceding year death has not invaded the ranks of its clerical members.

The statement of the Treasurer, duly attested by the committee of examination, and accompanied by proper vouchers, shows a balance of $1,837.30 on hand to the credit of the Brotherhood.

Your Committee, being impressed by the importance of this beneficent organization, and the necessity not only of keeping it alive, but of increasing its means of usefulness; and remembering that the Brotherhood no longer has the services of that energetic worker, the Rev. F. Stringfellow, whose untiring efforts have secured so many recruits for the Order, without which accessions its numbers would gradually diminish from natural causes, would make the following recommendation :

That each Lay Delegate to this Council be requested to use his best efforts to increase the membership of the Brotherhood, and to send the names and addresses of such new members, with the initiation fees (one dollar each), to the Secretary, Miss Mary Woodbridge, Richmond, Virginia.

RANDOLPH HARRISON,
C. L. C. MINOR.

The Trustees of the Brotherhood beg herewith to submit their sixteenth annual report. They have no deaths to report during the past year, as they had none to report last year. Since organization there have been twenty-eight deaths, and $31,373.09 have been paid to the families of the beneficiaries. The whole amount paid by a member who joined in 1870 has been $54.80, or an average of $3.42½ per year. It is therefore surprising that all the ministers are not interested in it, and that more of the Laity cannot spare that amount yearly for so good an object.

Respectfully,

D. N. WALKER,
President, for the Trustees.

The largest membership under $2.10 mortuary fee, was $750. The largest membership under $1.10 mortuary fee, was $1,001. The present membership between the two.

The treasurer's report shows balance of $1,837.30.

Rev. J. W. Shields, from the Committee on the Accounts of the Disabled Clergy Fund, presented the following :

REPORT FOR RELIEF OF DISABLED CLERGY.

Your Committee, to whom was referred the report of J. H. Claiborne, Esq., Treasurer of the Society for the relief of Disabled Clergymen of this Diocese, have performed that duty, and offer the following report:

Balance on hand from 1884-'5.....	$ 517 45
Collections the past year.....	2,683 85
Interest from bonds.....	1,221 88
	$3,905 73
Paid out, as shown by proper vouchers.....	3,090 00
Balance on hand, assets of the Society.....	$815 73

Your Committee feel it a duty to call especial attention to the importance of having this fund greatly increased. While it now gives $250 to each of the eight disabled clergymen on the list, and is a valued help to them, yet we may soon expect an increase in the number of those who should receive aid from this Society, and even those now aided may require greater assistance. It is the duty of the Church to provide amply for the comfort of those who have given their health and strength to the cause of God and man in preaching salvation through Christ. They will have their reward from God in the enduring rest of Heaven; but they should feel the gratitude of man in being fully cared for when the day of labor is past, and they are waiting their call to their eternal home. It is a reflection on the piety of the Church when the servants of God suffer for that which man can give.

We believe that there will be no difficulty in having this fund largely increased, if the clergy would call the attention of their people to it. We do not think it a Christian modesty that causes many to decline to do so. The minister should remember that he occupies the position of God's messenger, and therefore should ignore self and speak for his Master.

We hope therefore the Clergy of the Diocese will call the especial attention of their congregations to this matter during the coming year, and urge a heavy increase to the funds of this Society.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. W. DAME,
H. O. CLAGETT,
J. W. SHIELDS.

Mr. R. T. Scott moved that Rule III of the Rules of Order be amended, so as to read as follows :

III. The credentials of Lay Delegates shall be forwarded to the Secretary, and the Secretary shall make out a roll, and call the names of all certified to him as duly and canonically elected. The President of the Council shall then appoint a Committee, to be composed of four Clerical and three Lay Delegates, to whom shall be referred the certificates of election of the Lay Delegates, and who shall report the names of those entitled to seats, but until said report shall be received and adopted no business shall be considered by the Council.

Should doubt arise as to the right of any Lay Delegate to his seat, the matter shall be referred to the Committee on Elections for examination and report.

Pending the counting of the ballots for Clerical and Lay Deputies, the Council went into the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

Revs. Everard Meade and B. M. Randolph were appointed tellers. The ballot was taken and the following reported as elected :

Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D.,

Report on Changes in the Prayer Book.

Messrs. Jos. Bryan, Jos. Wilmer, B. J. Barbour and Wm. Nelson, were elected alternate Lay Deputies to the General Convention.

Right Rev. A. M. Randolph, from the Committee on the proposed changes in the Prayer Book, presented the following report :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE PROPOSED CHANGES IN THE PRAYER BOOK.

The Committee, to whom were referred the alterations and amendments to the Book of Common Prayer, approved by the last General Convention and sent down to this Diocese, respectfully submit to the Council their report.

Your Committee, keeping in mind "the happy mean between too much stiffness in refusing and too much easiness in admitting variations in things once advisedly established," have themselves subjected, and invite the Council to subject, to a rigid criticism these proposed changes in our Book of Common Prayer, for, except the Bible, no other book exerts so great an influence upon the religious life and character of our people. Propositions coming from so high and honorable a body as our Bishops and Deputies in Convention are entitled to, and will undoubtedly receive from all members of this Church, most respectful consideration. But while under the influence of this feeling, your Committee at the same time have felt, as doubtless this Council feels, that in such a work as this in which we have engaged—a work that is intended for the generations to come—we should not be hindered from making our book of worship as perfect as, by the grace of God's Spirit and the sanctified culture of His Church, it is possible to make it. The debt of gratitude we owe to our fathers for so precious a heritage as this Prayer Book, we can no other way discharge than by handing it down to our children even more free from blemishes—doctrinal, liturgical or literary, and more rich in devotional stores—than when we received it.

To the deep-seated love and veneration for the Prayer Book that has always been entertained by the people of this Church, we may confidently look, as its sufficient safeguard against the endless changes which the foreboding jealousy of some is apt to imagine when once the door has been opened to change. In view of the past history of the Prayer Book, and especially of the fact that in the last two hundred and eighty-two years there have been but two revisions, all such forebodings would seem to be groundless.

The proposed alterations and amendments come before us for our action in the form of resolutions adopted by the General Convention. These resolutions are thirty in number, each one embracing the alterations and additions in one office or natural division of the Prayer Book.

Report on Changes in the Prayer Book.

We recommend the adoption of the first resolution, with this amendment:

1. That the words, "Together with the articles of Religion" be added to the title.

RESOLUTION II.—The Introductory Portion.

We recommend the adoption of Resolution II, with the following amendments:

1. In the third paragraph, under the heading, "concerning the service of the Church," the words "on any day when Morning and Evening Prayer shall have been said, or are to be said in Church," be stricken out, so that the paragraph shall read, "The minister may, at any other service, with or without a sermon or lecture, use such devotions as he shall, at his discretion, select from this book, subject to the directions of the ordinary."

2. That the "Table of Proper Psalms on certain days," and the "Table of Selections of Psalms," be omitted here, inasmuch as they are printed before the Psalter, where they more appropriately belong.

3. That Canon 23, Title I, of the Digest, be substituted for the paragraph under the heading "Hymns and Anthems."

4. That (d) in this resolution concerning the Sectionary be not approved, in so far as it embraces Lessons from the Apocryphal Books under the title of "Lessons of Holy Scripture."

We recommend the adoption of this resolution, with the following amendments:

1. Substitute 2 Cor. 5:21 for "Sam. 1:12," in the opening sentence for Good Friday.

2. That the change in the Venite exultemus be not approved.

3. That the words "or he that readeth," in the note immediately preceding the Te Deum be omitted.

4. That the addition to the Benedictus be not approved.

5. That the change in the Rubric immediately preceding the Apostles' Creed in Morning and Evening Prayer, making imperative the use of one or the other of the forms, "He descended into hell," and "He went into the place of departed spirits," be not approved.

6. That the musical punctuation of the two Creeds be not approved.

7. That the first Rubric after the Collect for Grace, viz: "In places where it may be convenient, here followeth the anthem," be not approved.

RESOLUTION IV.—Evening Prayer.

We recommend the adoption of this resolution, with the following amendments:

 Report on Changes in the Prayer Book.

1. Insert among the opening sentences Eph. 1:7, and on the margin add "Good Friday."
2. That the introduction of the Magnificat be not approved.
This involves the rejection of the Rubric just preceding, the substitution in the following Rubric of "After which shall be sung or said the following Psalm," for the words "or this Psalm," and the omission of the words "Magnificat, or," in the note after the Bonum est.
3. That the introduction of the Nunc Dimittis, with the consequent rubrical additions, be not approved.
4. That the additional versicles after the Creed be not approved.
5. That in the Rubric before the Collect for Peace, after the words, "Then shall be said the Collect for the day," be inserted the words "except when the Communion service is read."
6. That the omission of the first clause in the Collect for Aid against Perils be not approved, but that the words "Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee," be inserted; so that the prayer shall read: "O Lord, our heavenly Father, by whose almighty power we have been preserved this day, lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, and by thy great mercy defend," &c.
7. That the Rubric immediately following the Collect for Aid against Perils be omitted.
8. That in the title of the "Prayer for the President of the United States and all in civil authority," in the Morning and Evening Service, the words "the President of the United States and" be omitted.

 RESOLUTION V.—The Beatitudes.

We recommend that this resolution be not adopted.

 RESOLUTION VI.—The Litany.

We recommend the adoption of this resolution, with the following amendments:

1. That the words "the chief Magistrate of our country" be substituted for the words "the President of the United States," in the petition for the President.
2. That the proposed change under (e) be not approved.

 RESOLUTION VII.—Prayers and Thanksgivings.

We recommend the adoption of this resolution, with the following amendments:

1. In the Prayer for Meetings of Convention, substitute the words "in session" for the word "convened."

Report on Changes in the Prayer Book.

2. In the Prayer for Missions, omit the word "for" before "to dwell on the face," &c.

3. In the Prayer for a Vacancy in the Cure of Souls, the words "of him who ministereth unto us in holy things" be stricken out, and the sentence read, "that by his faithful work and blameless conversation we may be moved," &c.

2. That the Rubric next before the commandments be not approved.

3. That "Thanks be to Thee, O Lord," after the Gospel, be omitted.

4. In the Rubric, before the Nicene Creed, for "Morning Prayer" substitute "Morning or Evening Prayer."

5. That the last clause of the Rubric next after the Offertory sentences, viz : "And when the alms are presented, there may be sung or said an Offertory Anthem," be omitted.

6. That the change in the Rubric, after the Prayer for the Church Militant, allowing the exhortation, "Dearly beloved in the Lord," to be omitted if it has been used once that same month, be not approved.

7. That the change in the Rubric before the Trisagion be not approved.

8. That the first of the group of Rubrics at the end of the Communion Office be amended, to read thus : "On any occasion of public worship (though there be no sermon or Communion) may be said all that is appointed at the Communion unto the end of the Gospel, concluding with the Blessing."

9. That the third of these Rubrics, viz : "And note that every communicant should receive the Communion at the least three times in the year," &c., be not approved.

RESOLUTION XIII.—Public Baptism of Infants.

1. That the change in the Rubric as to giving and receiving the ring be not approved.

RESOLUTION XXVIII.—Consecration of a Church.

We recommend the following amendment :

1. That the omitted Rubric after the Proper Lessons be restored and changed to read thus : “ Morning Prayer being ended, there may be sung a Hymn or an Anthem.”

RESOLUTION XXIX.—Embracing the Institution Office.

Resolved, That the following verbal alterations be made in this service as in the proposed book :

(a). Under C, in the Letter of Institution, substitute for the word “ sacerdotal” the word “ ministerial,” so as to read “ ministerial function,” “ ministerial relation.” The reasons for this proposition are—

1st. That the word “ sacerdotal” is nowhere used in the Prayer Book to describe the functions of a Minister and the relations between him and the congregation. It is a new term introduced into this service. The term “ Minister,” is the name for Priests and Deacons in the Rubrical laws and the Liturgical forms of the Prayer Book, and should be used in this office for that reason, apart from other considerations.

2d. The term “ sacerdotal” is inadequate and inappropriate in the connection in which it is proposed to be used, and is therefore a literary blemish. The passages in the Bishop’s Letter, where it occurs, refer to the entire relations between the Minister and the Parish, prescribing the conditions of their permanence, or the manner and the authority for their dissolution. It is obvious that a term should be used describing and comprehending all the relations between the Minister and the Parish. The term “ sacerdotal,” even in the conception of those who advocate its use, as applied to the functions and the office of a Minister of a Parish, describes only a limited portion of those functions. The term “ ministerial” comprehends the sacerdotal relation, and, besides, all the other relations which a Minister sustains to a Parish or a congregation.

(b). Substitute for the word “ altar,” wherever it occurs in the Rubric of the Office of Institution, the phrase “ Communion Table.” The term “ altar” is unknown to the Rubrical law of this Church, save in this office. The legal and the uniform designation throughout the Prayer Book is "Communion Table." To render the Rubrics consistent and uniform, especially in the use of legal terms, seems an obvious duty of a Revision Committee. The substitution of the term "altar" for "Communion Table" in the Rubric of one office, and that comparatively unimportant, and seldom used, would require very clear reasons, both upon literary and legal grounds, to explain and to justify it. It is clear that no such reasons exist.

Adoption of Report on Changes in the Prayer Book.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

F. M. WHITTLE,
A. M. RANDOLPH,
C. MINNIGERODE,
J. GRAMMAR,
C. WALKER,
W. D. GIBSON.

Rt. Rev. A. M. Randolph then offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this Council commits to its Deputies to the General Convention the recommendations of this Report to be presented to that body without expressing any opinion thereupon.

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Council of the Diocese of Virginia the whole subject of the Revision of the Book of Common Prayer be committed to the learned body of Revisers, to whose faithful labors we owe the valuable suggestions of the Book Annexed. We believe that the work may be greatly improved if subjected to deliberate reconsideration, and thus improved by the Convention of 1886, it may be ready for final adoption by the Convention of 1889.

Rev. B. D. Tucker presented the following as a substitute:

Whereas, The Council of the Diocese of Virginia deems it inexpedient and unnecessary at this time to make any change in the Book of Common Prayer,

Resolved, That the Council recommend that the alterations and amendments to the Book of Common Prayer, approved by the last General Convention and sent down to this Diocese be not approved; and

Resolved, That the Delegates to the General Convention be instructed to oppose any change in the Book of Common Prayer.

The substitute of Rev. B. D. Tucker was lost.

The resolutions of Rt. Rev. A. M. Randolph were carried.

Rev. Dr. Walker, from the Committee on New Parishes, presented the following:

Report of Committee on New Parishes.

As Chairman of the Committee on the Division of Parishes, I would respectfully report :

That the committee have had before them a petition from members of Whittle Parish, Fauquier county, asking for a division of the same, and the setting off of a new Parish to be called Randolph Parish: of which petition due canonical notice has been given to the Bishop and the vestry of said Parish.

Accompanying this petition, is a protest, signed by eleven members of the vestry, with reasons against the division. The committee find themselves unable to agree—upon a vote, are equally divided.

The portion of the committee disagreeing to the division are persuaded that it will prove inimical to the permanent interests of the Parish.

The fact of the protest of so large a portion of the vestry, irrespective of any reasons given, has its weight. With this protest, however, are statements of fact, as to the annual collections of the Treasurer, and, consequently, of the average of the contributing willingness of the community, which serve to show that the old Parish, by the division, will be weakened, and that it will be only with extraordinary effort and liberality that the new Parish can be permanently sustained.

In view of these considerations, this portion of the committee find that they cannot recommend the division asked for in the petition.

C. WALKER.

O. A. KINSOLVING,

R. A. GOODWIN.

. Mr. P. H. Powers, from the same Committee, presented the following:

The undersigned, a portion of the committee to whom was referred the petition of certain members of the church of Whittle Parish, asking for a division of said Parish by certain lines as indicated in said petition, and the establishment of a new Parish, to be known as Randolph Parish, beg leave to report that they have given careful and thorough consideration to the matter referred to them in all its aspects, including the calling forth by parol testimony of exact and explicit information upon certain fundamental points necessarily having a controlling influence in deciding the question before them.

This testimony has conclusively established in our minds these facts:

1st. That the requirements of the ecclesiastical law, as necessarily precedent to the consideration of a division of a Parish, have been complied with.

2d. That from extent of territory, number of inhabitants, and wide separation of churches, the work now incumbent upon the rector of Whittle Parish is more than one minister can adequately perform.

3d. That the petitioners have ample resources to build a church and to support a minister, and have given satisfactory assurance of an earnest and determined desire and intention to do so.

Report of Committee on New Parishes.

4th. That the division asked for leaves to Whittle Parish all the church property, including three churches and a comfortable rectory, and withdraws from its support, of those now contributing, only one or two contributors.

In view of these facts, and with a firm conviction that a division will inure to the benefit of Whittle Parish, will build up a church and congregation with all their appliances for good in a field now much neglected, and redound to the glory of God, we recommend that the petition be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

P. H. POWERS,
JOHN G. WILLIAMS,
B. L. WINSTON.

Resolved, 2. That the Rectors of churches be earnestly requested to bring the claims of the sacred ministry before their congregations at least once each year.

Resolved, 3. That one of the Professors of the Seminary, or some other suitable Clergyman, be urged to visit the several literary institutions of the State, and seek opportunities, at appropriate times, of enlisting the interest of Christian young men to consider the duty of studying for the sacred ministry.

The Council re-assembled, and was called to order by the Assistant Bishop.

Rev. E. V. Jones presented the report of the Committee on the State of the Church.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee on the State of the Church desire to express their gratitude to the Great Head of the Church, for the measure of His grace vouchsafed us during the past year. He has blessed our Bishops and clergy with health and strength, has given them "a mind to work," and the results of that work as gathered from the Bishops' addresses and the Parochial reports, as far as received, are, on the whole, encouraging. The number of confirmations, of churches consecrated, of mission stations established and old Parishes revived; the condition of our Seminary Fund, the number of our Postulants for Holy Orders—six of whom are colored—are, all of them, causes for thankfulness, and indicate a healthy if not a rapid growth of the Church.

Through an unfortunate omission in the form of Parochial Reports sent out to the clergy we have no complete returns of our Sunday School work, a portion of our labors which is of the highest importance.

We should like to know whether the number of the lambs of the flocks have increased through the year; how many have attended the services of God's House; how many have been confirmed; how many public catechizings the ministers have held, and whatever else might indicate to us the spiritual condition of those who are the seed of the future Church.

For need we remind our Christian people that no part of God's Church can be spiritually healthy and prosperous where the training of the young is neglected or superficial, where the home influence is not positively and strongly for God, and where, by the guarding and guiding hand of parents, sponsors and pastors, the young are not kept from "the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil."

Brethren of the clergy, are the lambs of your flocks duly sheltered and cared for?

Brethren of the laity, have you earnestly sought to frame the lives of your households, by the teachings of the Holy Word, by the training powers of the Church, and by the influence of your own godly walk and conversation?

And here, while deploring the laxity which prevails among many professing Christians, with regard to the observance of the Lord's day in general, we cannot refrain from uttering our solemn protest and warning against one most fruitful source of Sabbath desecration, the admission into our homes of the so-called Sunday newspapers and periodicals. The great and growing prevalence of this evil means serious danger to the spiritual health of our people, and especially our young people, pre-occupying their minds with vain and worldly thoughts, and often, by their seductive influence, detaining many from God's house.

We therefore earnestly exhort you, brethren, both by word and example, to condemn these things, that your own heart and the hearts of your households may be open, at least upon God's holy day, to the pure influence and teaching of His sacred Word.

It is with sorrow that we note the fact, emphasized by the Bishop in his report, of the marked falling off in the number of young men seeking admission into the ministry of this Church. While twenty-seven candidates for Priest's Orders were enrolled last year, there are but fourteen this, with a corresponding decrease in the students attending our Seminary. The spiritual growth and progress of the Church is inseparably allied both with the number and character of those who seek and gain admission to the ranks of her ministry. And though it is sadly true the church needs men for her various fields ripe for the harvest, it is also true she needs them earnest, devoted, Christlike men as well. Upon pastors, sponsors, and parents devolves, therefore, the grave responsibility of seeking out and finding those of such character, and laying upon their hearts for prayerful consideration the question of their own inward call and consecration to the ministry of this Church. For, to use the language of our Bishop in his report, "While no one, in my opinion, should ever urge or advise another to enter the ministry, except under very peculiar circumstances, yet every man who consecrates himself soul and body to the service of Christ in confirmation, might have his mind directed to the subject, and be induced to seriously and prayerfully consider whether he is not called of God to this sacred office."

The work among the colored people, of which you are fully informed in the reports of the Bishops and others, though attended by peculiar embarrassments and difficulties, and straitened in many quarters for lack of adequate funds, gives, on the whole, great cause for thankfulness and encouragement. Trusting that the plan matured by the present Council may tend to its better and more efficient organization, we earnestly commend the work as the cause of Christ and His Church to the sympathy, the prayers, and the support of all our people.

Your Committee regret to note a considerable decrease in the aggregate of contributions as shown by the parochial reports, due in great part, no doubt, to the unusually large number of non-reporting parishes. But the falling off in this respect—if falling off there be—is hardly matter of surprise in view of the general business depression which has affected all interests, secular as well as religious. Under this head, however, we are gratified to mark a notable exception in the receipts of the Diocesan Missionary Society, which have almost reached the amount of last year and prove that notwithstanding their financial distress, our people, both Clergy and Laity, are more and more realizing the urgent claims of this great agency for the spread and support of the Church in this Diocese, and upon whose fostering care more than one-third of our Parishes depend as beneficiaries, and forasmuch as this blessed work can neither increase nor continue without the hearty and united co-operation of our Parishes, your Committee earnestly invoke for this Society the faithful prayers and liberal, systematic offerings of our people. All of which is respectfully submitted by the Committee.

Report of Committee on Finance.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey presented the report of the Committee on Finance :

The Committee on Finance respectfully report that they have examined the accounts of the Treasurer, James T. Gray, Esq., and found them correct, and sustained by proper vouchers. The Committee are indebted to Mr. Gray, not only for the admirable manner in which the accounts with the Diocese are kept, but for valuable information as to the financial condition of the Diocese.

At the commencement of the fiscal year, 1885-'6, the amount due to the State Bank of Virginia was $1,865.46. The receipts on account of dues to the Contingent Fund last year were $10,770.44, which amount, compared with that of the year before, which was $9,562.92, shows an increase of receipts of $1,207.50; that increase would have been much larger had the obligation of the communicants and parishes to pay what is due for the support of the working forces of the Diocese been recognized more generally, as being the same as that which binds parishioners to pay for the support of the Parish and its ministry. There is to the credit of the Diocese, as shown by the Treasurer's account, the sum of $30.08. It will be seen, however, that the Treasurer, in order to supply the wants of the Diocese, borrowed $1,605, which must be paid out of the present receipts; the result will be, that the Diocese commences the present fiscal year with a debt of $1,574 92.

The evil of delinquencies in Contingent Fund account still continues. Notwithstanding the earnest appeal made in the Committee's last year's report to the delinquents, to come forward and settle the balances due from them, the Treasurer's report shows that since June, 1885, only $585.69 have been paid on arrearages, old and new. This chronic debt, which, up to 1884, as was shown by the last report, amounted to $15,163.93, instead of being diminished is increasing yearly. The time has past when ignorance of the needs of the Diocese can be plead as an excuse for delinquencies in paying what is due to the Diocese. There is no longer a surplus in the Treasury, but a debt due from it, and the amount of $2,600 invested in United States' four per cents. will, ere long, be called upon to rescue the Diocese from discreditable indebtedness. From a large number of churches and Parishes no reports are made at all; from many no reports of communicants are made, and amounts paid in are sadly disproportioned to the true amounts due. Some churches fail to send in the number of their communicants, and while it is known that the amounts paid by them do not equal what the number of their communicants requires to be paid in, still they avoid the discredit of being published as delinquent for any specific amounts. As has been often shown before, there would be no difficulty in meeting all the expenses of the Diocese, ordinary as well as extraordinary (such as those of the General Convention which will fall upon the Treasury this year), if the parishes and churches paid at the rate of one dollar for each communicant. Now that the salaries of the Evangelists have ceased to be chargeable on the Treasury, the income from the assessments ought to have met current expenses and left a surplus. But such is not the case, and this year there will be a serious deficiency. The ordinary expenses for the current year, unless salaries be curtailed, will, as shown by the Treasurer's report, be not less than $10,509.98. Last year they were estimated at $9,495.89, omitting $2,050 for the Evangelists, showing an underestimate of $1,014.09. If for this year there be added $1,000 for General Convention charges, and the debt presently due of $1,574.92, it will appear that we must meet during the current fiscal year charges in the Treasury of $13,084.90. The largest estimate of receipts from the assessments will not yield more than $11 000, so that our debt will be seriously increased instead of being diminished during the current year. In their last report the Committee suggested two modes of meeting the difficulty: First, the curtailment of salaries, and second, more effective efforts to secure payments to the Contingent Fund. The salaries of the Evangelists were discontinued, and the salary of the Historiographer reduced to $200. Your Committee are not yet prepared to advise the reduction of the salaries of the examining Chaplains and Secretaries, and still less those of the Bishops. On the line of curtailment, however, they suggest that the expenses of printing and distributing the JOURNAL and other matters for Diocesan use seem to be large, and while at present they submit no resolution on the subject, they advise the Secretary to use his best efforts to lessen the expense, by competition or otherwise, as he may deem most judicious.

The second suggestion of your committee is that more effective efforts to secure payments to the Contingent Fund of assessments for Diocesan support. How can this be accomplished? We reply, that the only sure and effective mode is by such amendments of the Constitution and Canons as will place the support of the Diocese upon a business basis. Upon what principle these assessments shall be made, whether upon number of communicants, or upon proportionate ability to pay, will be matters for consideration. In order that the entire subject may be duly considered and a well digested plan for a reliable Diocesan system of finance and support may be adopted, your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of seven, to consist of three clergymen, three laymen, and the treasurer of the Diocese, be appointed to consider and report at the next Council upon the matters referred to in this report.

Respectfully submitted,

HUGH W. SHEFFEY, Chairman.

The resolution was adopted, and the following committee appointed:

Resolutions of Finance Committee Adopted.

Rev. S. S. Moore;

Mr. P. H. Powers,

Mr. J. T. Gray.

Judge Sheffey then presented the following :

The Committee on Finance recommend for adoption the following resolutions—

1. That the Treasurer be authorized to pay the customary charges in the Diocese for salaries of the Bishop, Assistant Bishop, Secretary, Chaplains, Historiographer, and other expenses, including the amount for rent of a residence for the Assistant Bishop, and the further sum of $50 to the Assistant Secretary and $15 to the sexton of Christ church, Charlottesville, and that he pay the cost of such repairs of the Episcopal residence as may be needed.

2. That the ministers of the Church in the Diocese be requested to read at an early day the report of the Committee on Finance to their respective congregations, and urge upon such as are delinquent the necessity of promptness in providing the necessary means for the support of the Diocese.

3. That in addition to those usually distributed outside of the Diocese, the Secretary forward to each of the Bishops and to every minister of the Diocese a copy of the JOURNAL, when printed, without charge, and furnish so many copies thereof as the vestries of the respective churches may order for themselves and others, to be paid for at the rate of twenty-five cents a copy.

H. W. SHEFFEY,
Chairman Committee on Finance.

The resolutions were adopted.

Rev. Dr. Dashiell offered the following :

Whereas our beloved Bishop, to the great regret of the Council, feels constrained to return to his home. therefore

Resolved, That the Council earnestly and affectionately requests the Assistant Bishop to have the usual closing services and to make the usual closing address to-morrow night.

Unanimously carried.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey presented the report of the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute :

The Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute submit to the Council their annual report.

Report of Trustees of Virginia Female Institute.

To fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. D. B. Tennant, late of Petersburg, the trustees have chosen the Rt. Rev. A. M. Randolph as a member of the Board of Trustees.

The interest on the Institute debt has been paid to the 1st day of April, 1886.

The report of Mrs. Stuart, the principal of the Institute, shows still more gratifying evidence of the success of the Institute, and of increased favor and confidence among its patrons.

The number of boarding pupils is sixty-four. For several months there were sixty-seven.

Ten of the pupils were confirmed at the visitation by the Assistant Bishop in April last. Indeed, year after year this Institution proves itself more and more to be a nursery of the Church and a centre of Christian influence throughout our broad land.

In her report Mrs. Stuart says "the number of pupils on the 1st of October was sixty-seven—twenty-five of these being from Virginia." This evidence of increased patronage from Virginia is most gratifying. Mrs. Stuart adds: "There are in the school this year representatives from fourteen States and five Protestant Churches besides our own." Four of the ten candidates for confirmation had been baptized by the Rector of the Parish the Sunday before the Bishop's visitation.

Mrs. Stuart again calls the attention of liberal and Christian laymen to the matter of scholarships. She says: "Help in the form of scholarships—that is, free tuition in English and Latin—has been extended by the principal to six boarders and two day pupils. The demand was urgent, and no response from outside has as yet been made to the earnest appeal of last year. Will it continue unnoticed?"

To endow such scholarships will not cost a great deal, and the Trustees earnestly commend the subject to the attention of those who are interested in Christian education for the daughters of the Church. Mrs. Stuart further says:

"The health of the School has been excellent, and, as a whole, the standard of scholarship well maintained." The number of the Faculty is to be increased to sixteen, and to be composed of three gentlemen and thirteen ladies.

"Our aim," says Mrs. Stuart, in her admirable report, "is to be thorough in every branch taught, and to inspire each pupil with a high sense of right, and a desire to attain all that is noble and true in woman. We bespeak the prayers and help of our Diocesan Council."

The Trustees, renewing their cordial expressions of commendation of the Institute, ask the Council to adopt the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Council of the Diocese of Virginia, recognizing the Virginia Female Institute as one of the Institutions of the Diocese, and as a School which is becoming more and more not only a nursery of truly refined culture and womanly education, but also as one of the missions of the Church for the ingathering of its daughters into the sacred fold. And being gratified by the evidences of its increased success and usefulness, the Council most cordially commends it to the continued patronage of the Diocese, and earnestly unites with the Principal and Trustees in appealing to the liberal for the means of aiding in the education of those who need kindly help.

 Adjournment.

HUGH W. SHEFFEY, Secretary.

The report was received and its resolution adopted.

Rev. Thomas Spencer offered the following :

Resolved, That the following amendment to the Constitution be approved by this Council, and transmitted to the several vestries of the Parishes which shall have ratified this Constitution :

That the word "presbyter" be substituted for the words "minister" and "clergyman" wherever these words occur in Article II of the Constitution.

On motion of Mr. H. W. Sheffey, the consideration of the resolution was postponed to the next Council.

Rev. Dr. Walker offered the following :

Resolved, That Canon X, section 1, be amended by adding after the word "assemble" the words "after public notice given in the church or place of public worship."

Referred to the following committee to report at the next Council:

Rev. C. Walker, D. D.,
" H. Suter,

Mr. M. D. Corse,
" L. M. Blackford.

The Council then united in singing the 315th Hymn—

"Blest be the tie that binds."

Prayer was offered by the Assistant Bishop, and the Council adjourned sine die.

THOMAS SPENCER, Assistant Secretary.

REMARKS.—This congregation has been doing some missionary work on Chelsea hill. A very attractive building, called The Chapel of the Redeemer, has been erected. It will hold about one hundred and fifty people, and is about a mile from Christ Church. The lot was given by a member of Christ Church, and funds were contributed by friends in and out of the Parish.

REMARKS —Mrs. Jennings' colored work at Trinity Chapel is located in Cumberland Parish. She has a good day and Sunday school, and seems to be doing a good work among her people. A student (Mr. Howell) from the Divinity School, Petersburg, gives her occasional services. I preach and administer the Holy Communion for them occasionally. I have baptized at her chapel (Trinity) during the past year 4 infants and 5 adults, and Bishop Randolph confirmed 9.

The monthly services at Aenon Church are very encouraging, both as to attendance

REMARKS.—Of the twenty-eight confirmed, ten were confirmed in the Mission Chapel at Glenwood (Trinity). Eleven cadets and fifteen students commune with us regularly, but are not reported as identified with the Parish. Two communicants (not transferred) living near the Church attend occasionally. Our Church debt has been paid and the Church is ready for consecration. The Parish debt has been reduced to half the original sum. The debt on Trinity Church, Glenwood, is still unpaid.

REMARKS.—I withdrew from the pastorate of St. James' Church last August. I retain the Chapel, preaching there and at public school-house on alternate Sundays. I instruct a Bible class at the Chapel. The attendance at both places is pretty good, but as it is chiefly made up of other denominations, the prospect for additions to our Church in the near future is not encouraging, but I am content to go on in the Master's work, hoping and trusting that He will recognize some benefit to His cause which will meet His approbation. The Sunday School is now under the efficient superintendence of a Baptist brother, who came to its rescue when its suspension seemed indefinite for the want of a superintendent, on condition that it should be a free school, to the extent that the parents of the children are to be allowed their preference between our instruction books and the "International Sunday School lessons."

MISCELLANEOUS.

WINCHESTER, May 12th 1886.

To the Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., B. P. E. C. Va. :

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I herewith transmit my report for the year of 1886.

Owing to sickness in my family I have been kept at home most of my time. My own health is very good.

I have many joyful seasons with small company in private families. I marry, baptize, bury the dead, read, preach, &c., whenever called on. Have no appointments for church services ahead ; am governed by providential circumstances.

The health of my family is so much improved that I hope the next church year to resume my regular church appointments and do more regular work.

Yours in Christ,

J. B. T. REED, P. E. Evangelist for F. C.

My post-office is Winchester, Frederick county, Va.
